OBJECTION! (RANT 'N' RAVE PAGE)

Why sit on your arses and ignore the naughty activities that go on in Southwark (or any other borough for that matter)?

The sort of things we mean are the slaughter of innocent and defenceless animals in the laboratories and abattoirs of Camberwell; Southwark's only nuclear shelter on Peckham road built solely for the people who try to run our lives and NOT for people like you and I. Object to crime: be it theft, assault, mugging or police oppression. Object to the demolition of houses to build offices and spy H.Q.'s etc.

This is your page so use it: DON'T IGNORE IT, IT WON'T GO AWAY! OBJECT!

In the United Kingdom, over 4<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> million animals are subjected to painful experiments every year, 3,000 animals are slaughtered every working minute, millions are imprisoned in factory and fur farms and every day hundreds of thousands of wild animals are persecuted and killed in the name of "sport". The catalogue of persecution and abuse is endless.

For many decades people have been campaigning to stop these atrocities through legal, peaceful means such as trying to get public attention, petitions, leafleting and writing to politicians. Sadly, these methods, on their own have failed to stop the tide of animals suffering, and the situation has got worse.

AGAINST ALL ANIMAL EXPERIMENTS

TOMORROWS DREAM MADNESS

A cage of my own, this cage is my home,

This cage is my home, and oh so alone am I

From above, all around, helpless to the sound

Of my brothers' cry.

Just leave us alone we don't want to moan

Only if you make us.

Smashed on the lock until I had to drop

Try to get my message through.

Off goes another with another's brother

My arms try to bend across to a friend.

You can't burn me with your lazer beams

They're pointing at you and tomorrows dream

You burn my body, I'm at least set free

And I'll pray for you as I sway from my tree

I give you my brain, nothing you would gain

This misery seeps from you.

