CLASS WAR

BY ALL MEANS NECESSARY

No.34

THIS IS THE REAL COMMUNITY CHARGE!

"HANGINGS TO GOOD FOR HER"

All across the country, CLASS WAR street sellers report a great response to seeing Thatchers head in a noose.

We have also received a number of complaints. Passers by were heard to humbly "Hangings to good for her," "Shoot her," "Pull her finger nails out." and "She's not worth wasting rope on."

For future reference, the job as executioner will be very very popular, particularly with pensioners judging by the responses we got, everyone it seems wants the job pulling the lever that will give the hated Thatcher as big a pain in the neck as she's given us.

CLASS WAR

BY ALL MEANS NECESSARY No. 33

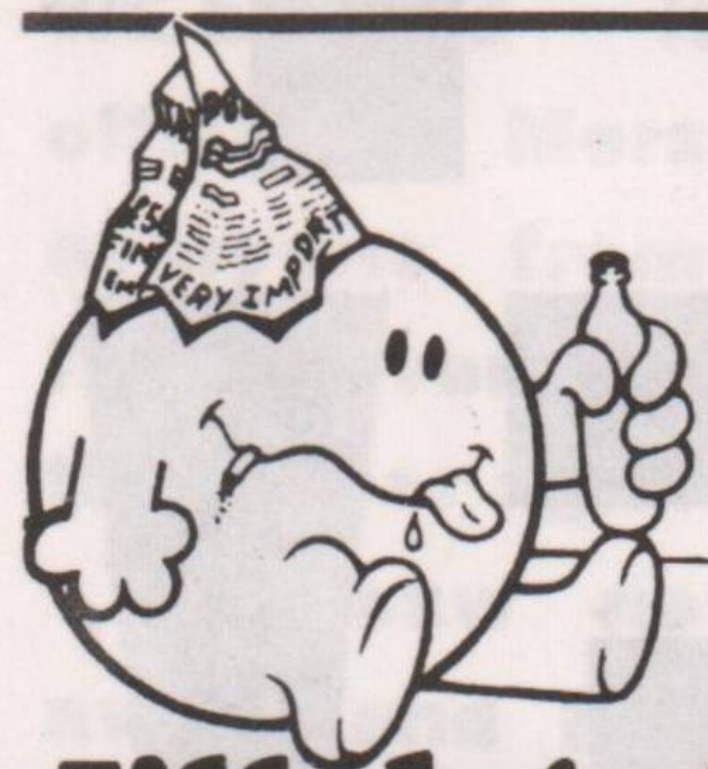

HOW'S THIS FOR A TEN YEAR STRETCH!

Sticking with the Tory filth for a moment, news reaches us that will gladden the heart of everyone who has lived under Thatcher for the last ten years, we hear that a Tory local councillor in Kingswood (N.BRISTOL) who previously has had his private ambulance air-gunned, woke on the morning after the recent county council elections to find that his posh swimming pool had been laced with CYANIDE and ARSENIC. Shame the bastard didn't take a dip!

Also, local magistrates in Shaldon, Devon and Scalby, North Yorkshire. Described that "Ten years of Thatcher" was not a good enough reason for these local Tory clubs to have an extension on their licence. One lot of beaks said "We don't think ten years of the present government is anything to celebrate"! what ever next? Taking out subscriptions for Britains best-loved bi-Monthly

Don't worry, we'll make 'em pay double!!!!

Non Payment I'll drink to that!

MAY DAY MADNESS!!!

While the British working class enjoyed their well earned rest on May 1st, their counterparts across the world were celebrating in a more traditional manner. RIOTS, STRIKES, and MAYHEM sent the governments of the world running for cover on Mayday as workers from Europe to Asia showed their anger on International Workers Day.

In Spain thousands marched against the so-called socialist government in Madrid, and workers clashed with cops in Barcelona. Further north in Belgium the May Day celebrations went with a bang as hundreds battled the police in the heaviest fighting seen for many a year.

Meanwhile, both sides of the Berlin Wall saw very busy May Days. In the Kreuzberg area of West Berlin great mobs of youths went on the rampage, following an anti-state demo. They held the area for ages, lobbing petrol bombs, looting stores turning over cop cars and building barricades. The law didn't know what hit them, and all they could do was to run around throwing tear gas grenades, which were promptly thrown back by the eager young rioters. We say this was a very encouraging and inspirational start to the summer by our German comrades. One German government spokesman said "This was the worst violence seen in years"!!! Over the other side of the hated wall, clashes were reported as people tried to disrupt official ceremonies.

In Eastern Europe workers fought the authorities in a series of battles. In Prague crowds marred the official party celebrations by attacking the cops who escorted it, those arrested showed complete contempt for the law by refusing to cooperate, gobbing on them and keeping their mouths firmly shut. In Gdansk, Poland, hundreds of Solidarity activists, opposed to Lech Waleska's conservative catholic leadership fought riot cops in a spate of running battles through the day.

Turkey saw thousands on the streets of Istanbul battling the cops. Rioters commandeered cars and taxis, as well as pelting the law with rocks.

In the Far East, May Day was the signal for a new upsurge of action against the regime in South Korea. Cops in Pusan came a cropper when six of them burnt to death as rioting strikers set fire to office buildings from which they were attacking the protesters. If this is the sort of fight back May Day can inspire around the world, the message is clear-make EVERY DAY MAY DAY!

POLL TAX TIPS No2

Here as promised, the second in your cut out and keep guide to pissing off the local council on its poll tax campaign. This week we will be concentrating on what you can do in your poll tax group. By now hopefully, you'll have joined or be planning to join your local poll tax group, you'll have noticed enormous amounts of lefties, either Militant, Labour party or SWP students.

1) Just to get things off on the right track, one of the things you could be doing is having a go at the Labour party. Constantly ask how someone can be a member of your group and a member of a party that is supporting and collecting the tax in your area.

