No- We don't give up! We are the life and soul of NCND demos, making our demands audible as well as visual. If you can sing, play instruments, bang a tambourine, shake a tin, blow a whistle or otherwise make a noise then come and join us. The "Flying Pickets" did it without any instruments- so can we if necessary!

Please try to make it to the Planning meeting Friday 7.30 pm. on Jan 13th at the NCND Office. Future meetings- second Friday in the month unless you hear otherwise!

Following the successful regional actions in December and our participation in the Christmas Carnival at Cottesmore, a meeting has been arranged to explore the possibility of another regional action in the new year.

SUNDAY 8th JANUARY. 2.30 pm. FACTSHOP

It would be a shame were we not to build on the links which have already been made in the East Midlands and a representative from each neighbourhood group will be made most welcome. We need your participation, your energy and your ideas at this crucial time in the campaign. Do get involved. There are lots more targets in this area and lots of possibilities for actions - direct action need only be a part of anything that is arranged so don't be put off if you're not willing to be arrested.

See you there, along with representatives from Leicestershire, Derbyshire, etc.

NO TO CRUISE

NO TO USAF CHILWELL

Review of Chilwell Demo. Sat. 3rd. Dec.

There were three marches from Beeston, Stapleford & Long Eaton, converging on the Recreation Ground in Toton.

The separate marches each had a large police escort who accompanied the 40 or so marchers, and restricted traffic to allow the marchers to walk down the road. The Recreation Ground was extremely secluded so basically, no-one saw us !!

Speakers included Frank Haynes Labour MP, Alan Simpson ex prospective Labour MP and a representative or two from women for peace. The speeches lasted an hour or so after which a group of people went off to have some fun outside the Chilwell Garrison Main Gates, including singing, chanting and talking to security officials.

TORCHLIGHT

Dear friends,

I'm not the sort to complain, (well, I am really....) but I just want to say a few words about the CND Xmas torchlight procession I've been on. At least I think it was a CND procession - I recognised a lot of people and there were two placards. Outsiders couldn't really tell - no CND banner, no local group banners - I didn't see any leafletters. I almost wish that like the Hiroshima day torchlit do we'd marched places no-one had ever marched before so that at least our embarrassingly uncommunicative parade would have been unseen. Fortunately the rain kept spectators away and gave cover for people like me to slope off to the pub instead of standing around looking confused at the end. The demonstration did pose some questions. What was it for, who was it aimed at and why didn't anybody at least announce what was going on? Yes, yes I know I'd done nothing for it, but I'd been working and I think we humble footsloggers can expect a little more from those who call us to march. It's not the quantity of demos that count, but the quality.

Peace and freedom,

Ross Bradshaw

LECTURE POSTPONED

John Keegan of the Royal Military College, Sandhurst was to have given a talk on "Defending Britain without Nuclear Weapons" as part of the University Series of Peace Lectures. Two weeks before the event he was advised not to give a "peace" lecture, since the Ministry of Defence, his employer, regarded this as controversial.

John Keegan will, nevertheless, be coming to the University in January - date still to be arranged - to give a similar lecture in a different context. This lecture will also be open to the public.

For details contact John Ferris on 56101 extension 3377 (daytime).