When leaving my cage I am in a rage

'Cos I know what you're up to

When you walk away, remember next day

Not a second I've slept; awake I have kept

When I re-appear don't look on in fear

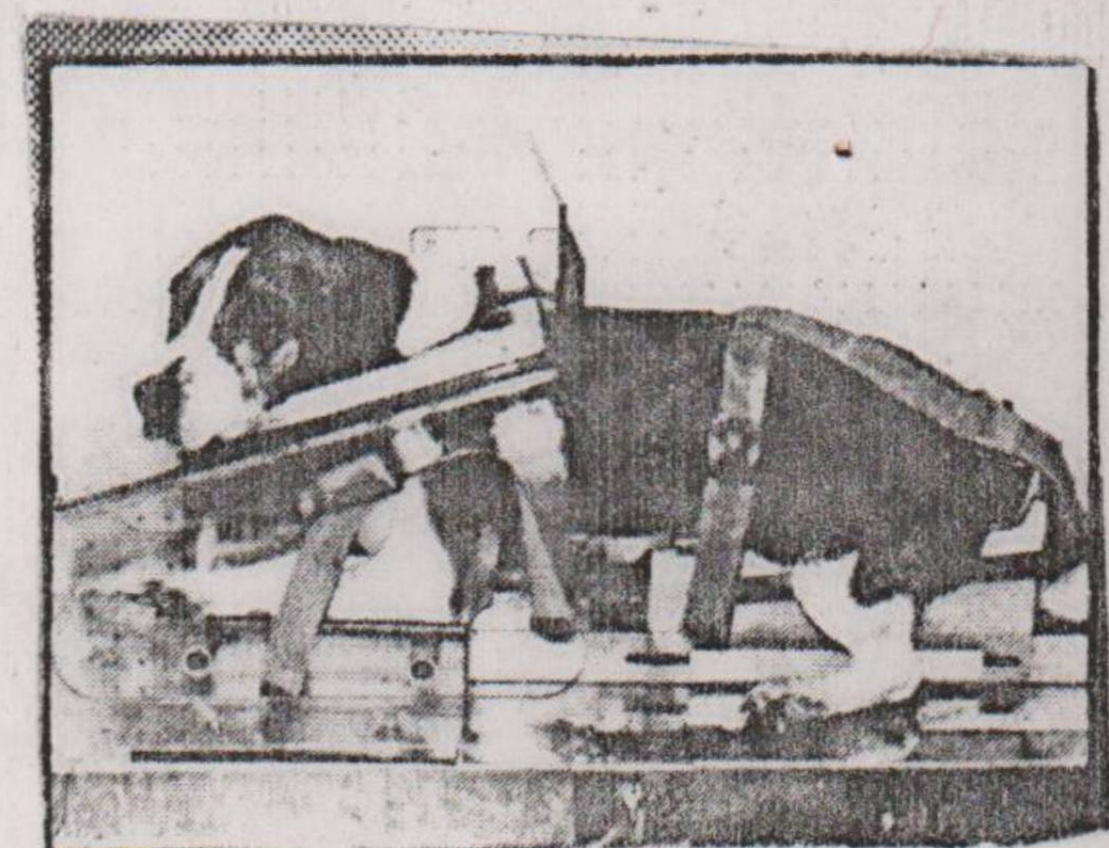

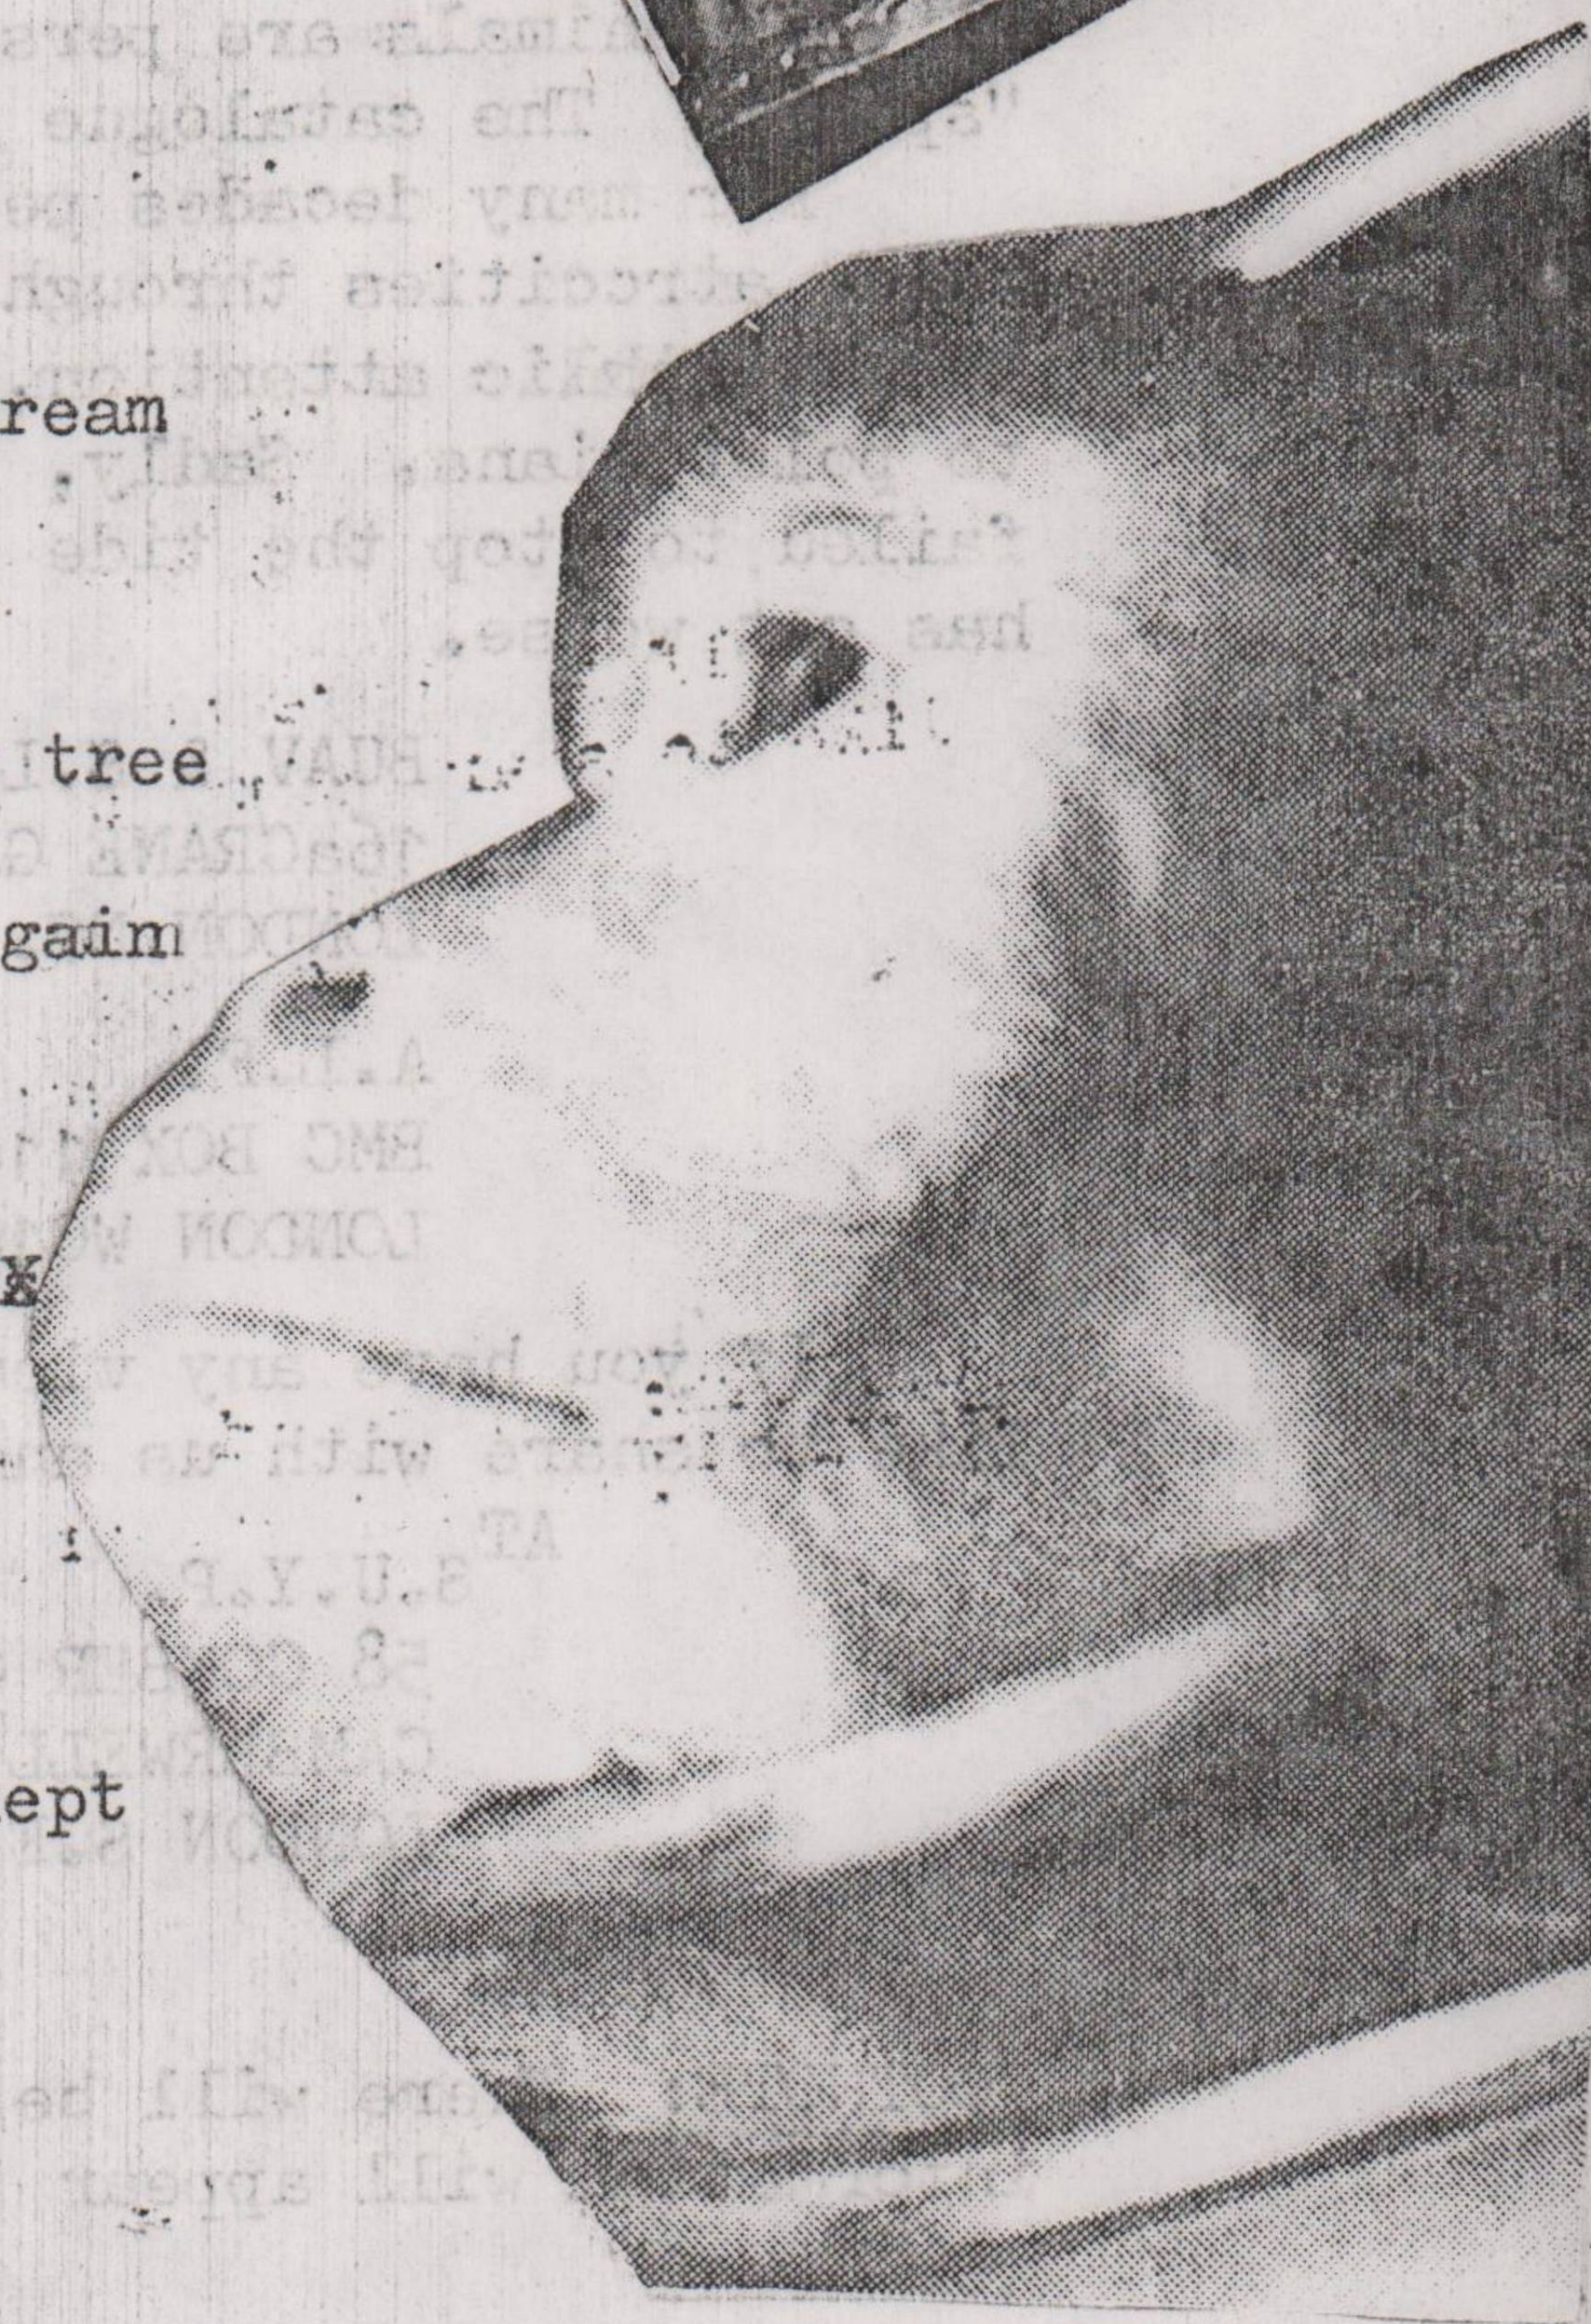

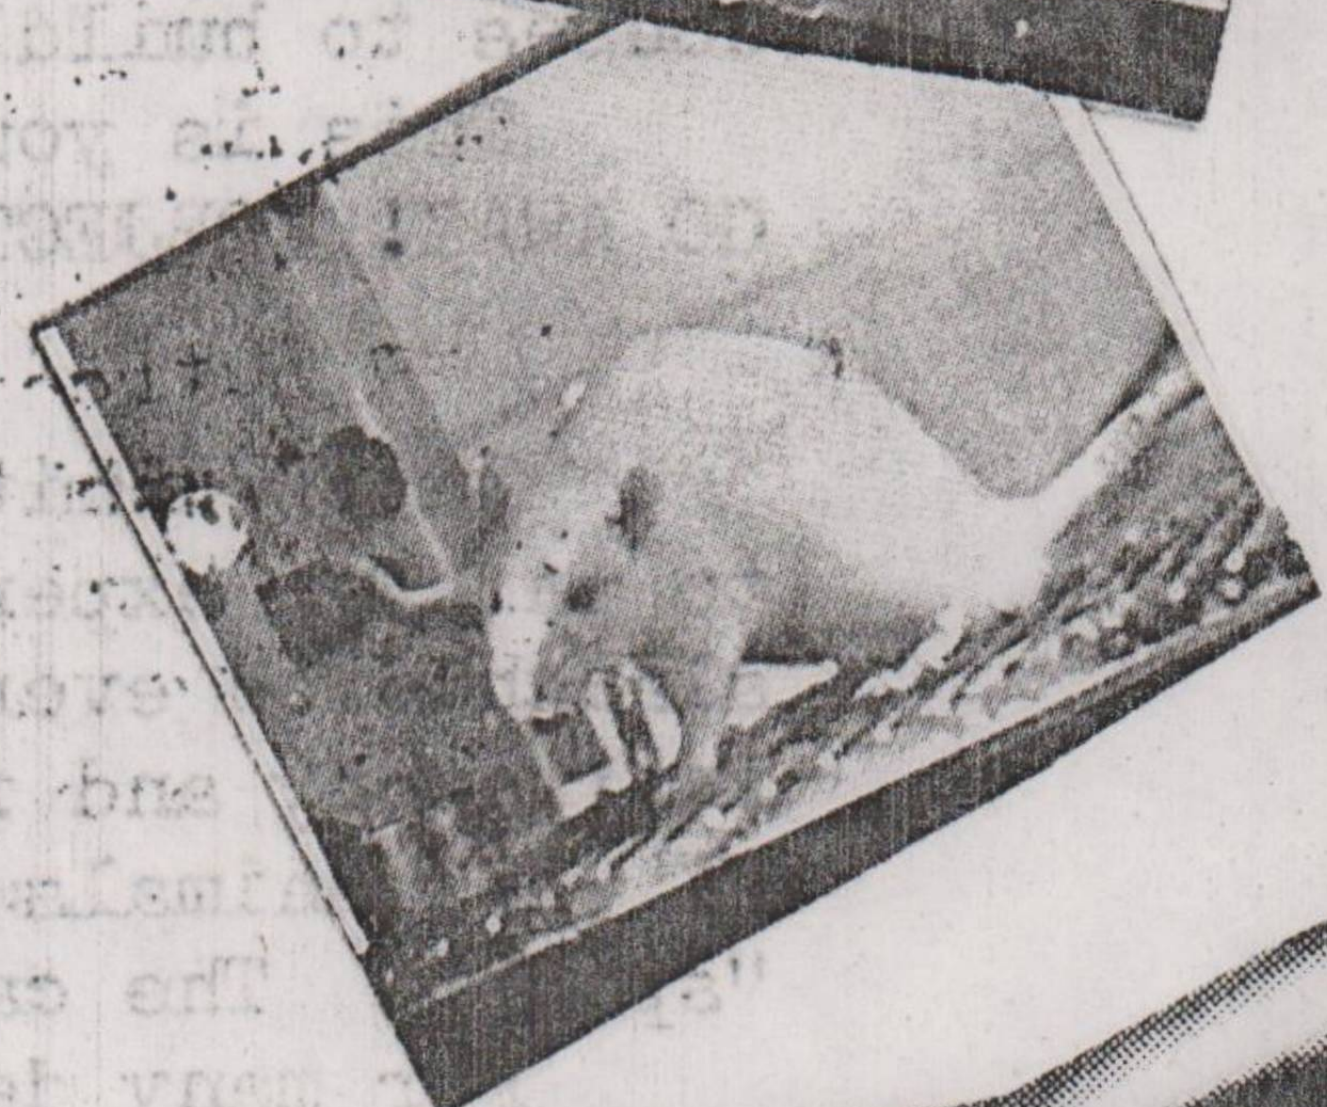

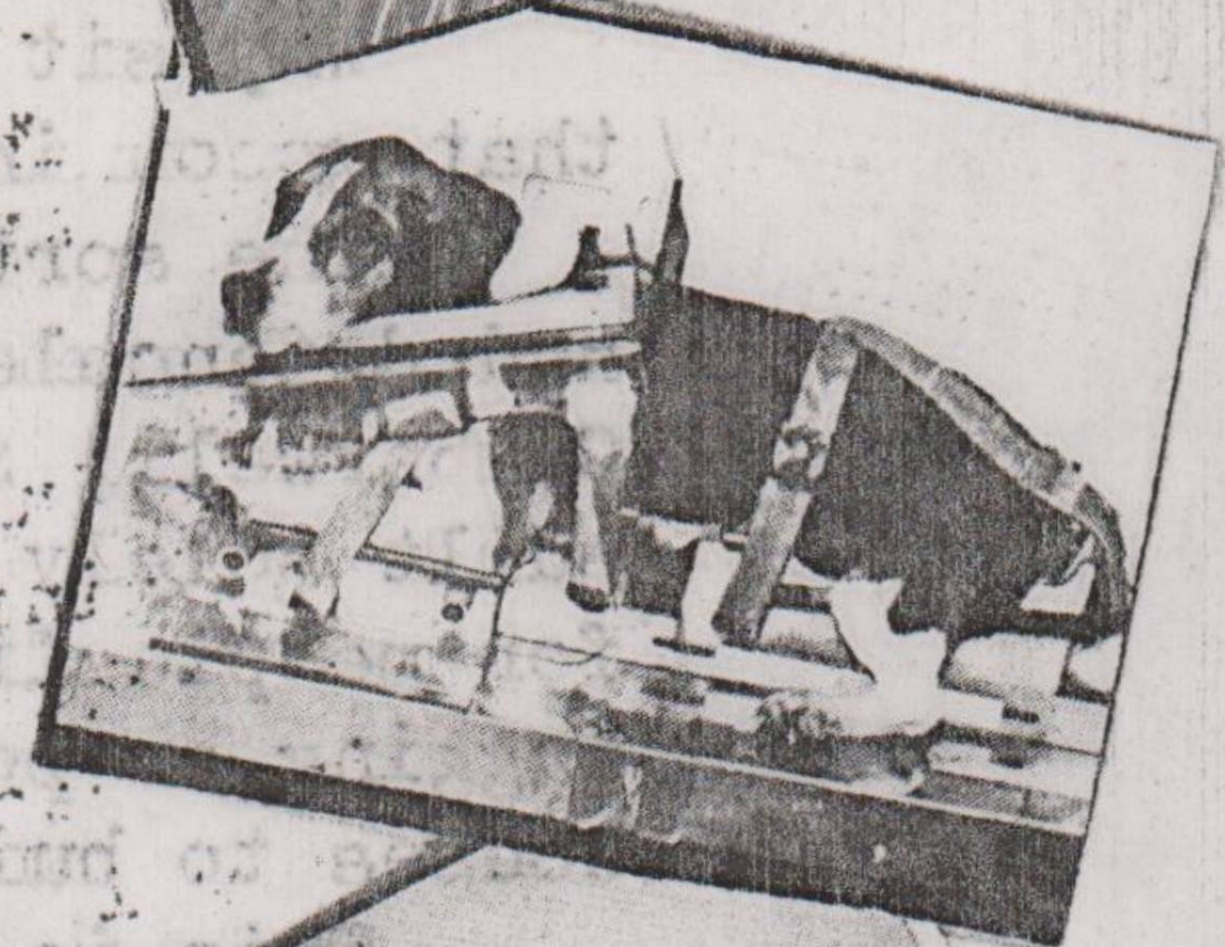

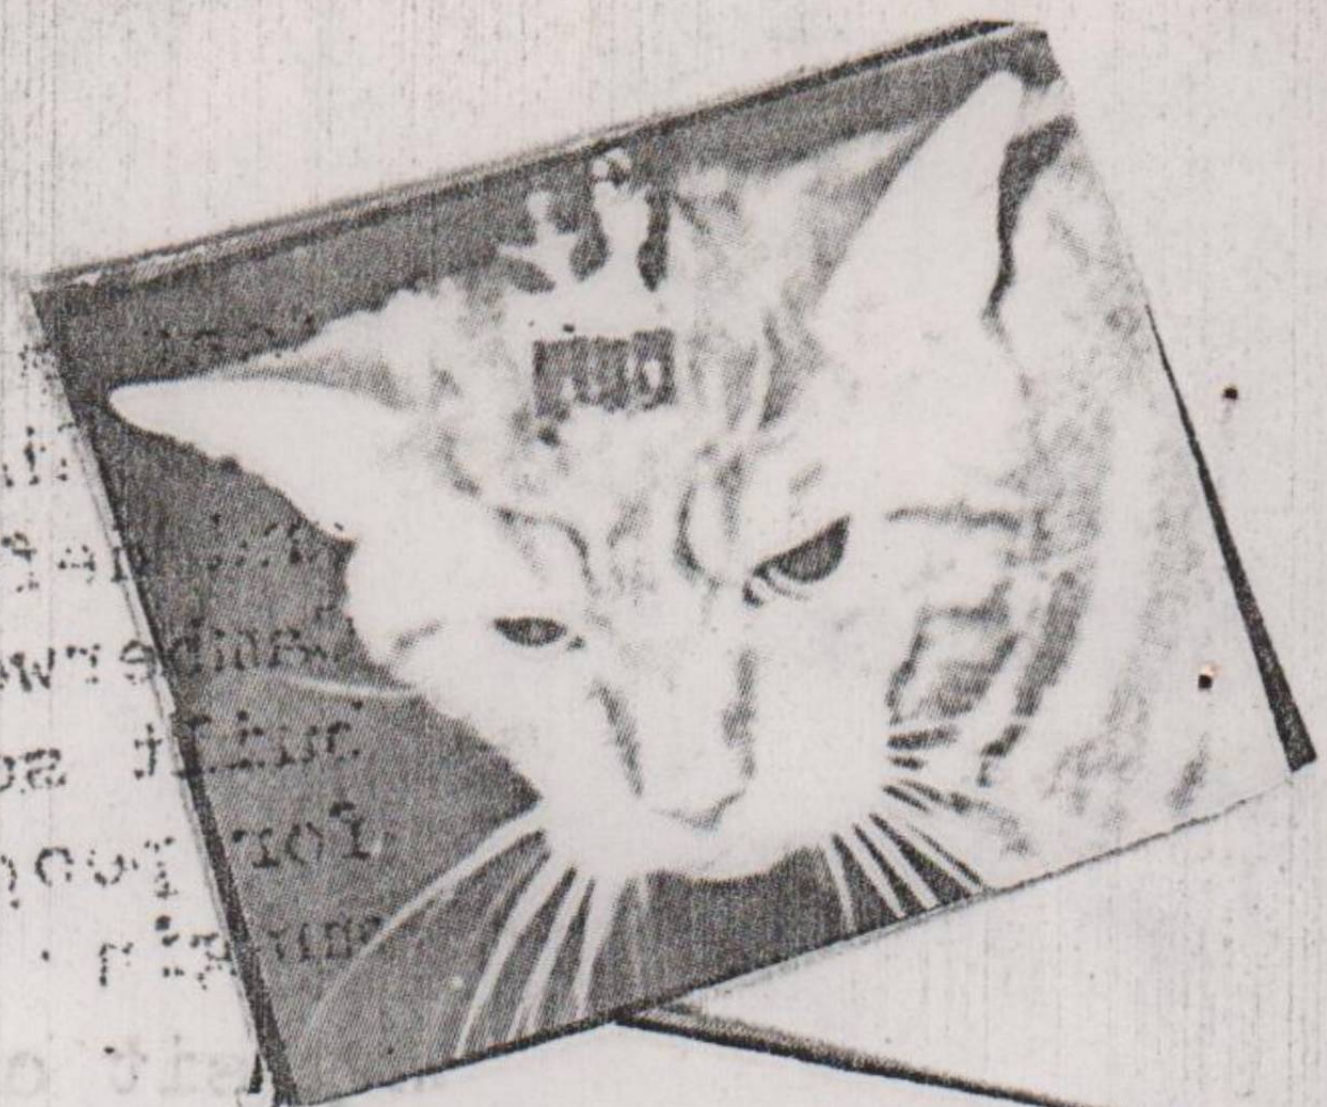

My hands could kill but they never will

You can't burn me with your lazer beams

They're pointing at you and tomorrows dream

You burn my body I'm at least set free

And I'll pray for you as I sway from my tree.