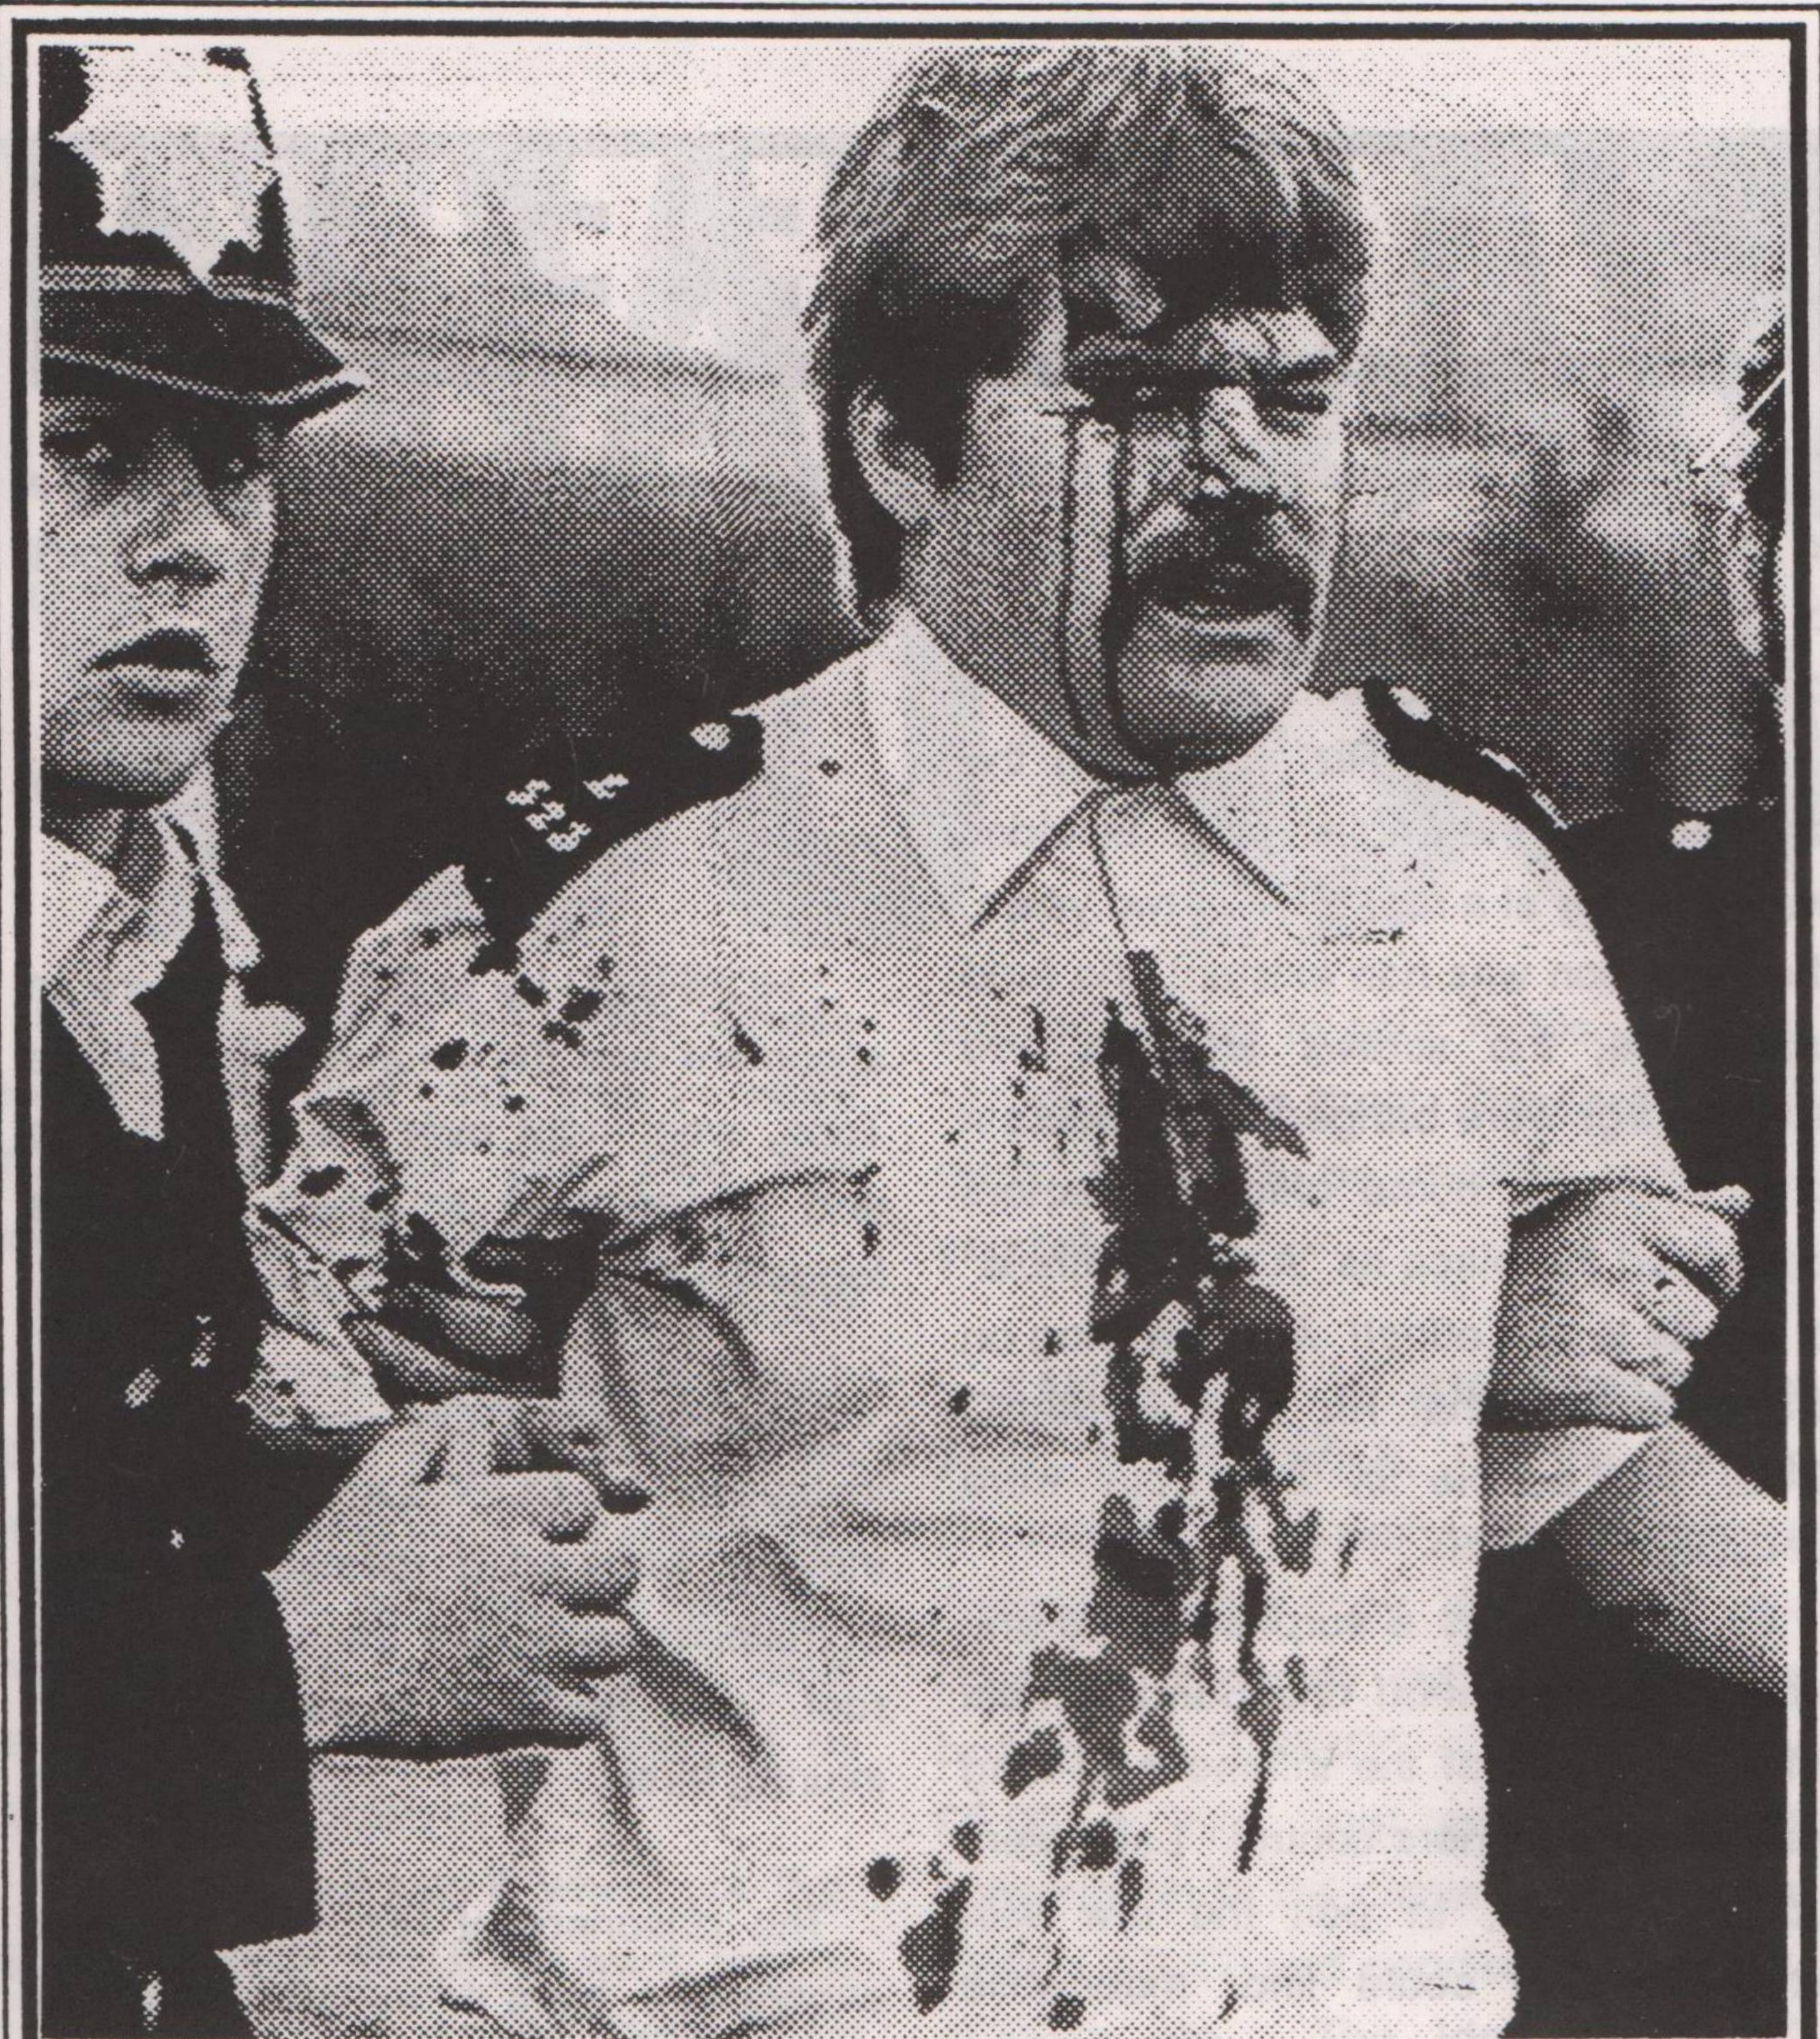

2) One of the best ways to get an active community group known and help it grow is publicity. Graffiti, posters and leaflets are always a good idea, but other imaginative stunts can put you and your group in the lime light. How about burning effigies of councillors outside the townhall or picketing councillors houses.

3) Keep the group open. Have loads of public meetings, don't just advertise them actually ask people to come. Knock on doors and personally invite them, if your serious about being a community group then these people are the community.

4) Don't overstretch yourself. It's not the end of the world if every flat on your estate doesn't get a leaflet. You're only human, the trotsky robots in your group may be 24hrs a day politico's, but you don't want to end up as boring as them. Besides they can skip lectures easier than you can skip work!

"WINSTON SILCOT IS OUR FRIEND HE KILLS COPPERS"

The antics of students usually get right up the noses of CLASS WAR readers. But the students of the London School of Economics decision to elect Winston Silcott, the bloke who was framed for the killing of P.C. "BACON" Blakelock, came as a pleasant surprise. A shocked media cried for lefty students blood, while Tory Toe-rags whined on about dismantling student unions, and tried to overturn the decision, surprisingly unsuccessfully.

Winston, probably just glad he had not been forgotten, resigned from the seat, to the relief of the trendy lefties at L.S.E. who had no real sympathy for him, they just wanted to bleat on about a miscarriage of justice.

It's obvious Winston neither got, nor expected, a fair trial, because for the working class in Britain justice just doesn't exist. Thousands of young men and women sit in British jails because the cops and the courts enjoy criminalising them, as it keeps the rest of us in fear, of what might happen to us if we step out of line.

