WAPPING

scab = traitor.

Two of the scab reporters on the Sunday Times are Communist Party members. They've been crossing the picket lines on those luxury coaches into Fortress Wapping. They'd consulted the Party and been told to carry on. All we've got to say is a scab is a scab whatever the Party says.

easier than the pools.

The founder of Littlewoods Stores, one of the richest scum in the country, was robbed in his home by a gang of unknown people armed with iron bars. They escaped with an undisclosed amount of property.

A lesson to all muggers and burglars - don't hurt your own class but those who keep you in poverty. The rich scum and their stolen wealth are only a bus ride away.

As to those who got the rich bastard, how about sharing your loot with your class; Steal for your class and your community. There's only one rule in the class war, don't get caught.

Well, hopefully, we all know what's going on down at News International's new plant in Wapping so let's concentrate on what we can do about it.

The first thing you notice when you get down to Wapping is the abundance of rumours and downright lies.

These downright lies usually come from the SOGAT officials, and various dubious political parties.

They are intended to exaggerate the effectiveness and success of the Wapping picket and to diffuse anger and keep it peaceful at Wapping.

So what do we do? Before dealing with the situation immediately outside the plant, a few words about what can be done away from the plant. The routes are by now well known. Up to Aldgate roundabout along Commercial Rd; over Tower Bridge; along the Embankment; up Old St towards the Angel and the North. A vigilant eye and a large lump of concrete, stirred well with a generous measure of windscreen can produce marvellous results even for beginners.

NORMAN WILLIS—CAUGHT UNAWARES AT THE NEWSAGENTS.

Class-conscious joggers who are up and about early on Sunday morning should carry small knives so that bundles of papers left outside newsagents doors, can be cut open and the Murdoch rags taken out and disposed of. This tactic has been used quite widely with a fair amount of success.

A recent development in the dispute is that Murdoch has been printing his filth at smaller scab outfits in various places... eg. Western Web Offset in Bristol. Various actions (as well as picketing) can be carried out against these places with a fair amount of success so keep your eyes and ears open.

A clerical worker said, 'The police say it was rent-a-mob who caused the trouble on Saturday. That's right, and what identified them was their blue uniforms, helmets, truncheons and shields.'

At the plant in Wapping itself, it has become clear that less than 5000 people can do very little other than delay the "papers" for a couple of hours at the most. The first priority of anyone down there has got to be information and communication. So far the only people with radio communication are the bastard filth and the Union officials. As a source of information both are as unreliable as each other (However a shortwave radio tuned to the Greenwich Training Police frequency can be quite useful). A couple of comrades on bicycles would save the chore of constantly walking from one gate to another to find out what is happening there. A lot also depends on the atmosphere there. On March 15th the atmosphere was good and the fence got ripped down; cop horses were forced back, barricades were set up in side streets and vans pushed into the road, their tyres being slashed. People felt so strong that they stayed later than usual, police had to baton charge pickets off the road and the lorries were delayed for 5½ hours, effectively writing off distribution to certain areas of the country.

PC HURT BY SNOWBALL OF GLASS

By GEORGE LYNN

A DEADLY snowball packed with razor-sharp glass fragments ripped open a policeman's cheek outside The Sun's hi-tech plant at Wapping

The murderous weapon was hurled during a mass picket on Saturday by striking printworkers. It hit Pc Philip Closs full in the face.

With blood streaming, the shocked officer was rushed to hospital where he had three stitches put in the wound. He was sent home to recover.

Hope

A senior police chief said: "It was a vicious, nasty attack. It could have blinded him."

Another policeman and policewoman were hurt, one woman demonstrator collapsed, and there were 32 arrests.

of the 59 people who had been arrested

Only 21 were printers; the rest included seven unemployed, three machinists, five students, a messenger, a driver, a trade union official (Mr Tony Dubbins, general secretary of the National Graphical Association), a labourer, computer programmer, two managers, two journalists, a warehouseman, a technical instructor, shop assistant, railwayman, nurse, an income tax officer, a hospital ancillary worker, a researcher and photographer.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Who gives a toss about royal engagements and weddings? Its MAY 1ST thats going to be our celebration this year and its not going to be with champagne.

In 1886 MAY DAY made working class history in Chicago during a long running campaign to reduce the workers day to a mere 8 hours of shit. As a working class struggle, the 8 hour movement got a lot of active support from the Anarchists in America at the time (members of the IWPA, the Black International) who held public meetings regularly and got 25,000 people to come to them!