GIG REVIEW AND GUIDE: HALF MOON, S.E.24.

The HALF MOON is a pub that puts on gigs every night - usually for around £2. Most bands are still in their prime but they do occasionally have well established bands playing.

In my opinion, this is a very cheap, good night out - especially if you don't drink.

ON 2ND MARCH, I WENT TO SEE TWO BANDS; THE FOREST HILL-BILLIES & CIRCUS, CIRCUS, CIRCUS.

This event was a very good night out and was worth every penny of the £2 admission charge. The concert area was a lot busier than usual. What was this great attraction that everyone had come to see? The Forest Hill-Billies came on first and by the look of things it looked as if they'd brought their own fan club. Their music was a combination of swing, country and skiffle with a very prominent horns section. They went through their set with razor sharpness making every number as good as the last and reviving old faves such as "TEQUILA" with their own individual style.

After they had finished, I realised that the audience hadn't just come to see them; but what about 'Circus'? Could it have been a mistake to put them on last? Would it be an anti-climax after the last band? NO! 'Circus' came on and opened with an instrumental number which got a reasonable response from the audience and soon after, they were in full swing with everybody dancing and having a really good time. By the end of their set, everybody was dripping with sweat attacking the bar for more drinks during the hour's extension they have on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

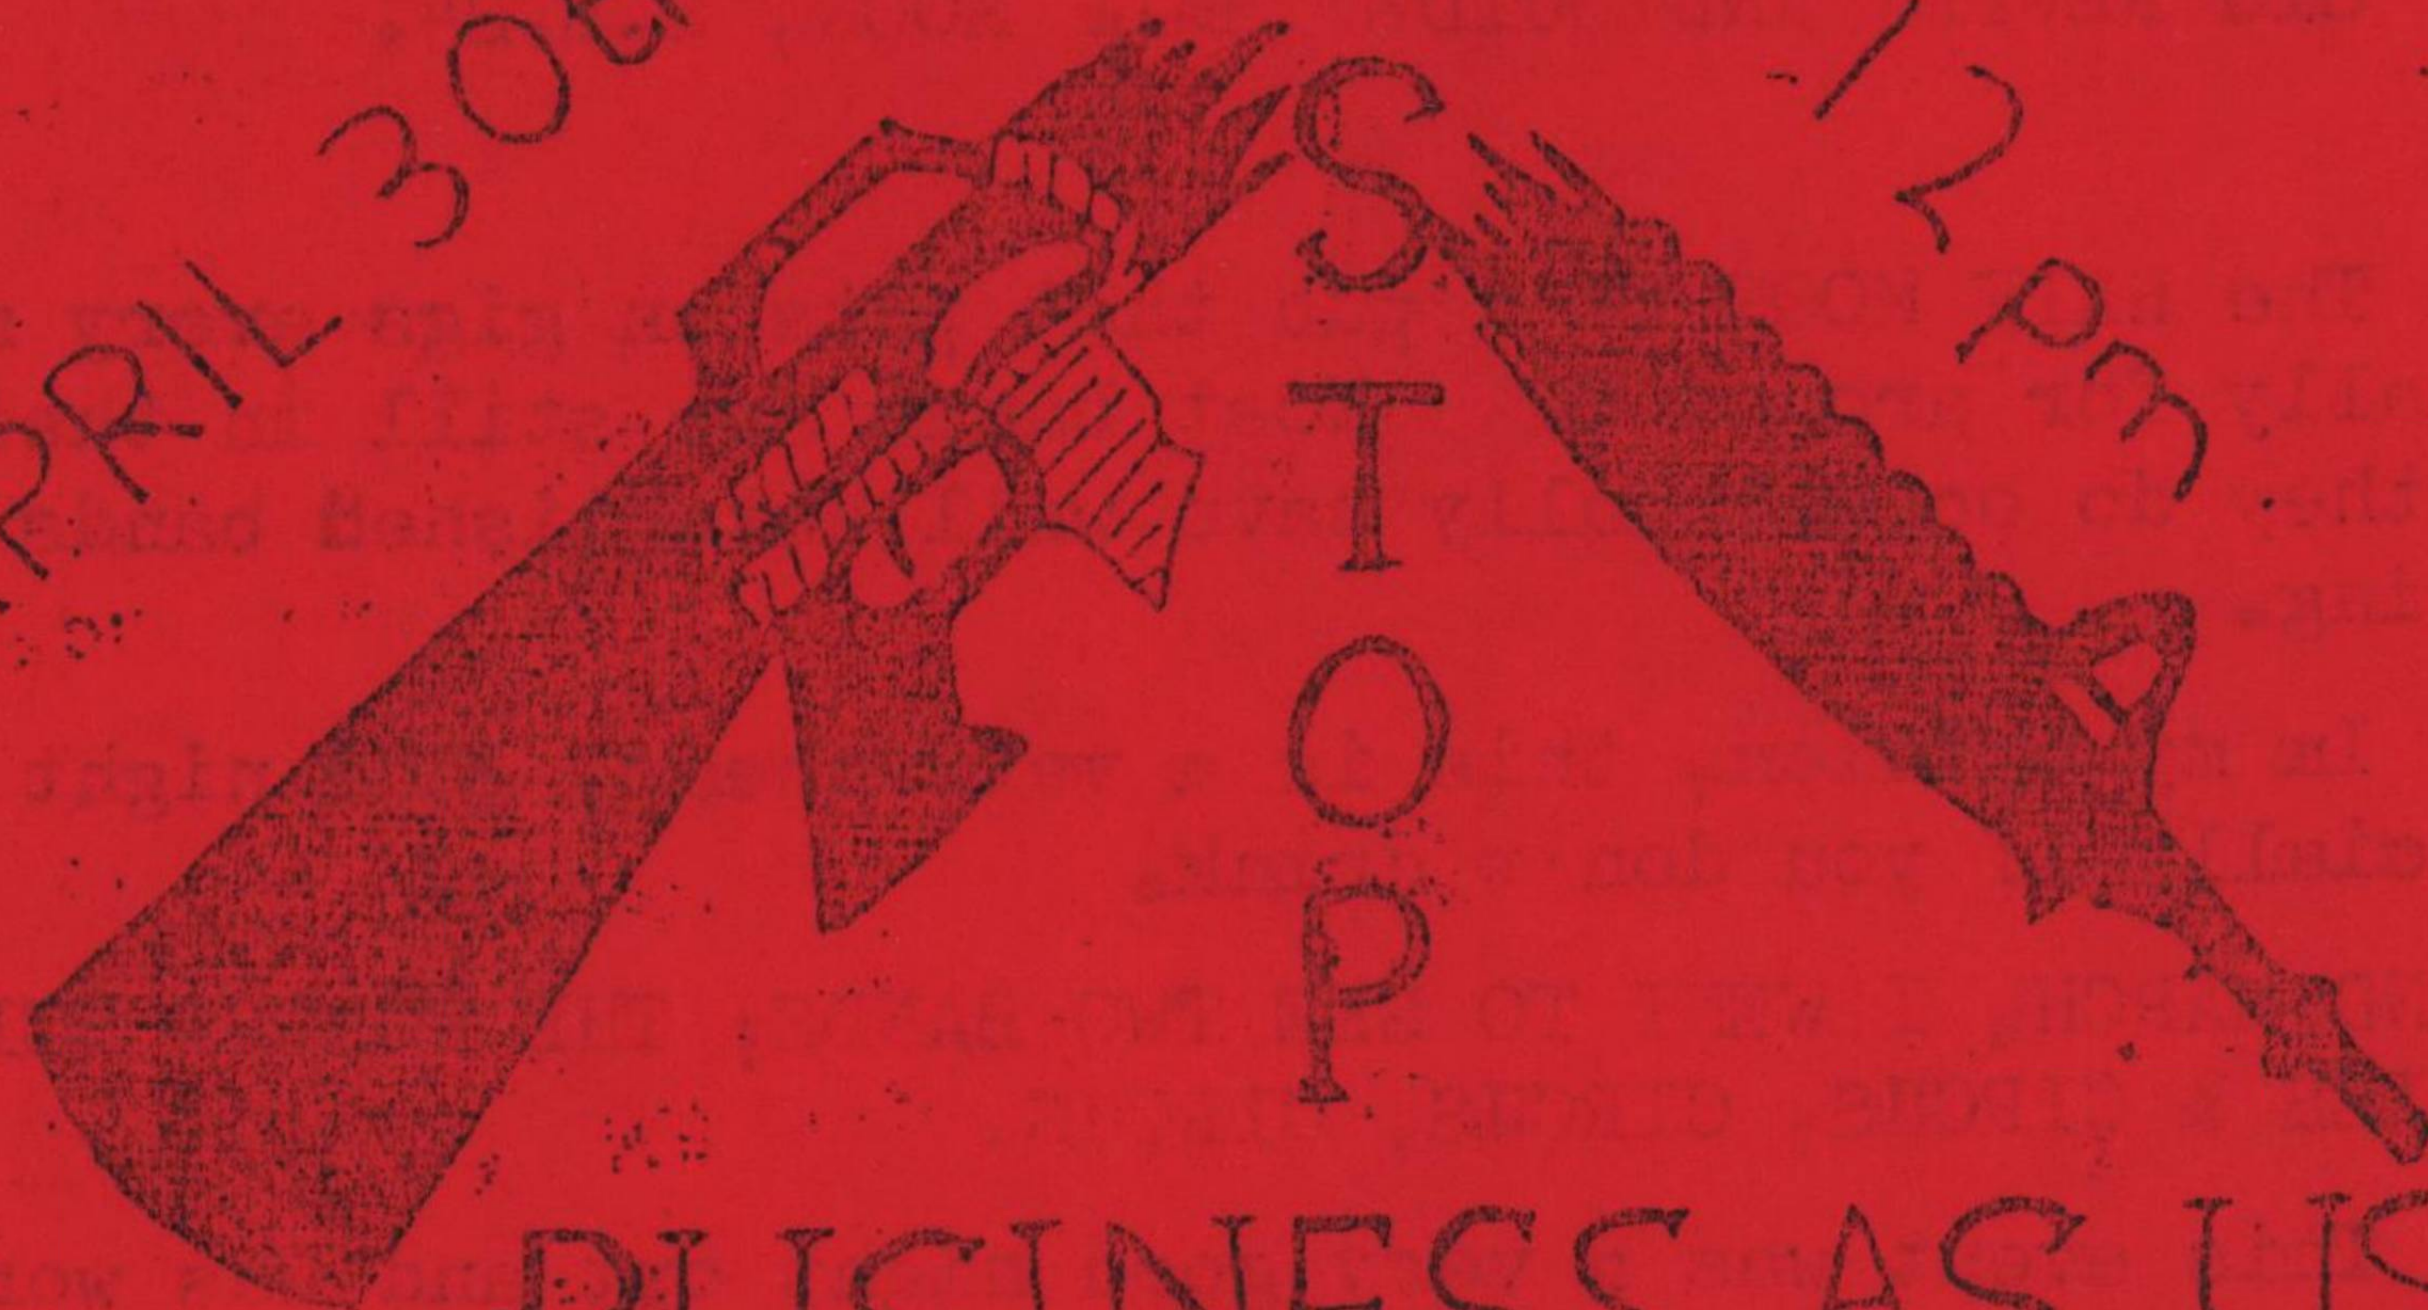

THERE ARE A FEW GIGS LINED UP FOR THE END OF MARCH:

22nd:	Pirahnas & Tete a tete	£2
23rd:	Ballam & the angel	"
24th:	Igor's night off & Ppachawow	"
25th:	Forest hill-billies & The Cotton
	pickers	£1.50

VIEWS ON CRUISE

No. 1.

Why should we sit and listen to the lies while missiles are being planted on British soil?

Billions spent on the destruction of our world; slowly being torn apart by the greed of our so-called "GOVERNMENT".

Why ignore the truth of total destruction, by the bombs being made to protect us? What a load of shit. Maggie and her motley crew lie.

We need more votes to better this country and help the poor.

Yet another lie, they sit on their pedestals and when the warning of nuclear war is broadcasted, within 15 minutes, we, the people and animals will be fried and the earth blown away in a puff of smoke, sky high.