Well the Broadwater Farm rioters did step out of line, they defended their area, using bricks, petrol bombs and shooters, and one bloodthirsty truncheon wielding thug got a taste of his own medicine, when he bit off a bit more than he could chew.

While Blakelock was turned into a gentle family man, young lads, some barely into their teens were branded as callous monsters for daring to stand up to an invading force of filth.

Whether Winston took part in the fighting or not is irrelevant, he is a constant reminder of the fact that the working class can fight on its own territory and win, and he deserves to be remembered for that.

Winston Silcott... serving life

TOP THE TOFFS

Reports have been flooding into the CLASS WAR news desk about the ever increasing amounts of attacks on the yuppie invaders.

BRISTOL. An advertising agency in Barton Hill, a solid working class area of the city, has been hit by a campaign to drive them out of the area.

After each attack notes are pushed under the door saying "The Anti-Yuppie Squad has struck. We will strike again. HA HA."

In the latest attack the place was firebombed !!!

SALFORD DOCKS. In Manchester, and around the rest of the North we've been crossing our fingers and hoping the yuppies wouldn't bother our inner cities. But they're here, and at SALFORD QUAYS, a mile out of Manchester city centre the developers are thinking big. Right next door to these developments is a huge and none to posh council estate. No surprises really that feelings are running quite high about the millions being spent by their council on "out of the" toffee nosed gits. One of the things that keeps the yuppies feeling safe is that they are cut of from

' Council tenants have been bombing the Lotuses and Range Rovers with bottles and tomato ketchup '

BATTERSEA. The Livingstone estate in Battersea was cleared out of tenants by the scabby council in '84, they sold it to developers who spent millions on it.

Ever since, the yu!>pies in "The Falcons" as it was renamed, have lived a fortress like existence, only daring to go out, to work in the City, or to the country at weekends.

As the local cop PC Peter Snowden says "Theres not the muggings in there like there once was. Its mostly criminal damage now, you know damage done to the flash cars."

And to quote one of the workers in the local laundrette "Council tenants have been bombing Lotuses and Range Rovers, from the blocks next door, with bottles and tomato ketchup."

For many people in the inner cities seeing these posh scum parading their wealth around in front of them, is just taking the piss. They deserve everything they get.

GLASGOW. A comrade in Glasgow, once the great working class city of the north, reports with display that the yuppies have arrived. Taking trendy flats in the old working class, inner city areas and following the London example of living in converted warehouses.

LETS HOPE GLASGOW STARTS SHOWING THE YUPPIES THAT THEY LEAD THE WAY IN ANTI-RICH ACTIVITY the estate by the local motorway (M602). The motorway, dubbed "Salfords Berlin Wall" has only a few road and foot links across it, and due to the high sided walls its impossible to cross without using one of them.

ROUND ONE...

Thousands of the "Invasion of the yuppie bastards" leaflets have been circulated.

ROUND TWO

Anti-yuppie graffiti has appeared, ranging from "mug the rich" to the more wordy; "Yuppies fuck horses and masturbate over Aneeka Rice." (which is on a very very large wall!)

ROUND THREE...

Worried yuppies complain of verbal abuse, and are demanding that a certain footbridge over the "Berlin Wall" of Salford be removed.

ROUND FOUR...

Bombers in new yuppie attack

By Ben Preston
THREESOME'S used to burn down the office of a Bristol company that is victim of a revenge hate campaign.
Three notes signed by "The Anti-Yuppie Squad" have accompanied an escalating campaign against the company.
The notes will strike again, he says.
Early yesterday firebombers tried to burn down the firm's new office in Church Road.
While spirit and rage were just through the firm's letter box on Church Street.
But a fire alarm was triggered and the normal action of the adjoining property could have been killed if the blast had spread.
"I only hope this campaign stops here, I just don't know what could happen next, these people must have twisted minds," he said.
In the last month the advertising agency has been victim of a series of attacks.
The firm is now installing video cameras to combat the menace.

NOW THATS WHAT WE CALL A

JAIL BREAK!

HERES TO A LONG HOT SUMMER...

On the York Hill estate in West Norwood, London, youths have recently been engaging in the anti-social habit of having a go at fire crews. Unlike the cops, fire crews do a lot more good, than harm to our communities, maybe the youths should follow the example of many others areas of the country and suss out who the real enemy is.

Staffordshire for example, attacks on the filth rose by an excellent 70% last year and this year looks like being even better! In January 58 coppers from the county paid a visit to casualty, 14 more than the same month last year.

Meanwhile in Warrington, Cheshire, "public disorder" has gone up by 90% in last four years.

Cops in some areas are so worried by the widespread rise in attacks on themselves, that they're considering wearing riot gear for Friday and Saturday night patrols.

Attacks on cops are so widespread that it would be impossible to list them all, (we'd need a paper a mile wide just to fit them all in!). The media and filth cover up some as well, but we at CLASS

WAR have sifted through the lot, and have come up with some "choice cuts" for your pleasure, read on...

* Without a doubt the finest example of fighting back came from the residents of the HEATH TOWN, area of Wolverhampton.

In late May a group of over 500 attacked the law when they raided a local Pub. Cop reinforcements were rushed to the scene, and youths retreated into the tower blocks, building barricades, and lobbing petrol bombs. It took Police 2 hours to bring the area under their control.

The T.V. and papers were full of stories about the youths being ordered to attack the law by "crack dealers" in order to protect their profits. On the flimsy evidence that a tiny amount of crack was seized during the raid. These stories are nothing more than media inspired lies, to anti-socialise the youths in the eyes of the rest of for our class, and should be treated with the contempt they deserve. It should be remembered that the same police force used the same stories of drug dealer inspired riots at the time of Handsworth going up a couple of years ago. In the early 80's, the media used to say riots were all race inspired, now that that lie has been seen through, they are using "drug dealer" stories in the same way.

* A Saturday night in Derby city centre was the setting for an urban riot of inspiring proportions.

Over 300 youths fought pitched battles with the luckless law after police tried to break up a fight.

They were pelted with BOTTLES, BRICKS, GLASSES and CANS. One litter bin was dropped 50ft on to head of

We have recently seen the best rioting in an English jail since the screws strike of '87. The place "Grisly Risley", the date early May, read on...

For years "Griz Riz" has been the ass-end of all the English jails. Suicides were running at a rate of 17 in two years, the sanitation was non existant, the food un-eatable, the screws arrogant and surley. Lags were banged up 23 hours a day, even the home office inspectors described the place as "A right shithole" or words to that effect! And the icing on the cake was that Riz is a REMAND JAIL, the people in this hole were UNCONVICTED!!!

So it came as a surprise to no-one when things went-off one Sunday meal time... soon all of the infamous D-wing was under prisoners control. Lags went up on to roof, to pelt the law with whatever they could find, meanwhile down below two screws had locked themselves in a cell to escape the wrath of the prisoners. Soon the prisoners were BATTERING away at the door, using a another door as a ram, as well as SMASHING their way through the side walls to get at them that way. Unfortunately the screws on the outside smashed their way into the cell, using SLEDGEHAMMERS, and rescued them before the vengeful mob could get to them, what a shame!

In the FIVE days the Lags had control of D-wing they FOUGHT OFF attempts to re-take it. RIPPED over 100 metal cell doors from their hinges, WRETCHED the bogs and plumbing from the walls, and PUNCHED massive holes in walls using RAMS. Included in the walls smashed down was a 40ft section of OUTSIDE WALL! The damage will cost at least two million quid to repair.

a copper, that copper, and ten others spent the night in casualty.

* As reported in your last red-hot issue of CLASS WAR, things in Liverpool have been reaching civil war proportions! Latest in a long line of attacks on the law was the bushwacking of a copper, in his panda car, in Garston.

He was lured to the area by false reports of rioting, and soon became the victim of one! As SMASH, all the windows went through. CRUNCH, the car was battered with scaffolding poles. THUD, bricks were lobbed at the helpless occupant.

Attacks of this sort are becoming an epidemic on Merseyside, as youths battle back against the powers-that-be.

The prisoners ended their riot, with a mass victory salute and sang "You'll never walk alone".

Other riots in prisons recently include;

* HORFIELD jail in BRISTOL where an argument over the volume of Top Of The Tops, went right over the top! Lights and fittings were smashed as screws legged it around trying to get control.

* KIRKLEVINGTON young offenders institution in CLEVELAND, where 3C inmates barricaded themselves in two dormitories, wrecked them, got on the roof, and PELTED screws with tiles, injuring three.

The prisoners at Riz, and prisoners everywhere, have done much more than smash up their blocks. They have sent a clear challenge to the enemy, put us in you're jails, overcrowd us and treat us like animals, but don't expect us to take it lying down,

WE'LL MAKE YOU PAY EVERY STEP OF THE WAY FOR THE INTIMIDATION OF OUR CLASS.

* Early April saw Harrow Rd cop shop under siege in West London. Seven cops were injured, after the station was attacked during a march protesting about the death of a youth at police hands.

* Two cops had their noses broken during two hours of disturbances in Bridlington, Humberside, on Mayday.

* Early May found six injured coppers in Brighton. They had received their injuries at the hands of a mob armed with BRICKS and BROOMHANDLES.

* Two cops paid a visit to hospital after being battered by a group of youths in Stroud, Glos.

SALLY SKULL LETS RIP!

(ONLY IN YOUR SIZZLING SUMMER CLASS WAR)

Yes folks we've done it, at vast personal expense CLASS WAR are able to bring you Britains classiest, class conscious gossip column. The legendary SALLY SKULL;

Those of us who thought WOODROW WYATT was just a right scabby Murdoch hack are wrong, for it seems that the Dirty Digger favourite ass-licker is also suffering from eyesight problems I quote;

"Mrs Thatcher became MP for Finchley in 1959. For 11 years I was in the Commons with her. I admired her prettiness, her legs (they reminded me of the marvellous Marlene Dietrich) and her English rose complexion."