Through the Anarchist involvement in the movement it quickly caught the revolutionary fever and America came to the brink of a General Strike. Anarchist ideas spread through the American working class, and on MAY 1ST the Anarchists marched arm in arm with 80,000 striking factory workers through the streets of Chicago. But it was MAY 4TH that really got in the history books. Since the May Day demonstration police had been 'clamping down' on the actions of the strikers by shooting members of the picket lines and the Anarchist contingent called a mass public meeting to discuss how to deal with the actions of the Blue Scum.

Just as the meeting was finishing the pigs went in and started to stir up trouble in the crowd and suddenly a bomb exploded between the second and third ranks. The pigs then firing their revolvers all over the place and claimed a few Anarchist casualties but mostly shot themselves! It was obvious that the bomb thrown by a person unknown was a set up to arrest the "wanted" Anarchists. "RED RUFFIANS!" "BLOODY BRUTES!", "DYNAMARCHISTS!" and "COWARDS!" screamed the lie-machine press - so what's changed?

The story was that the bombing had been a deliberate and planned attempt on police lives by the Anarchists.

Once they had rounded up the ones they wanted, the government began a cooked up trial. In the end, 7 were sentenced to death by hanging. One of the 7 a man of 22 called LINGG "robbed his enemies of their prey at the last moment" and blew himself up with dynamite in his cell the night before the execution. 2 others were let off and the other 4- FISCHER, SPIES, PARSONS and ENGEL were hanged on 11th November 1886 as a lesson to class struggle revolutionaries world-wide.

After what happened in Chicago, May Day became the big day in the calendar of the working class revolutionaries worldwide.

So the spirit of May Day went on..... It makes you want to throw up when each time May Day comes round, the Labour Party and it's Trade Union lackeys tell us to take the day off on a day that isn't even May 1st and celebrate the fact that they've sold the working class out for yet another year and to look forward to the next one with them!!!!

FUCK OFF LIARS!

May Day had nothing to do with the likes of you and when we hear your sickening speeches, at rallies this May Day, we'll have something to answer back with.

RIOT IN THE RHONDDA

It seems that things have been livening up in the valleys again. About 20 youths with pickaxe handles and sledgehammers smashed down the door of the Police office on the Penrhys Estate in the Rhondda Valley. Once inside they did what any civic minded member of the community would do and ripped the office apart, causing thousands of pounds worth of damage. They smashed the furniture and fittings with great enthusiasm. These people seemed to know what they were doing much to the old bill's horror. They waited until the duty officer went out on a call and then launched their attack. They were so thorough that they ripped the radiators from the wall, ripped the telephone out, overturned lockers and filling cabinets and threw furniture out the window. They have not been caught.

This is not the first time Penrhys has erupted, last summer, just days after the Tottenham riots, groups of angry youths wearing balaclavas, took to the streets to confront the filth. They petrol bombed the cop shop, set up burning barricades, stoned the Po-lice and various cop vehicles were ambushed. The scummy police had attempted to arrest a young person for an alleged theft...they obviously didn't expect this response:

AND THERE'S MORE.....

Two coal trains were ambushed in the Rhondda valley during the cold weather in February. They were stopped by a fifty strong gang who placed blockades across the lines. They released the fuel from the trucks so it piled up by the side of the tracks. Hundreds of tons of coal were stolen by gangs of people with lorries and vans lying in wait near Mountain Ash. The coal was then distributed to families and pensioners in the area at very reduced prices.

CLASS

We live in a bitterly divided class society. The working class, the middle class and the ruling class make up this society. The working class, who comprise the vast majority of the population, are forced to sell their labour and brains to meet their basic needs: food, housing, clothing, etc. The wages we earn are but a mere fraction of what we produce for the bosses and the ruling class. A worker may be able to make 20 or 30 video recorders a week, but his/her wages will only allow him/her to buy one. This is one simple example of capitalism. WE produce the wealth, not for ourselves, but for the ruling class who re-invest this wealth back into the banks, machinery, raw materials etc; and ultimately into the luxurious lifestyles they are able to live. This keeps the cycle of capitalism rolling always to the benefit of the ruling class.

This tiny elite, the ruling class—made up of the most revolting blood suckers such as politicians, heads of church, freemasons, lords and ladies, royalty, multinationals, top cops and generals etc—own and control everything. They have the money, the land and the power: 7% OF THE U.K OWN 84% OF THE WEALTH! The state (cops, army, teachers, family life, prisons, media, mental homes etc,) though it may occasionally work against capitalism, keeps this process in order; and crushes all those who dare to resist.

