SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL ANARCHIST BOOKFAIR

PROGRAMME

17TH OCTOBER 1998
10AM UNTIL 11PM

CONWAY HALL • RED LION SQUARE • LONDON WC1
NEAREST TUBE HOLBORN

JUST BE THERE!

SATURDAY 17TH OCTOBER

MAIN HALL

THE BOOKFAIR

Books, new and secondhand, in print and hard to find, pamphlets, magazines, newspapers, tracts and rants, poetry, T-shirts, videos, tapes, CDs, comic books, posters, postcards, theory, history, fantasy, polemics, fiction, art and lots more besides. Come meet the thirty plus anarchist groups and publishers whose stalls fill the main hall. Discover all you want to know about the various groups, their publications, their proclivities (and even their politics). And if it's all too much, you can buy food, beer, tea, coffee, juice and then relax in the balcony and watch the spectacle below. 10am-7pm

LET'S PARTY!

Join us for an end of Bookfair party. Live DJ. Other events planned. Tickets will be on sale on the day and on the door at just £2. 8pm-11pm

SMALL HALL

REVOLUTIONARY SEXUALITY

Including Kellan Farshea, Tuppy Owens and the Sex Workers' Show and Tell. One of the big hits of last year's bookfair, back by popular demand. What can top last year? 11.30-1pm

MA'AM

MOVEMENT AGAINST THE MONARCHY

The Monarchy. The very pinnacle of the Establishment. It's time has run out. Ian Bone and Martin Wright have spent the past year preparing for a popular assault on the palace gates. 1-2pm

FERMIN ROCKER

In conversation with Anthony Rudolf, Fermin Rocker, son of the anarchist Rudolf Rocker, movingly recalls the spirit of the East End anarchist and Jewish movements of the early 1900s. This talk coincides with the recent publication of Fermin's memoir The East End Years. 2-3pm

THE ITALIAN JOB

In 1994, six anarchists were convicted of armed robbery in Italy. A wave of activity followed their imprisonment and this led to a massive police round-up of anarchists. There are currently 60 people on trial. One of the original six, Jean Weir, will describe the situation and how British comrades can offer help. Funds are desperately needed. 3-4pm

RIDING THE WIND

A NEW PHILOSOPHY FOR A NEW ERA

Peter Marshall, author of the major work, Demanding the Impossible: A History of Anarchism, will talk about his philosophy, 'liberation ecology', the subject of his new book. 4-5pm

THE END IS NIGH

Heard the one about the millennium bug? Stand-up anarchist comedian, Tony Allen, predicts the imminent collapse of western civilisation as we know it. 5-6pm

GANDALF

THE GREEN ANARCHIST/ALF TRIALS

Three activists convicted of conspiracy on the basis of their publishing had their convictions quashed on 23rd July this year – but only on a technicality. Two activists still face the same farce. 6-7pm

CLUB ROOM

ANARCHISM AND RELIGION

AN IMPOSSIBLE COMBINATION?

Dutch anarchist Bas Moreel leads a discussion on the often-unrecognised connections between anarchism and some varieties of religious thought and practice, looking closely at the example of the anarchist Catholic Workers' movement. 11.30-12.30pm

CLIFFORD HARPER

ANARCHIST AND ARTIST

From his early years in the shanty towns of Rio, via time in Hollywood as Clint Eastwood's body double, to his work today with the Anarchist Bookfair, the artist will talk about his graphic work, accompanied by a slide show. 12.45-1.45pm

MALATESTA IN LONDON

1900-1914: THE ERA OF SYNDICALISM

Carl Levey will discuss this period of the renowned anarchist militant's life. Hosted by the Anarchist Research Group. 2-4pm

BRADFORD MAY '98

NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR THE LIBERTARIAN LEFT

In the Spring, 256 people met to share perspectives, air differences and look at directions for the future. A discussion, led by the Mayday organisers, about where we go to next. 4-5pm

NEXT STOP GLASGOW?

A SECOND NATIONAL CONFERENCE?

Following on from the success of the Bradford conference, Glasgow anarchists propose hosting a second conference in their home city. 5-6pm