An optician in class war healthworkers has diagnosed this complaint as having what is commonly known as; "shit in his eye".

STUDENTS Thugs in student attacks

By Kevan Blackadder and Ben Preston

SPANNERS USED AS WEAPONS

STUDENTS at Bristol University are stepping up security after a series of unprovoked attacks late at night in the students to walk in the face and then one of his mates produced two spanners and they all laid

The majority of University students are middle or upper class. Very working class people can afford, or aspire to go to university, especially the top ones, eg; Oxford, Cambridge, Bristol etc. They think they know what poverty is, they whinge continuously about how little their grant is while people on the dole or social get even less and have families to look after. Their idea of fun is to go into pubs and play "student pranks" and act oh-so- superior, only they don't think its so funny when people see them for what they are, pretentious little shit-heads, and give them a good kicking. For three years or more, they study in institutions which are based on an elitist education system. Meanwhile real life goes on outside where people are working to keep them in their cushioned, false existence.

If students ask "why do we get beaten up?" its because the majority of them are a bunch of middle class workers who become more obnoxious as they get older but less obvious and harder to get!

SO THE CRY IS, LETS GET THE RULING CLASS IN THE FEW SHORT YEARS THEY LIVE AMONGST US.

PRINCE PHILIP, the Greek Nazi husband of the QUEEN, was we hear, pulled over by the law in Windsor the other night. They were at a road block set up in an attempt to catch villains on their way back from robbing the houses of the idle rich in the area, when they pulled him in his RANGE-ROVER. The hapless filth didn't recognise him for 15 mins, by which time the Royal Nazi was fuming. Transfers too the Isle of Skye dog pound are thought to be in order.

Don't your heart just bleed for FLATULENT FERGIE jeered and laughed at by the inmates of WORMWOOD SCRUBS, she was to stupid to notice (all that inbreeding on doubt) and WAVED BACK! whilst horrified's COURTIERs looked on, got the dress sense of a drunken six year old whose just broken into the DOCTOR WHO costume department. Apart from being a general figure of ridicule, she just loves going off on holiday, (to some LACKEY'S ranch, island, or villa) she's never done a days graft in her life, and now she's whinging that she's hurt by people referring to her as a PARASITE, tough life, isn't it.

Who can help but chuckle at the antics of the ROYAL CORGIS. There was CHIPPER, the QUEENS corgi plodding along the lawn, enjoying a bit of afternoon sun, when, charge, a pack of dogs led by the QUEEN MUMS favourite hound set upon the luckless dog, savaging it to death. Shame OLD HORSEFACE QUEEN wasn't the target. We wish no ill on poor Chipper, even though he's probably had more spent on him than some Grannies have spent on them, but we hope that it caused a great deal of grief to the Royal scum. I'm sure there's lots of our generous readers who would be only too willing to arrange for the ROYALS to join chipper in the hereafter.

Royal favourite... Chipper is taken for a walk

Our MIDDLE EASTERN correspondent, brings us the news that MAD DOG GADAFY was recently quoted as saying on ABU DHABI T.V. that he was celibate as a youth as "sex sapped his revolutionary vigour" Considering that he now has SEVEN kids, we let our readers draw their own conclusions about the state of the Islamic Revolution in Lybia.

And finally I draw to a close with a tail of LOVE and BETRAYAL, set in romantic ITALY.