Capitalism, the state and the class system cannot be changed through bourgeois parliament or through the bourgeois courts, simply because these institutions were set up by the ruling class to smother real class anger. Asked nicely the ruling class will never give up its stolen, spoilt lives. It will never give away its power unless we violently take it as a class. The only language the ruling class and its paid mercenaries the cops and army, understand is that of class violence. WE FIGHT FOR A WORKING CLASS REVOLUTION.

Class unification and class consciousness is what the capitalists fear most. To offset this they erect artificial barriers and deliberately foster ideas, based on ignorance, such as racism, sexism, heterosexism, wage slaves against dole slaves etc. When it comes to housing we are told to blame the Indian family on the corner, not the capitalists who own 3 or 4 houses each costing hundreds of thousands. When jobs are lost the blacks or women workers must be blamed, not the bosses who can sack overnight, thousands of workers. White against black, protestant against catholic, city against rovers: DIVIDE and RULE. The most nauseating spectacle since the second world war is the attempt made by the state and the capitalist ruling class to pretend class is a thing of the past. Read a copy of the "SUN" and you'll see such trash as "we're all middle class now". We are apparently 'middle class' now because we have a video or colour T.V. Meanwhile the real middle classes are swanking it up in posh hotels, going on flash holidays or pretending to be poor social workers while their bank accounts swell. Wankers. We may now be able to afford a video recorder, after slaving away in a poxy office or stinking factory for years, but the power and wealth always stays firmly in the hands of the capitalists. The mystification and deliberate attempt at confusing class is vital to the ruling class.

One of our tasks as class struggle anarchists is to expose these false divisions mystifications and lies that prevent the working class from uniting and destroying capitalism and the state.

The working class, as I said earlier, consists of wage slaves; but it also consists of all those who are unable to work because of the erratic way capitalism operates, such as unemployed, disabled and retired workers etc. Also all those, who due to their age or sex do not work for bosses, but work in the home or at school. Apart from the odd few—who the media gleefully throw at us as an example—this class stays constant. Because of its position in society, the working class is the revolutionary class. Obviously as the class war comes to a head vast numbers of the middle class will flock to our side. This is fair enough; and they should be treated as equals and as comrades. But we will not tolerate those who try to keep a foot in two camps: one with the revolutionaries, another in mummy and daddies bank account. Live with us or die with the bosses. Those who choose to stay with the bosses will suffer the same fate.

The same is true for all those working class people who are the paid mercenaries of the capitalists: the cops and army. The working class must attempt to win over the more intelligent sections of these organisations, but those who prefer to stay as class traitors will be dealt the class violence coming to them.

As class struggle anarchists we are violently opposed to all those groups, parties and organisations who dare to think they can lead the working class to revolution—so that they can replace the present capitalists, with the blood of the working class, and present themselves as the new (state) capitalists. They need us, but we don't need them. History has proven, time and time again, that the most successful actions the working class has done is when it has worked by itself, without the 'help' of the trade union bureaucrats, the vanguards, the parties etc. Their 'dictatorship of the proletariat' is nothing more than the dictatorship of the party, which then creates the new elite, the new ruling class, the next lot of scum to fight against.

The working class must smash through all the obstacles strewn in its path to revolution by the trade union bureaucrats, labour party mps, and the leftist/student/vanguard/intelligentsia. It can only do this by incessant, day to day class struggle.

The working class has created everything good in this world. It's our labour that has built the homes, hospitals, roads etc. It's our work that brings in the food from the countryside, and it's our brains that have created all the socially useful objects and machines. WE built this world! Why do we allow the capitalist ruling class to steal it all off us? It's our world, we can run it, we can organize without them; without the rich capitalist parasites and their protectors the police and army. We want a world where the working class are in charge, not a small, pampered elite. A world where working class pensioners don't die of hypothermia, while some toe-rag plays with more money on one roulette wheel than we'll see this year. A society where work is done for NEED, not greed and capitalist profit. The working class has no country. Our only enemy is the international ruling class and all those who maintain it, and apologise for it!

FORWARD TO ANARCHISM

& WORKING CLASS REVOLUTION!