The royal parasites, Maggie and crew, hide from the truth yet again.

If they dare to come out of the shelters and pick up the carcasses let them and again they'll feed us the same old crap.

"WHAT A WONDERFUL WORLD!"

TOPSY.

No. 2.

NUCLEAR WAR? It's just an extension of threats now the middle age religion scare has worn out, "BE GOOD OR DIE" FUCK OFF!!

If the bomb does exist, the USA & USSR are collaborating. Both invading the rest of the world and laying these threats on the innocent and wasting our money, not theirs.

How is it that both sides discover the same things within a few weeks of each other?

WHO KNOWS?

But that doesn't answer the question of the existence of nuclear war-heads

WHO CARES?

TIM A.D.

No. 3.

What will you and I do? Probably die! But I refuse to be run down that easily.

Is it all to be blamed on USSR? Personally, I don't think it'll be them who start it.

No, I'm not a spy but I think RAY-GUN and MAGGOT will be the real cause. I have my plans to try to survive, but why should we be threatened?

I think that nuclear war is close, so watch out and don't be beaten.

NIKI-MY

No. 4.

They say disarm, no charm,
They say deploy: No joy,

You send cruise, we refuse,
Hiroshima, Nagasaki?

NO MORE, NO MORE,
You can't reconcile when they
send missiles,

Bomb blast at No.10?
"NO FUCKIN' WAY!"

Euroshima's a no go zone.

REPORT ON A HUNT SABOTAGE

BY NIKI- MY

This is a personal experience which I felt should be shared without disclosing too many details.

It was organised that a hare hunt was to be stopped last October and a time and place for a pick-up was arranged. This part went well and we left more or less on time, in the transport provided. On the way, we were given cans of anti-scent spray.

When we arrived at our destination, all the rich bastards/murderers were all kitted out in their hunting tweeds and other snotty clothes. I hope I'm not being misunderstood as I love riding and working with horses but I wouldn't be as callous as to exploit an animal or murder it!!

Anyway, we were there and now was the time to have some fun as well as save lives. They set off on foot with their dogs and we bombarded them with the usual anti-hunt chants and followed them across the farmland. There were what seemed like a million police there, all over the place but kept a low profile until the land-owner, also the leader of the hunt asked to have us removed.