Poor old millionaire industrialist,

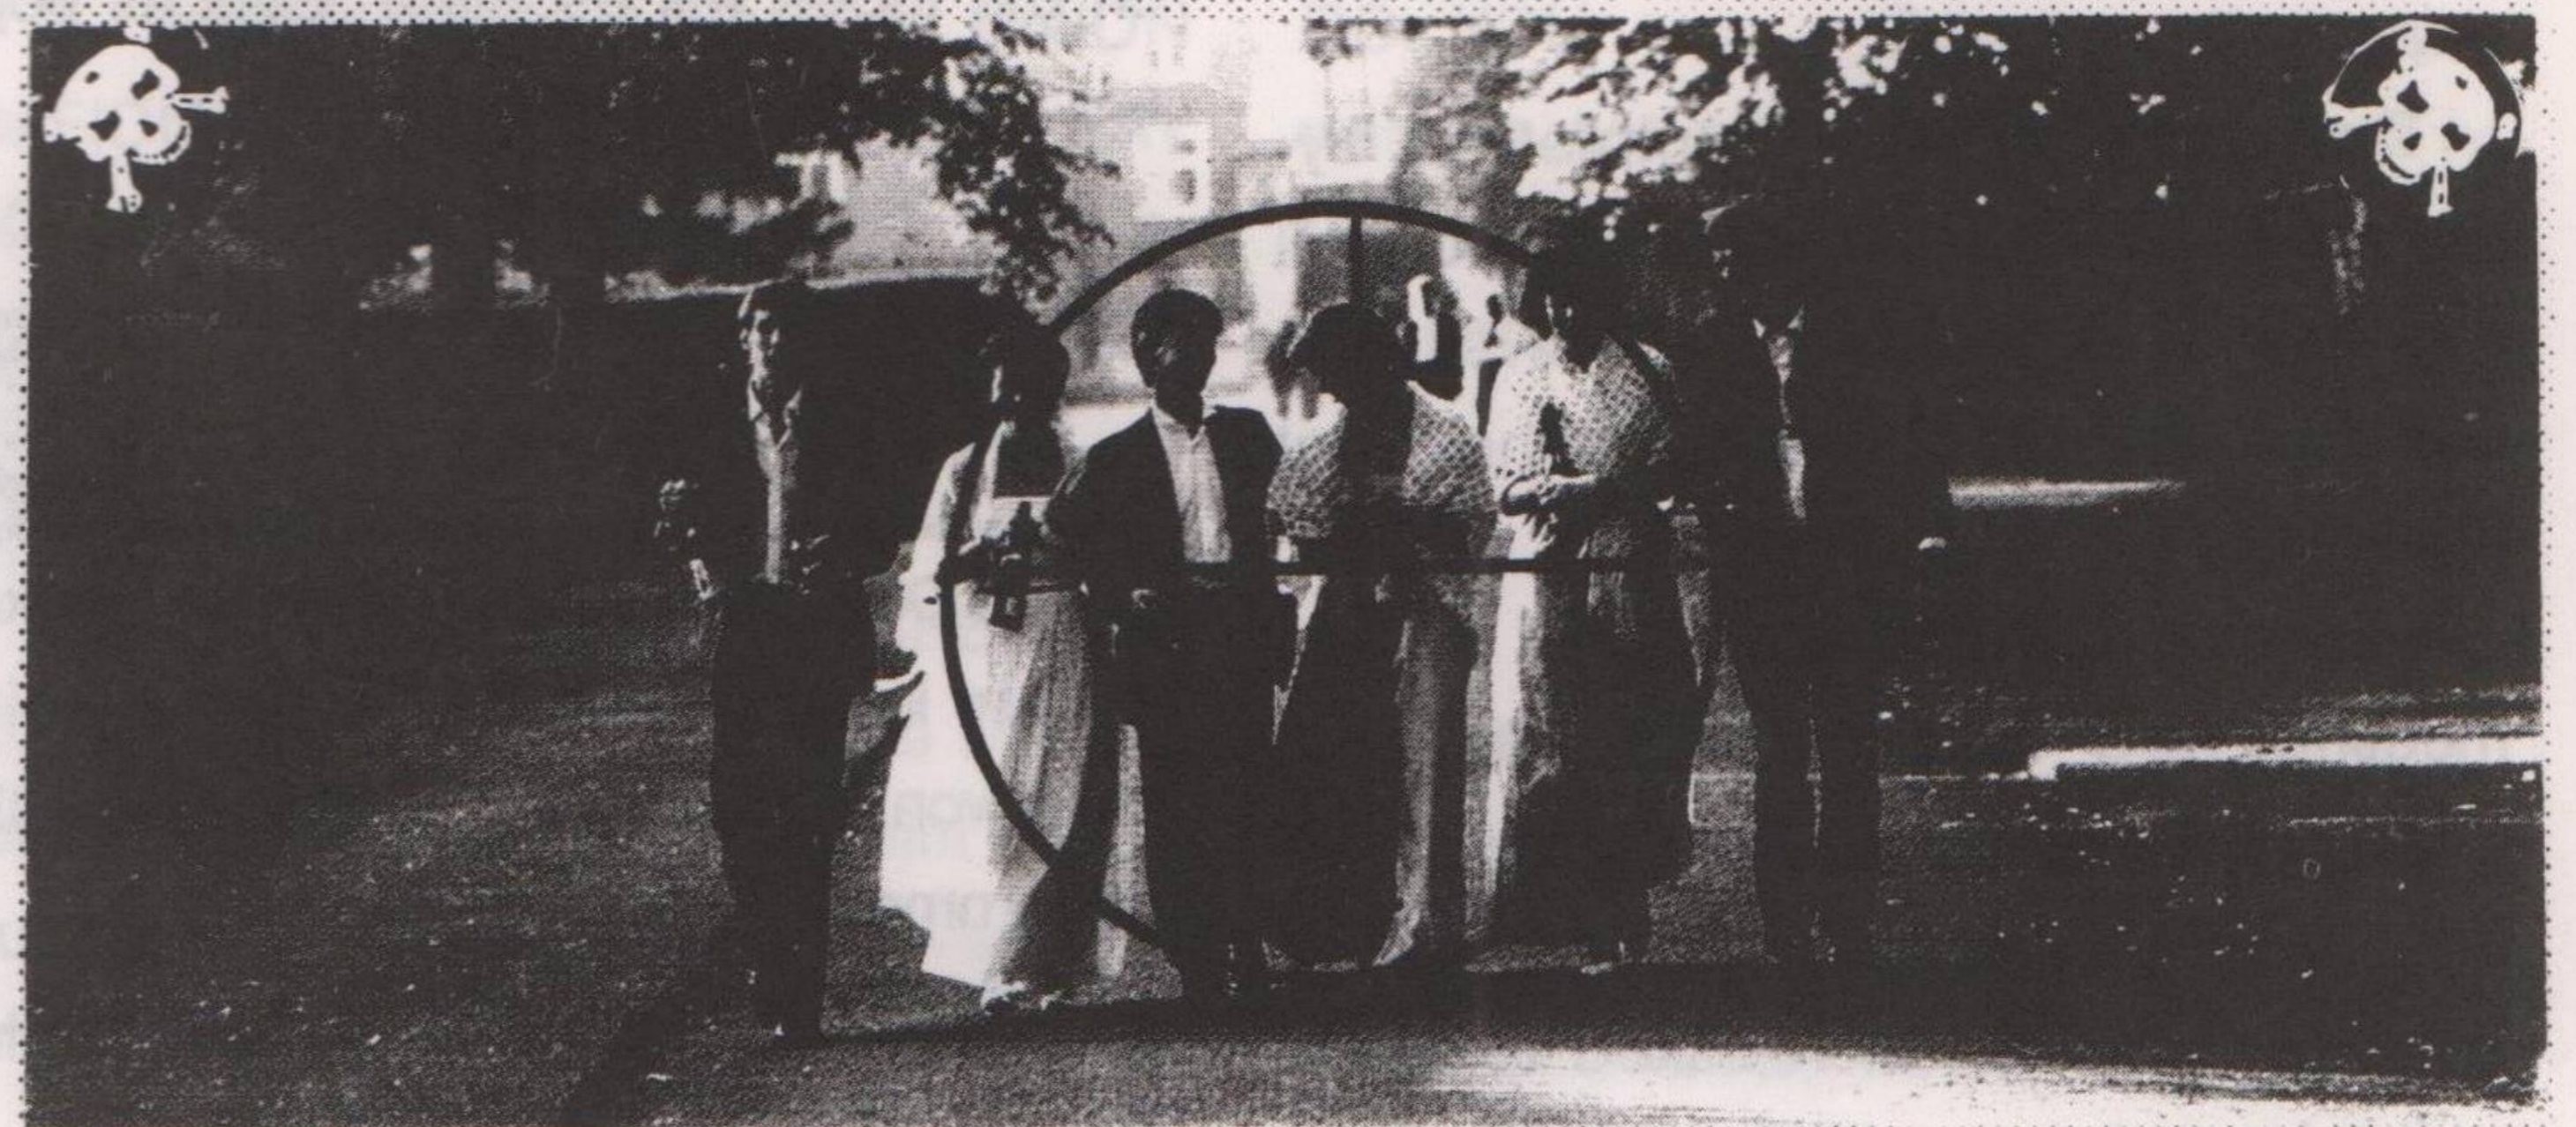

GIUSEPPE ZANNOVI was unfortunate enough to have his wife SILVANNA, kidnapped. But it turned out to be anything but a straight forward pay-up-or-else routine. They demanded £2.3 million, he REFUSED to pay, and HAGGLED for six months, with the kidnapers! despite his wife sending no less than TEN tearful requests for freedom. In the end he coughed up £1.7 million, and his wife was returned. But that was only the beginning, she was furious at his attitude "He cares more about his money, than he does me" and promptly reported him the the cops for paying a ransom, which the law take a very dim view of in Italy. As he was taken away she told waiting reporters, "The kidnapers were so nice, they fed me well and really looked after me, more than my pig of a husband ever did" !!!

SUMMER FUN

In such a class ridden society as our own, we can't help but notice the antics of the idle rich as they prance about their social events in the summer months. In the recent past, CLASS WAR has even turned up at some of these events, just to help them go with a bang, you understand, and this summer we would like to share with our readers, the knowledge, to help them have their own bit of fun, and give some toffs a good kickin at the same time....

JUNE 21st. The MAGDALENE BALL, at Magdalene college, Cambridge. This is a prime event for any class conscious youths who would like to ruin a night out for the snobs in Cambridge. Its easy to pick off the young toffs, just wait till you see the whites of their dress shirts, and WHACK, a good fist in the face will really brighten up HUGO'S evening.

An old favourite with CLASS WAR this one, and an ever growing popular event with the working class youth of prance about inside to jazz bands. The place turns out at 2.00am so there should be plenty of opportunity for a spot of yuppie bashing both before and after.

These are just a few examples of the places to find the rich on those hot summers days (and nights). To find them round your way all you have to do is watch out for things like Tory party Balls, or open days at public schools. These are always good for a laugh and any attempt at showing our hatred for these parasitic scum should not be passed up. HAPPY HUNTING

DOCKS

The dock labour scheme, brought in after years of struggle by dockers for permanent work, has been under threat by both Labour and the Tory governments. Now they are really trying to get rid of it. In CLASS WAR No.23 we quoted a docker who said "They will have us queuing up for work like in the 30's if they can get away with it".

Wildcats in the docks in April, following the announcement by the Tories, were the first signs of the growing discontent. Unfortunately, union leaders admitted to get most workers back, on the basis that there must be a ballot as this is the LAW! In fact they were more worried about their assets being seized than fighting a successful strike.

A month after the initial wildcats, the strike ballot has been won with a massive 74% in favour, but the element of surprise has been lost, management is prepared for a dispute and is even cocky enough to say it will be over in a couple of weeks.

The dockers will have to appeal directly to non dock labour scheme portworkers and other transportworkers if the strike is going to win.

UNDERGROUND

The Tube strikes have been the most interesting of the wildcats so far...outside of the union and with lightening stoppages.

The strikers have completely bypassed the usual channels of official disputes by organising themselves and using the element of surprise to their best advantage.

Secret committees, call mass meetings, held at short notice in non-union halls, a quakers hall at Kings Cross for example. Union officials are allowed to speak first and then asked to leave, whilst journalists and lefty paper sellers are booted out. This might not be perfect but it shows a good way forward.

The Press have done their usual trying to write them off trick, either as "Tories" because they ignore the union !!!, or Anarchists, because they do the business. What is true, is that the Tube drivers have more chance of winning without the union, than they ever had with it.

Things are definitely hotting up in the building trades.....

* Unions representing 600,000 building workers reject an 8% pay offer.

* An unofficial strike by 1000 steel erectors in London demanding more dosh!

* Hundreds of Laings building workers strike over safety conditions and pay on the treacherous Severn Bridge, after one man was killed and scab labour brought in.

BUSES

13,000 bus workers in London coordinated their strike with that of the tube drivers and South-Eastern railway workers. A picket said "We should try to work with other sections, without the united stance from tube and train drivers, we can't forcefully make a point, I think unofficial action such as we have seen on the tubes will escalate "Lets all hope so..."

AND MORE

* 38,000 firemen are warning of strikes if their index linked pay scheme which they won in the '77 strike is axed by the government.

* 70,000 rail workers are poised to strike over pay and conditions.

* Even staff at the Toff's shop, Selfridges, staged a series of one day strikes.

The first in the history of the store.

* 13,000 Post Office counter staff are to be balloted on nationwide action.

* 800,000 Engineering workers have begun to draw up a hit list of top companies for all out strikes, in support of a 35 hour week.

Plus, lets not forget the BBC workers, or the power workers who are promising black-outs by the end of the summer.... Looks like were in for a scorcher!!

STRIKE ALERT

CLASS WA

The Tories thought they had it all sewn up. Ten years of tightening our belts, wage cuts, speed ups, and redundancies have produced huge profits for the bosses.

The defeats of the Steelworkers, Miners and printworkers, to name but a few, were well planned in advance by the ruling class. They always thought they could beat us into submission using a mixture of force (the cops, courts etc) and lies (the media, union leaders etc) and they thought they had succeeded.

But there is one vital thing they have forgotten... we are not defeated because we haven't even started fighting yet. All the strikes of the 80's were skillfully isolated by the police tactics, anti-strike laws, and union manoeuvres. The latest wave of action, and the coming strikes of the 90's are moving onto a new ground of struggle.

No longer are we going to be fooled by poxy TUC "days of action", or carefully, bureaucrat orchestrated strikes that either peter out, or end with a sell out.

The new wave of strikes will be under the control of the men and women who work on the shop floor, or in the hospital wards or in the offices. It is us who should be making the decisions, not pathetic union bureaucrats who's aim seems to be "calm everything down" or like Ron Todd, telling the dockers to "get back to work so they can negotiate from a position of strength"!

We should decide what happens because we know what's best to do, and because we bear the brunt of the pay-cuts and redundancies and other attacks by the rich.

All the best strike tactics, the ones that scare and hurt the rich the most, have been denied us through laws (which we can break), union "rules" (which we can ignore) and the police (who we must fight). We have got to reclaim these tactics, after all what's the point of striking unless we are going to win.

So what we need is...

1. SOLIDARITY.

Our class is our best defence, resolutions to conferences, fancy speeches and politicians will never win our struggles. Flying pickets and direct appeals to our class will put us on the road to victory. The nurses strike showe

HERE WE GO,

WE GO,

The Tube

Firemen

The Beeb

that we can cross trade barriers, now we have to smash these barriers completely. We are all in the same boat together and only together will we be able to fight effectively.