DAY OF REACTION

On Monday the 3rd of March there was a general strike and widespread rioting in a part of 'Britain'. The events of that day included violent attacks on the police and army including 4 incidents where automatic weapons were used, major power cuts, roads and motorways were closed by the use of nearly 700 roadblocks and oil and nails, looting and rioting in shopping centres.

This happened in Northern Ireland during the loyalist day of action in protest against the Anglo-Irish agreement that was signed last November. The participants were mostly drawn from one section of the working class - the loyalists. The main lesson to be drawn from this day for all class war anarchists is simple. It is this, the working class have in their hands immense power and if they use it can sweep aside the forces of capitalism and the state as easy as pie. Remember what occurred that day happened despite the presence of 10,000 armed troops of the British army in an area with less people than the city of Birmingham. If similar actions happened all over Britain we would have a revolution on our hands that would make all the riots since '81 look like a vicar's tea party.

But of course the working class people taking part in the actions of 3rd March were not intending to destroy the state and capitalism. They were striking and rioting for the privilege of being ruled by Britain. This is because they are loyalists. So what is loyalism? It is a kind of super patriotism towards the British state in which the protestant community of Northern Ireland are encouraged to regard themselves as a kind of chosen people (British) superior to the Catholics (Irish) this illusion of superiority is backed up by religious bigotry and discrimination against the Catholics in employment, housing and education. The loyalists are only in this position because once the British state and capitalists found them useful and encouraged such bigotry as a way of dividing the Irish working class in the once prosperous North of Ireland.

Now after years of war between the IRA and the British State the colony of Northern Ireland is not prosperous but is in fact a burden and as such will be dumped just like the British Colonies in Africa that became 'ungovernable'. The Protestants will then be sold out just like the Black middle classes in Africa.

But if the loyalists do get sold out and end up fighting the British they might just stop following their upper class leaders and fight for their class. The protestant and catholic working classes could come together. It has happened in the past, before the first world war some of the bitterest strikes in Europe involved both communities in the North and South of Ireland. It is no coincidence that it was about this time that the bosses in Ireland started whipping up the bigotry and sectarianism that we now see to protect their industries. But now that the economy of the North is bankrupt and the Brits are selling out the loyalists there is a real chance for a class war to break out.

LAING DISPUTE

In October of last year a UCATT bricklaying gang on a LAINGS owned site in Surbiton, subcontracted to Janoroy Ltd, were dismissed on orders from Laings. All had been active militants and were clearly dismissed because of this. The 'Surbiton 6' responded by picketing first their own site, which Laings promptly closed, and then by putting flying pickets on other Laings sites in London. In November the National Conciliation panel ordered the six to be transferred to Banstead until Surbiton was reopened and they could finish their job there. However surprise, surprise when Laings restarted the Surbiton job in late January only 3 were taken on with 3 being sacked. The 'six' went back on the offensive putting pickets on Laings massive new British Library site at Kings Cross and supporting a picket also demanding regular employment at Laings Hays Wharf site. On 19th February Laings got an injunction from the High Court under the 1980 Employment Act which if enforced would remove...

- the 'right' of organised workers to speak their dispute or call for support.
- the 'right' of freedom of association.
- the 'right' to picket.

The court not only forbade secondary picketing but the right of the 'six' to picket their 'place of work' (ie Surbiton).

SUPPORT

SIX'

Both UCATT and TGWU officials have played either a useless or obstructive role in the 'surbiton six's' dispute. One UCATT official instructed that UCATT were not in dispute with Laings even though Laings broke the union/Laings agreement over Surbiton. Union full timers have issued instructions to the members to cross picket lines at the British Library site and offered no support to those who respect the pickets. The old communist party dominated Charter Group have also attacked the 'six', using the 'Trotskyist/Anarchist scare' smear, even though the 'six' have the support, and themselves support, the rank & file building workers group. The building unions full timers seem more interested in protecting their own jobs and conditions, than their members jobs and conditions.

The 'Surbiton six' are faced both by jail and financial ruin (Laings are trying to sue for lost income) under the 1980 Employment Act, yet they are carrying on with illegal picketing and touring the country for support. Already pickets of rank and file builders and supporters have begun in Manchester. At a time when the Trade Unions are at best on the defensive, when the 'new realism' of compromise, of negotiating redundancies, of scab unionism etc, is rampant, the action of the 'Surbiton Six' is a classic example of the way to fight back. Support them!

PICKET

London - Hays Wharf (by London Bridge station) 7.00a.m. every day especially Monday.