The real trouble started when we were still spraying anti-scent and the pigs came in. They had motorbikes and anyone they caught up with was arrested. I was lucky and so was all our group bar two; one was arrested and his hand pushed on to a barbed wire fence, the other for spraying anti-scent when the wind changed, so it landed on a copper, or so he said! So the hunt and the sabotage were over, we won!

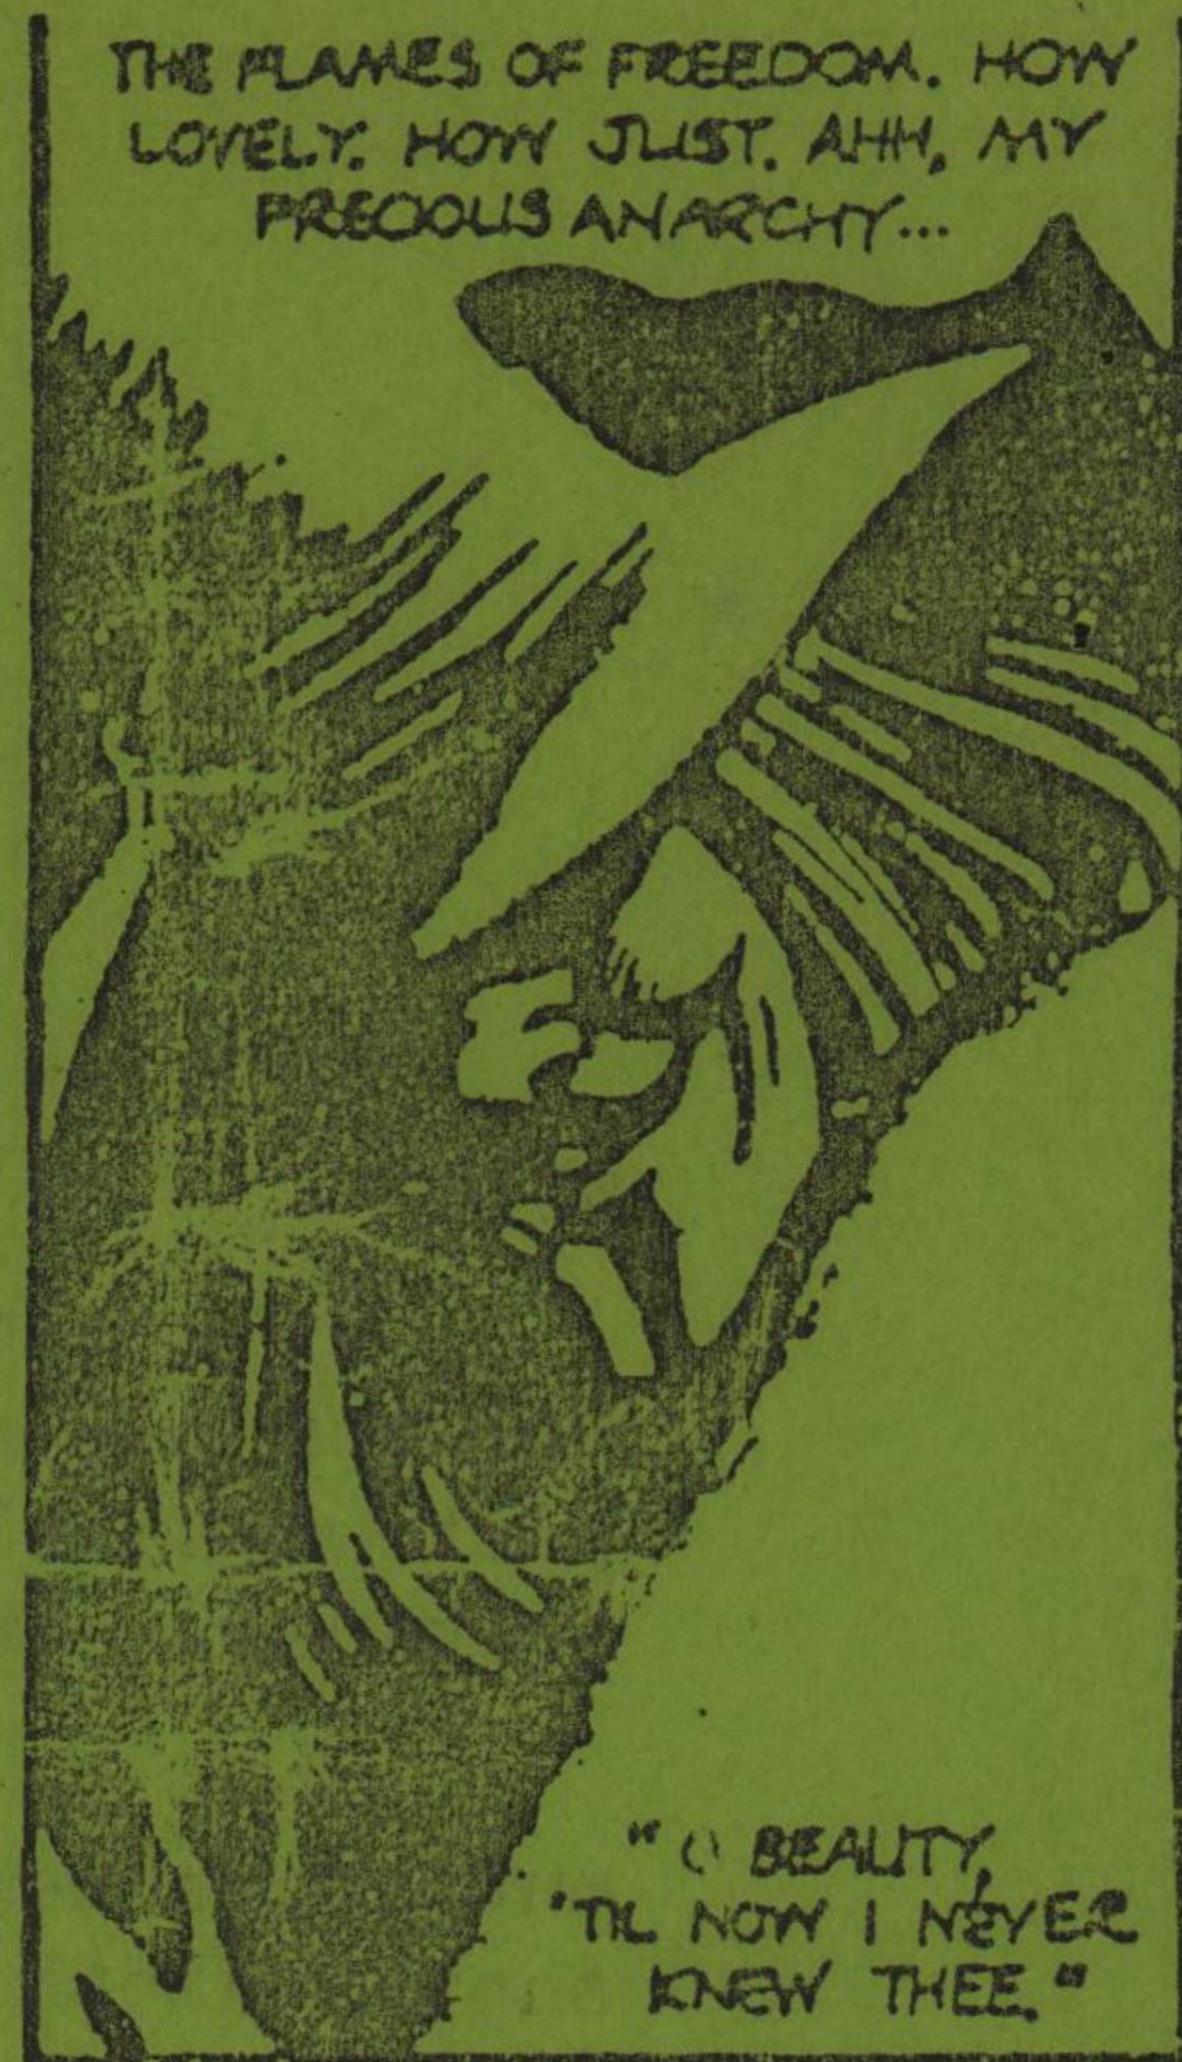

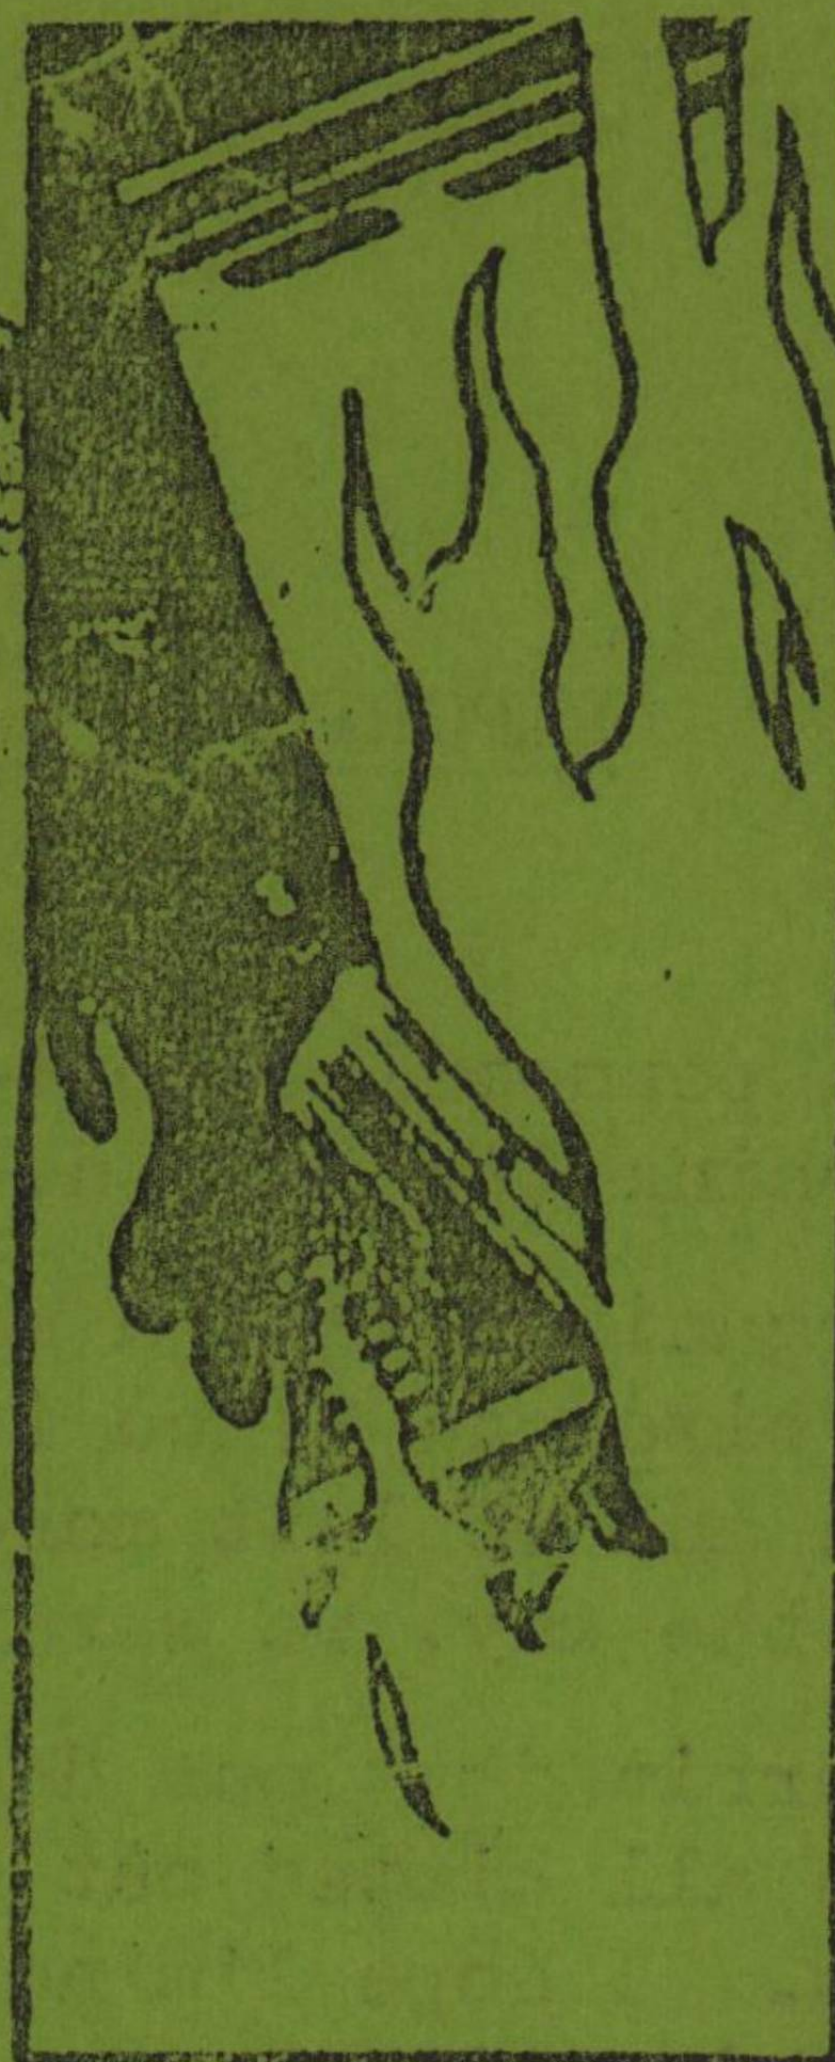

It just shows, hunt-sabbing does work, whether it be hare, fox or stag.

J Join us if you are a true animal and anti-snob lover!!!

Pittance

The government is tightening their grip around your wallet,
Working for a pittance whilst its they that make a profit.
Don't be fooled in thinking you've a well paid job,
What you've really earned goes to some retarded slob.
Behind her desk she smiles pondering on inflation,
She thinks I'm insignificant 'cause she's well above my station
But if you try to smash it, cut your brains out with a hatchet,
Can't you see that your living out a farce?
But to them it doesn't matter, it's YOUR lifestyle that they Shatter and the only ones protected are the bourgeois upper class.

KERMIT

Insecure

Insecurity is a private anxiety, a self inflicted struggle of
The senses, the senses.
Why should you want to look at me? I'm insecure,
You've got a cheek, call me a freak,
A shit, atit,
Nothing but a two bit low down bum,
Not me I'm insecure.
But when you corner me with your lies, then I'll despise.
You'll split your sides.
You laugh, I cry.
You say my life is so obscure, not me mate, I'm insecure.