2. ORGANISATION.

The organisation of our struggles has to be in our own hands, not the union leaderships. That means mass meetings, assemblies and committees under our control. As the miners strike showed these organisations must be open to our class as a whole, that means our families, communities and friends. This way we can fight effectively as a class outside work and coordinate our needs whether young, old, man, or woman.

3. SUSSED.

The future strikes and struggles we are going to fight will be against an increasingly ruthless ruling class who have a range of tactics they have learnt from history.

We have learnt also and must apply our experience as ruthlessly as they do. That means no more organised defeats (like Orgreave) or sticking with tradition. Our motto should be "Strike first, strike fast, strike hard and keep moving on"

4. WILL.

We've had them on the run before and we can do it again. All we need is the confidence to carry it through and that is up to all of us. After all if we stop running, they can't chase us anymore !!!

STRIKING BR WORKERS SAY "BREAK A LEG DI" AS SAFETY STANDARDS SLIP AGAIN

TOO HOT

Now that walkouts are back in style, CLASS WAR have decided to give our readers a step-by-step guide to having a day off.

1. As soon as the temperature hits 20°C, or the sun pokes its head out, head for the door with cries of "Too hot to work, all out".
2. Tearooms run out of milk? Instead of sending someone out for more, why not all go, and make a day of it!
3. Charlene about to give Scott the boot, in Neighbours? Well you don't want to miss that all important episode, so "find" some blue asbestos in the bog and away you go.

4. For you tennis fans who don't want to use up your hols' watching Wimbledon. Why not "discover" some Listeria in the canteen, the place will be shut for at least a week,
5. Getting cheesed off on the night-shift? Why not claim that the nearby electricity pylons are giving you a headache, while the bosses spend ages getting in the Health and Safety, you could be down the pub.

ARE YOU THE ENEMY WITHIN ?

1. WHAT IS A SCAB ? a. What you get when you fall off your skateboard. b. A brave hero defending the right to work. c. A traitor to his class who deserves all he gets.
2. YOUR BOSS SAYS IF YOU STRIKE THE WORK WILL GO TO HIS FRENCH FACTORY. DO YOU..... a. Go back to work for the good of the national economy. b. Tell him he's lying. c. Get out your French-English dictionary, look up the word strike, and get on the phone.
3. WHEN YOU HEAR A UNION OFFICIAL DEMAND "A FAIR DAYS PAY FOR A FAIR DAYS WAGE". DO YOU. a. Tell him he's a bolshevik saboteur. b. Tell him he's the man to win it for you. c. Shout bollocks.
4. YOUR NEXT DOOR NEIGHBOURS ON STRIKE. DO YOU. a. Invite MI5 out for a drink on you. b. Invite him or her out for a drink on you. c. Invite their whole family out for a drink on you.

PROLETARIAN SHOPPING

More and more attacks are being made upon our class, and more and more people are finding it difficult to make ends meet. But as our wages and benefits are cut or remain pitifully low, the prices of things we need, like food, drink and other necessities keep rising. That's why an ever increasing amount of the working class are realising that the shops and supermarkets are ripping us off. We are sick of not being able to afford the things we need, so we have simply decided that the time has come to just start taking it.

The rich Bosses who own the shops call it stealing, while a lot of working class people call it survival. We should not be conned into thinking that taking the things we need is in any way wrong. Those who tell us that it is are usually the ones with plenty. Shoplifting is not a crime, the poverty that they enforce on us is.

The amount of people who are taking the things they need from shops is rapidly escalating. More people are getting together and finding out just how easy it is. They are trying and testing new ways to combat security devices such as cameras, security tags and store detectives, and then passing on useful techniques to others.

Shoplifting in some areas is becoming a community pastime where everyone in the community either benefits or takes part. People are getting together and going out in groups, using others as decoys, lookouts and blocks. Everyone is learning tricks from each other. Community shoplifting like this, is and will become more common. People are and will be shoplifting and distributing food and other essentials to the less able or less well off in our communities. Such an example is the "Bread Gang" in London's Mile End, where youths have been nicking large quantities of bread from supermarkets and bakeries back yards, then going round the estates giving it out to the elderly.

As we get less money, and the greedy rich carry on increasing the prices, shoplifting eases our poverty. Shoplifting challenges our position as being helpless and powerless, and is often one of the first attempts many working class people make at challenging and taking control of their lives. We must not feel guilty, we must shoplift with pride and dignity.

PEOPLE IN POSITIONS OF POWER TELL US WE ARE WRONG, WHEN THEY HAVE BEEN STEALING OFF US ALL

OUR LIVES. NOW IS THE TIME FOR US AS A UNITED COMMUNITY TO START TAKING BACK WHAT IS RIGHTFULLY OURS.

8 WAYS TO KEEP VERMIN LIKE THIS OUT OF YOUR VILLAGE

Pissed off with the Yuppie invasion of your village? Well here's how to get rid of them!

1. Ring the Church bells at 4.30 in the morning, every morning!
2. Let your goat into their prize rose garden, when they're off commuting to the office. By the time they come home it should look a treat!
3. Get your friendly farmer to drive his muck-spreader (switched on of course) past their open topped yuppie-mobile.
4. Organise a spot of rural rioting, with them as target number one!
5. Kidnap their snotty kids (on their way back from the local posh school) and leave them tied up in a cess-pit that hasn't been emptied since VE night!

6. Bring back the ancient village tradition of the ducking stool! If they float, burn them, if they don't, well it's saved you the job!

7. With petrol prices what they are, why don't you round 'em all up, harness them, and tow your tractor around the fields with them!

8. If the Church bells ain't enough for them, get the local morris dancers to practice outside their house every Sunday morning.

There you have it, a step by step guide to removing unwanted vermin from your village, why not drop us a line and tell us how you got on, you never know, it might even make the next issue of your sizzling hot CLASS WAR.

CLASS WAR TRAIN SPOTTERS

A NEW CLASS WAR GROUP HAS JUST BEEN FORMED AND WE RECEIVED THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE AND COMMUNIQUE....

Class War trainspotters have at last formed into a fighting organisation. Anoraks on, sleeves up, and into battle.

The last thirty years have seen the decimation of the rail network. Older comrade spotters still talk bitterly about the Beeching report (1964) which deprived us of some of the great spotting "highs".

Where once Deltics sped past gleaming stations, all we have now is memories and ruins. We CLASS WAR trainspotters are not in the least afraid of ruins, for spotters and our class built those stations in the first place and they can built BIGGER and BETTER again, but only when the working class seizes control of the railways.

The coming wave of railworkers struggles makes it imperative that trainspotters take an active role in the strikes. We have released the following four point action communique..

1. Don't cross picket lines.
2. Start "scab spotting", that's taking the numbers of trains on the move during strikes. Pass these numbers and other details onto the strikers.
3. Get together with other spotters to produce practical help for the strikers, money physical support etc.
4. Although distasteful to some, sabotage may be needed to win the strike. As spotters we are often the most sussed out about trains and marshalling yards. Offer your services to the hit squads.

Remember the railways are our property as a class and must be defended by railworkers and spotters alike.

POLL TAX FIGHT BACK

Dear Class War,

The community resistance group in Edinburgh, comprising of many libertarian minded individuals has played an important role in the poll tax battle, whereas the SWP, MILITANT and the SNP, have been fighting the tax with a view to boosting party membership. Community resistance have stressed the importance of organising autonomously are using direct action as your weapon. As I write the figures for the first months level of non-payment have been issued. Despite what the press say, and even opinion polls showing 30% not willing to pay, its becoming clear that in some areas up to sixty percent of people have not payed their first instalment! Still alive and kicking I'd say. Thats about it for now then.

FOOTBALL SHORTS

Dear Comrades,

Although I know nothing about your organisation personally I think the following idea might be useful...A CLASS WAR Supporter, similar to a membership, it could include a Sub to the paper, and the Heavy Stuff etc. It would be useful money to spend on the paper, badges etc.

At the moment soccer fans are at there most anti-tory. I was at a Man Utd V Southampton (NOV 88) the chants were great "Maggie Thatcher is a wanker" was the most popular. Maybe one of the next editions or a special could be solely on soccer. Socialists should be pushing socialism on the terraces and outside the grounds. The racist scum have been defeated at United. Only a handful still chant racist shit, usually everyone else start singing for Uniteds only black player, Irishman Paul McGrath. A leaflet should be put out for certain and distributed. Doncaster Rovers fans are left-wing ever since the miners strike.

Class war into the 90's
Good Luck
Mark. Doncaster.

WHAT CAN YOU DO

So your pissed off with whats going on around you.. you've read CLASS WAR and you like the angle so what do you do now ?

Well sorry to be a downer, but we offer no quick solutions, no leaderships which you can be bottle fed by, because we believe the working class can only be free if it takes power, as a class, at the grass roots, by the street and the factory. With no leadership, no parties, doing it by ourselves, for ourselves.

We say just get with it, where you live, where you work...and if you want, give us a hand as well in getting these ideas across.

Apart from what we do at work and where we live CLASS WAR'S activity is mainly selling the paper. We do this by putting it in local bookshops and newsagents but above all by street selling...standing outside stations or on the High Street on a saturday.

CLASS WAR doesn't believe it is the be-all and end all of peoples lives, we don't demand all your time and energy. We would be far happier to see people organising where they live and work against immediate threats like the poll tax or cuts etc. Ideas about revolutionary change should be discussed by all of us, because we are the ones who are going to do it.