Pickets in other cities are being organised so keep an eye out.

Laings Postscript... A Regional Conciliation Panel (at the end of March) has recommended the 6 go back-3 to Surbiton, 2 elsewhere and one to wait; the solution the 6 have always rejected and will continue to reject, whatever the compromise the union full timers support. The principles stay, the picketing continues.

I'LL SWOP YOU MY BEST MARBLE FOR P.C. BLAKELOCK'S HEAD.

SPORTS COLUMN

Few of us would disagree that the vast majority of football violence is describable as 'fucking stupid'. Two sets of people beating the shit out of each other over a team of rich bastards who, more often than not, couldn't give two tosses about which team they're playing for, so long as the cash is rolling in and their egos are being perpetually inflated by hordes of adoring fans. Like racism, sexism, nationalism, hetosexism and the idiotic "our council estate's harder than yours" mentality, football hooliganism serves the real enemy, the rich, by keeping us divided and weak. But for many football fans, the game provides one of the few opportunities to let off steam; to experience a sense of excitement, belonging and power, something that is sadly missing from the rest of our lives. The problem is that in the safely controlled environment of the football terraces, this strength can only be experienced temporarily, with all the week's frustrations being directed at the nearest target- which unfortunately happens to be the opposing fans. It's clear that this anger is only ultimately misdirected and counter-productive because it helps to destroy the potential for collective working class action, something that could give rise to power and excitement for us all, not just for 90 minutes a week but for the whole of our lives.

Football thug led charge on the police

As police tried to separate the groups at Euston Station Kelly, a Manchester United supporter, yelled: "Come on, let's get them. It's only the Old Bill."

Recent signs have been encouraging, with non-league sides coming top of the table. Imagine the filth's surprise when they turned up at the Gola league Frickley Athletic's cup tie with Halesowen Town to be met with aggro, not against the opposition's fans but themselves. Similarly in a miner's league game, Grimethorpe FC versus Blidworth FC (from scabbing Nottingham) the visiting teams' dressing room was besieged for 50 minutes, with supporters chanting "SCAB! SCAB!". In Southport, after the death (murder) of Ray Moran in police custody, home fans took the opportunity of their next home game to launch a ferocious attack on the on the boys in blue. Carnivals of destruction, looting, stoning the filth etc. have all appeared in recent months after football matches (in Leicester and Stockport, for example), more and more frequently the real enemy is being singled out and bearing the brunt of these proletarian sports festivals. What a pity there aren't football grounds in Hampstead.

LATE NEWS

Our sports correspondent reports that various London firms have been spotted on the picket lines at Wapping. Nice One!

Breakfast is served Ma'am...

"One egg or two?" The yolk's on you Liz!

~ -ODE TO THE WEDDING- ~

Oh Fergie and Andy, we wish you success,
We mean this from deep in our hearts;
The news that we hear, it fills us with joy,
The wedding of two stuck-up farts.

We wish you a string of dead babies,
And live ones all covered in sores;
We'll chop off their legs, and saw off their heads,
And burn them to rapturous applause.

We'll roast all your cousins for dinner,
And chomp on your parents for tea;
You're a bunch of inbreeding bastards,
We'd strangle your children with glee.

We love both your nice smiling faces,
A cut-throat would widen the grin;
We'll chop up your granny Prince Andrew,
And wring out her liver for gin.

When the fat priest slobbers the sermon,
And the bells at the abbey they ring;
We'll be knotting a noose for you vermin,
So the party can go with a swing.

who makes the ghettos ?

"all social security and black tenants should be put together on certain estates." Is this the view of some rich scum Tory Lord? No, it's the view of housing officers working for the G.L.C (and now for the borough) in Tower Hamlets, East London. The people in fact, who decide where homeless families are actually put.

You can guess what those certain estates are like, decaying, isolated, with few facilities and where nobody else will go. Ghettos of damp and badly built council properties.

It's the same old tactic used by the state and it's reactionary agents. Working class people divided between employed, unemployed and as always black and white. Those at the bottom forced to live in isolation from the rest of their class.

One particular example of this is their attitude to the Bengali community. Council officers thought they should be housed on the worst estates because they were "dirty, noisy and potential sources of social conflict." Bengali families, the victims of horrific racist attacks blamed for racism. They are made to suffer and are pushed away because of the actions of NF scum, attacked only because of their colour.