We want more people, however, to be involved with the CWF, as we think CLASS WAR is one of the best ways of getting these ideas across. CLASS WAR already sells many thousands of copies, copies which in turn are read by many thousands of other people. We want with your help, to be able to get over to even more people. You can do this in a number of ways;

GET IN TOUCH WITH YOUR LOCAL GROUP - START A LOCAL GROUP. By getting in touch with your local group, you can get involved in CLASS WAR activity in your area. Or drop a line to your region group, who will give you all the help you need to start your own group up and running.

'88-'89 WE LOOK BACK

The '88-'89 season has been a real battleground for football, what with Hillsborough, ID cards and clubs going under due to financial problems. Looking back over these hectic months a few things stick in the mind.

The ID card scheme thought up by the Tories prompted loads of resistance from fans. It seems the only people who are for the scheme are those who don't and never have gone to football, which says a lot about the idea in the first place. Hopefully, '89-'90 will see the end of the scheme altogether.

Last season was also the year of the football fanzine. Most clubs have got at least one 'zine, with new ones appearing every month. The fanzines apart from being far better than the boring matchday programmes have played a leading role in allowing supporters to voice their opinions as well as cementing opposition to the hated ID cards.

The decline of Newcastle Utd, and their relegation left the north east without a first division club. Many of their problems stem directly from boardroom power struggles, and share deals by the rich directors. The fans have not taken this lying down.

Throughout the season "Sack the Board" demonstrations took place culminating in a mini-riot when cops were sent in to break up a thousand strong protest outside the ground. With a bit of luck United should be back in the First Division but without the money grabbing Directors.

A bit of good news, was Charlton returning to the Valley. Fortunately the ground did not fall prey to the developers and yuppie scum. Much of the credit for this good result was due to the aggro kicked up by the Charlton supporters. Nice one!

The bad news was losing Newport County, whilst many other clubs were in financial trouble as well. ID cards could be the final nail in the coffin.

The JERK of the season award had only one candidate. Yes you got it..the DEMENTED PIXIE himself Colin Moynihan. Apart from knowing bugger all about football, his own sport was ROWING! (what a surprise) he's mainly been in the news for sex scandals (we can't see what she saw in him-apart from 500 quid). As long as he keeps away from the terraces and sticks to getting gassed at boxing matches (HA HA) we'll be happy.

Silliest decision of the years was definitely Arsenal's when they banned inflatables from the terraces. Whats wrong with a 25ft Haddock, at least its better than carrying a Stanley knife.

The most sickening hypocrite prize went to Master Ken Bates, Chelsea's chairman who only a couple of years ago wanted ELECTRIC FENCES put up at Stamford Bridge. This year he was prattling on about the Hillsborough disaster saying "It should never happen again" and shedding crocodile tears. What a nauseating git he is.

One of the most touching moments was the minutes silence in remembrance of Hillsborough at the A C MILN Vs REAL MADRID European Cup semi-final. Even after Heysel it showed football fans all over the world can overcome the sickening patriotism that infects our Internationals.

Finally it was good to see the Liverpool and Everton fans refusing to sing the national anthem, and giving the FA and ROYAL SCUM a right good heckling at the Cup Final.

HAVE-A-GO HABITS

Class War have just heard about the have-a-go habits, of British light middleweight champ GARY STRETCH.

It seems young Gaz (23), was driving past Albert Hall, when he happened across FIVE white racists, giving a kickin to ONE black bloke (easily explained by the nazis coming up to their usual standards of bravery coupled with a cronic inability to count!).

Anyhow, Gary was seen to leg it over to them and send them running with much flying of fists and boots, no doubt off they went home to tell mummy about how they were jumped by a 50 strong mob! NICE ONE SON.

GARY STRETCH

NUTSGRABBER

It would appear that VINNY "nuts-grabber" JONES, one of Wimbedons finest, has been keeping quiet a long cherished secret from his days as a hod carrier.

In answer to the question put to him by student magazine NME; "WHAT WAS THE BEST THING YOU EVER DID AS A HOD CARRIER?" he relied "Dropping a lump hammer off a roof on to a mercedes below" What ever next Vinny? a spot of burning down the Directors box !!!

GIVE I.D. CARDS

THE BOOT!

enough to get their hands on issue 33 of your action packed CLASS WAR ,can not help but to be inspired by the activities of HAMBURGS' FC St Pauli, and their mob of radical youth supporters the "BLACK BLOCK" the most highly politicised football supporters in W.Germany.

Well, we hear, the BLACK BLOCKS have been up to their old tricks again...At the start of a recent televisec match against Bochum, a banner suspended from 8 ballons was launched across the pitch. It was superbly timed and cheered on by the crowd. It drifted right across the camera's line of vision, and just above the play, the message read; "SOLIDARITY WITH THE PALESTINIANS ON THE WEST BANK AND WITH THE POLITICAL HUNGER STRIKERS IN W.GERMANY"

We also hear that there is an indie single "The St.Pauli Rap".

Maybe we'll be seeing floating banners next season with the on-set of ID cards. (thanks to WSC and our German correspondent for the info)

IS THIS THE FUTURE OF FOOTBALL ACCORDING TO MOYNIHAN?

SUN SCUM

The Sun managed to exceed even its own usual level of shit in its coverage of Hillsborough.

THEY photographed the dying and dead, instead of helping.

THEY lied to gain interviews with the victims families. THEY printed desperate lies about the fans behavior, in order to take the heat off the cop filth and Tories they protect.

WE burned their crappy paper on the streets of Liverpool. WE banned it from shops and offices on Merseyside. WE heard everyone from housewives to Radio Liverpool urging "Don't buy this paper again".

WE saw newsagents throw away, and promise not to sell this rag, in a Mersey wide boycott.

"POLICE MADE FANS GO BACK INTO DEATH PENS"

'British football's grim chronicle of disasters

THE Hillsborough disaster is the latest in a grim catalogue of soccer tragedies involving British fans.

May 29, 1985 Thirty-nine spectators — mainly Italians, French and Belgians — were killed by a collapsing wall during a fight between supporters of Liverpool and the Italian side, Juventus, during the European Cup final at Belgium's Heysel stadium. English clubs were banned from Europe.

May 11, 1985 A blazing stand at Bradford City killed 53 fans on the day the club celebrated promotion.

May 11, 1985 Twenty people were hurt when a wall collapsed at Birmingham City.

April 1981 A couple died when a pillar collapsed at Middlesbrough.

February 1978 Thirty people were hurt, including two policemen, when a barrier at Orient broke.

May 1972 Eighty were injured when a barrier collapsed at Wolverhampton Wanderers.

January 1971 Until last Saturday, Britain's worst football disaster was at Ibrox where 66 people were killed and more than 170 injured as crush barriers collapsed at the Glasgow Rangers' ground.

March 1946 Thirty-three died and 500 were hurt at Bolton when a wall and barriers collapsed.

"We must wait for the outcome of the inquiry" said Justice Popperwell and the smug politicians on T.V. the day after 95 fans had been murdered at Hillsborough.

WHY? to ease their guilt at the deaths caused by the shit system they support. If one copper had been killed instead, there would have no need to await the outcome of the inquiry, they'd have bayed for blood, the return of hanging, and branded us all "murdering hooligans".

As one survivor said; "We've been treated like animals for years. We only mean money to those football league bastards. They caged us in like animals, and some of us died like animals."

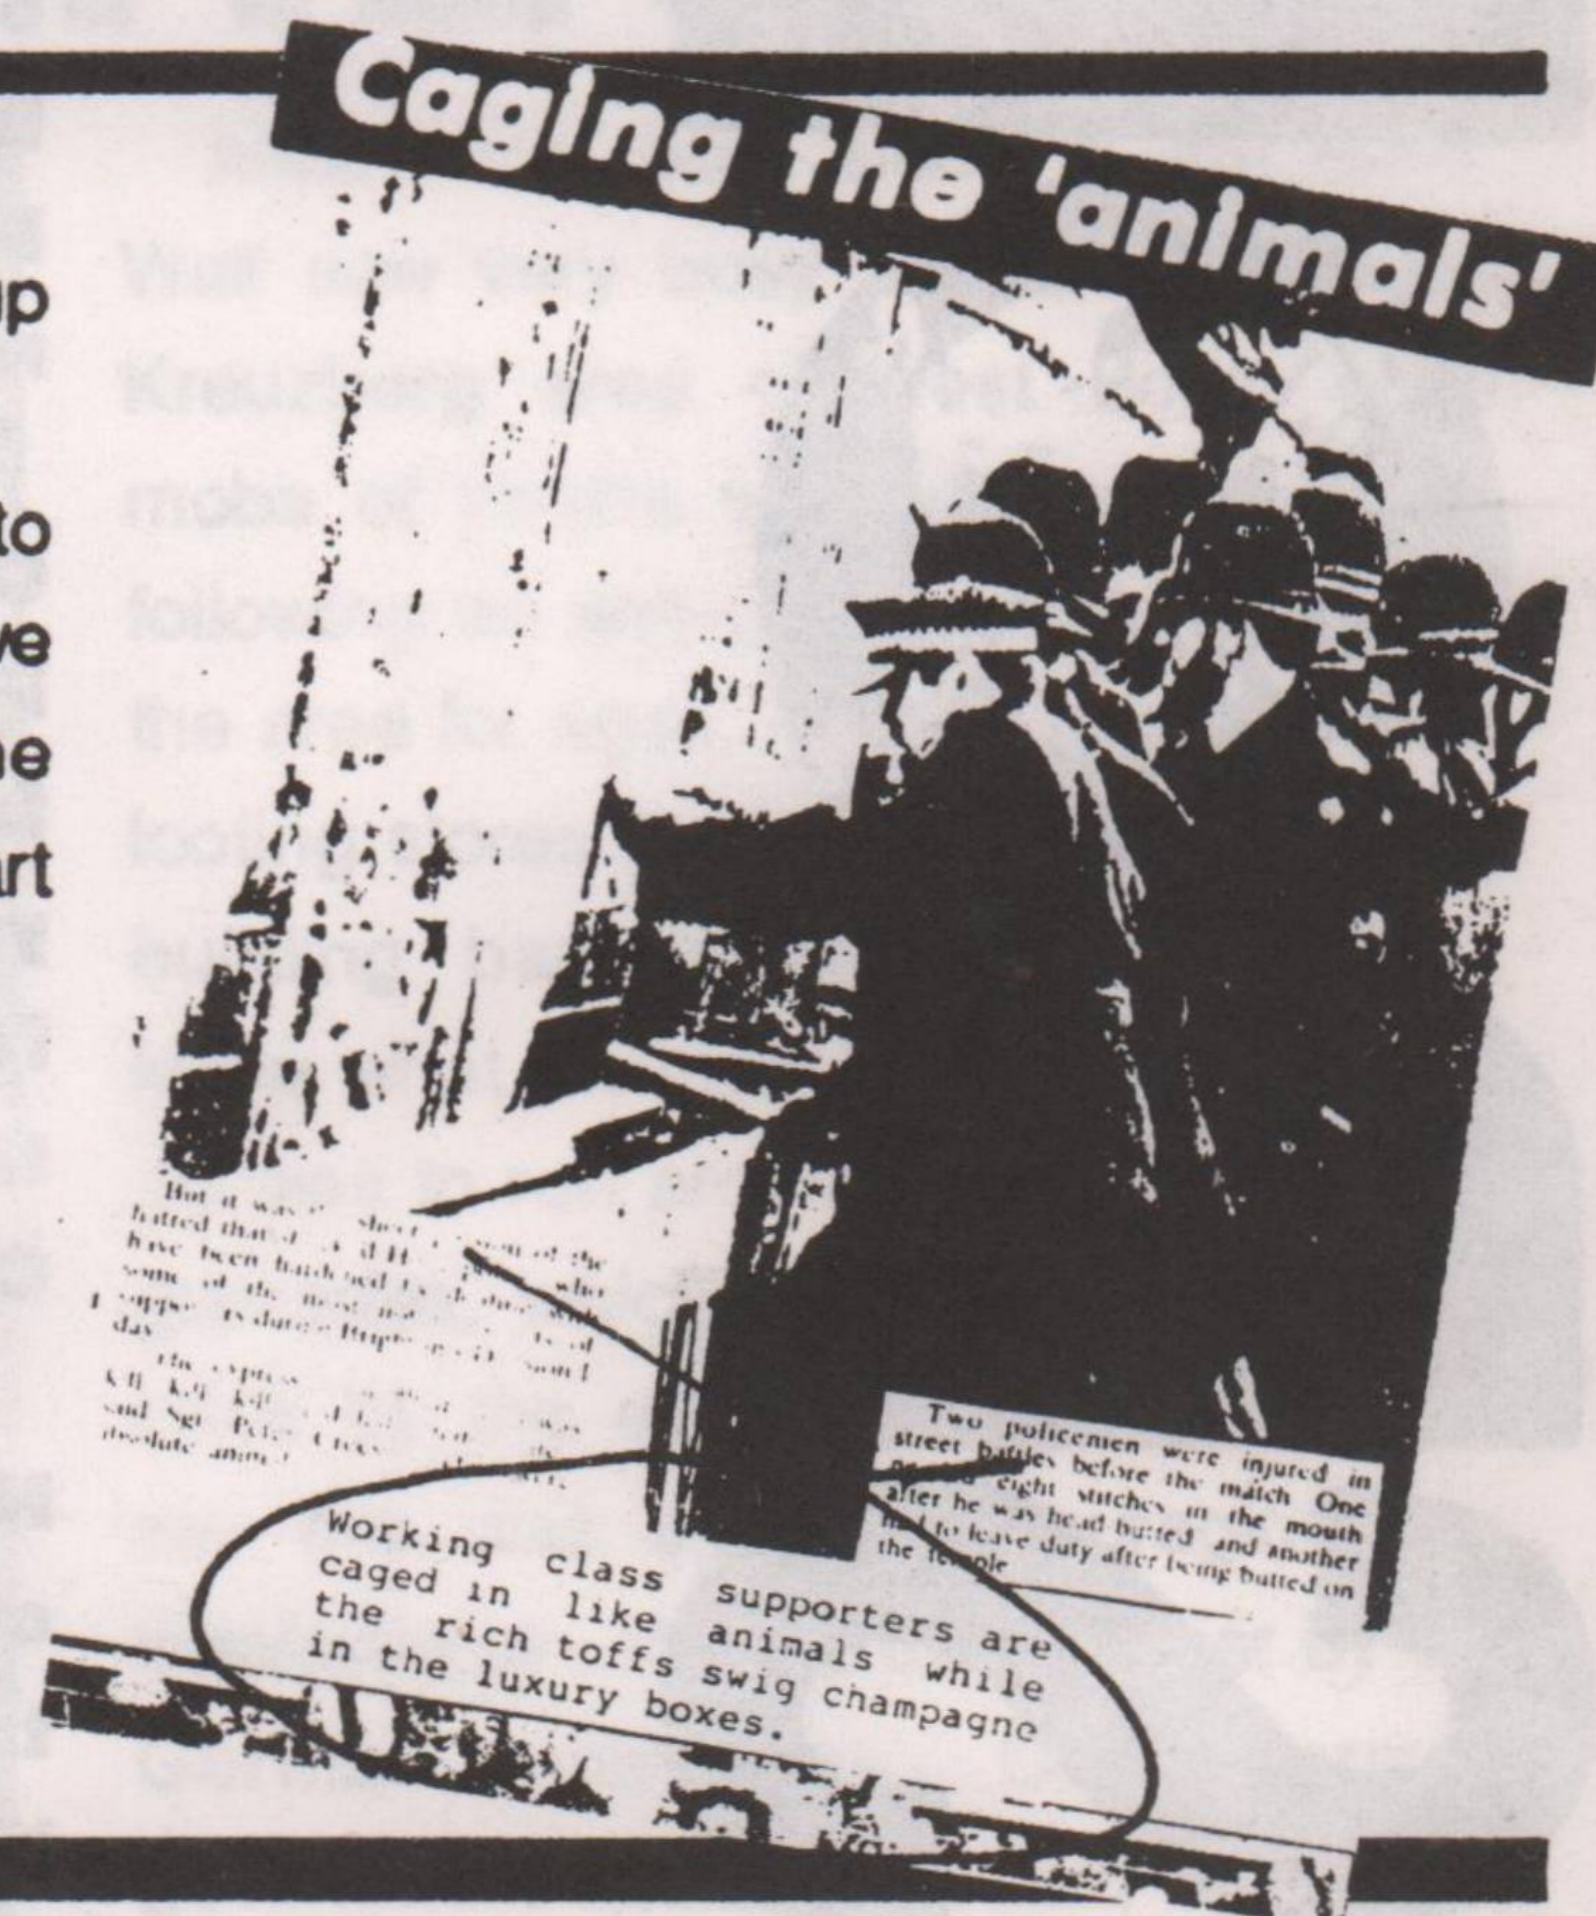

Back in '85, after the Bradford fire disaster CIASS WAR said that as long as football continued to be run by the rich, for profit, disasters would continue regardless of the next kneejerk response, government, police or the directors came up with, in the interests of safety.

In the past they wanted fences, and we've all seen what they can do, now its ID cards, dry moats, or all seater stadiums. Come the next disaster they can't blame the fans for, they'll dream up some other piece of crap.

The only way we'll ever be able to watch OUR GAME in safety, is when we have gotten rid of the scum who run the game, and rule our lives, and start running it OURSELVES.

CLASS WAR AT THE TIME OF BRADFORD

CAGE THE TORIES NOT THE FANS!

According to cops and politicians fans need to be policed, and herded like animals, at football matches, for their "own safety".

Yet it was these very same fans, who at the beginning of the crush, pleaded for the law to open the gates, the same fans who helped injured mates over the fences, only to have the filth push them back over to their deaths. The same fans who ripped down the advertising hordings, to carry off the dying and injured, while the cops looked on. The same fans who gave first aid on the pitch, while the law were nicking people for "threatening behaviour", whilst the toffs in the boxes sipped on their gin and tonics....

Lets not forget it was us, the working class, who payed tribute to the dead, BY THE MILLION. At the kop, at Hillsborough, at every ground in the county. While Thatcher pranced about doing her usual ambulance-chasing routine, and every slimy politician rushed to be photographed in the stands. Lets not forget that the ENTIRE ROYAL FAMILY, chose to be "on holiday" for the remembrance service, very different from when that parasite Mountbatten was topped, and they were falling over themselves to be at the service.

Out of this we must make sure our voices are heard, we've seen the Football Supporters Association at the inquiry, the first time it has ever been listened to. As in the case of the "wildcat" strikes we must organise ourselves, and work together, we must REFUSE to tolerate anymore fences, pits, moats or any other "hare-brained" schemes they dream up in an attempt to "control" us.

We must RELY ON OURSELVES to decide what's best, not on the directors in the boxes, only interested in money. Or the cops only interested in scapegoats and control. Or the politicians only interested in smashing the power that working class people have when we come together, be it at football, on the streets or at work.