Never let them tell us we want to live in poverty, in their ghettos. We're forced there and then their surprised when we organize and fight back against our class enemies. Lets hope there's a camera about when the people of Tower Hamlets decide which hospital they want to house those council officials in.

THE FED, The Class War Federation.

Now is the time for Class War anarchists and all who agree with class struggle politics to break away from the ghetto of dropouts, drugs and hippy attitudes. There is no place for Anarchism in the working class till it can offer something better than free festivals and political fanzines. The federation is the way for us to gain a voice among people who day to day fight the class war and who, alone can win it.

The Class War Federation has no membership, it is not a party, it is not the future of revolutionary socialism. It is a small but growing part of it. Together we can do our bit to smash the rich scum, their state, courts, armies and lackeys. Joining the federation is only a matter of making contact, keeping contact and co-ordinating action. Class War is the voice now, not of one small group of people but a federation of those listed below.

To get involved and act as one fist against the bosses and their state only needs you to write to the group nearest to you, on your own or with people you know. Maybe to tell them what your up to and get some help (money for fines, ideas e.t.c.) if you need it. You could get papers to sell, find out if there are other Class War readers near you and meet others from around the country. If you want, someone could come and see you and talk about organizing your own group.

Twice a year there'll be a Class War federation conference for anyone who agrees with the aims and principles. It'll be lots of talking and a chance to meet others in the federation. Get information about the first one from the groups listed below. In between these conferences much stronger links should be built up between groups and individuals, locally, nationally and internationally.

FORWARD WITH THE FEDERATION.
NOW IS THE TIME TO ORGANIZE.

AIMS and PRINCIPLES of the CLASS WAR FEDERATION.

1. The destruction of capitalism and the class system, and its replacement by a free and equal society, where individuals have complete control over all aspects of their life is an immediate necessity (and has been for some time!).

2. We are opposed to all forms of the state including so-called 'communist' states.

3. The primary division in the capitalist system is a class division, between the working class and the ruling class and its allies. We accept that the exact dividing lines are difficult to define and are subject to change.

4. The struggle to seize back the world from the ruling class necessarily involves the use of violence. We support the use of working class violence against the ruling class and its agents.

5. We support in theory and in practice, struggle by the oppressed, autonomous of parliamentarians, local governors, union bosses or 'revolutionary parties'. We seek to increase the autonomous and revolutionary aspects of these struggles, by participation and communication, between ourselves and the rest of our class (as equals, not leaders) to advance and strengthen the struggle as a whole. We do not believe the working class needs leadership and we are totally hostile to all those who attempt to fill such a role.

6. Racism, sexism and heterosexism are an integral part of capitalism and are used as weapons by the state and capitalism to divide the working class. Successful working class struggle for a free society must incorporate the fight against racism, sexism and heterosexism.

7. CWF is a federation of groups and individuals who support the aims and principles as stated above and below. The positions of individuals and groups may differ on certain issues. The CW conference is to meet twice yearly to decide on the positions taken by CWF. Racial discrimination or violence, sexual violence, and the degradation or humiliation of, or discrimination against anyone on the grounds of their sex, sexuality or race is incompatible with the struggle for a free society. Individuals or groups advocating or participating in such behaviour have no place in CWF. Conference will exclude any individuals or groups found to be acting in contravention to the Aims and Principles.

8. We accept that the CWF is not the sum total of working class struggle and that other forms of organisation are appropriate to sections of the working class.

These aims and principles are not stone tablets and are open to further discussion and/or alteration at future conferences.

THE PAPER

Class war is now the paper of the Class War Federation and is produced every two months. The production of the paper is rotated each issue within the groups in the Federation. Before the paper is sent to the printers it is vetted at a delegate conference to which all Class War groups are invited to send delegates. Articles etc. for the next issue should be sent to your local group who will forward them to the group producing the paper.

CLASS WAR

Right, if you have trouble getting hold of Class War in your area then send us £3 and we'll send you the next 12 issues as they come out, or £1.50 for 6. If you live in Europe then send £4 for 12, America £5.

If you want to earn a bit of extra cash for yourself then send us a pound and we'll send you ten copies to flog to your mates at work, at school, on the streets etc. You can sell them for 20p and make yourself £1 (if you're really honest you can donate it to your local anarcho paper or the C/W bust fund). If you want to take more than 10 then send us two pounds for 20 etc etc. If you take 50 or more then we'll deliver them, by van, to your door. Otherwise they will come by post.
