

CLASS WAR

YOU RICH

FUCKING SCUMBAG...

WE'RE GONNA GET YOU.

JOIN THE CLASS WAR SPRING OFFENSIVE AGAINST THE RICH

here we go

While we're being fucked over every minute of our lives the rich bastards who are doing it are swanking it up all around us. Their lifestyles are so different from ours that they might as well be from another fuckin' planet. Just look at the Tatler or Harpers and Queen and see them planning their social year.....

SPRING OFFENSIVE

All this goes on under our fuckin noses, in the same world we live in, side by side with our everyday life. Yet these bastards get away with it scot free....with no aggravation towards them at all. Its like there's an invisible mental barrier which stops us going on the attack and restricts us to purely defensive actions, responding to their attacks.

WELL THESE BAD OLD DAYS ARE GOING TO END..... We need to get in amongst these bastards. No more fuckin about on stupid Leftie marches for us. No more 'Maggie, Maggie, Maggie....Out, out, outs'. No more 'What do we want...when do we want its'. No more 'We demand this, we demand that' bollocks. No more 'Save the GIC, solidarity with Nicaragua, stop the missiles' crap. No more 'Blah, blah, blah, bleat, bleat, bleats'. This kind of shit politics is for those whose opposition to the system is merely a hobby. We dont need special events to work up enthusiasm for a jolly good demo, eh what old chap! Our enemy is all around us everyday of our lives- all we've got to do is start putting the shits up the bastards.

At all the events on the social calendars of the rich they expect to be left in tranquillity to enjoy themselves. We're supposed to suffer in silence, know our places, keep well away from them. After all thats what they give us beer, bingo and the Sun for.

BUT HERE'S SOME NEWS FOR YOU SCUMBAGS.....

FROM NOW ON THESE EVENTS AREN'T GOING TO BE INVITATION ONLY...WE'RE COMING TOO!!

We're going to get in amongst these bastards and make them choke over their picnic hampers.

MILLIONAIRESS Lady Beaverbrook bought the entire business section of a Tristar jumbo jet yesterday so that her dog could travel with her.

The 73-year-old widow of newspaper tycoon Lord Beaverbrook paid about £8,000 to book all seats on the Air Canada plane to Halifax, Nova Scotia.

PARLIAMENT IS THE POLITICAL WING OF THE BRITISH ARMY

We have made a small start but it is already too much for many of our faint hearted anarchists....well, here's bad news for you wankers....we aren't fuckin about and we aren't going away WE AIM TO FINISH THE JOB.

The main symptom of this wasting disease, which is 100% fatal, is a complete paralysis which makes resistance to the police impossible even when they are heavily outnumbered. The paralysis also attacks the brain resulting in its victims patting police horses, chatting to the filth and voluntarily getting themselves arrested in the absurd delusion that this constitutes 'direct action' of some kind. As sufferers of this dread disease were taken away for treatment fellow sufferers made no attempt to pull the back or to attack the vans taking them to the treatment centres.

At the end of the day there was one broken window, no police or stock-brokers put in hospital, and 203 arrests! 203 ARRESTS FOR ONE FUCKIN BROKEN WINDOW!! This was naturally hailed as a great success by the anarchist press, considered to be a far greater triumph than the Oxford Street fiasco the previous year when a mere 48 anarchists were nicked for causing even less damage!

JOIN THE CLASS WAR MOB AT STOP THE CITY ON MARCH 29TH - "IF YOU WANT PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR"

WRECK THE CITY!!

Standing outside the Mansion House at the Stop the City action on Sept. 29th things were looking well good. About 300 anarchists were chanting FUCK OFF as the toe rag of a Lady Lord Mayor was installed. The chances of inflicting some severe damage on the old bill and the rich brat stockbrokers they were protecting were looking very rosy. But then the dreaded 'Upper Heyford disease', signs of which I had diagnosed earlier in the day proved that it was still at epidemic proportions among those present

THE SISTER of Employment Minister Tom King was held hostage with broken glass at her throat yesterday in the court where she sits as a magistrate.

A man leaped over the magistrates' bench, smashed a decanter, grabbed her by the hair and snarled: "Get me out of here."

PRINCESS DIANA'S private secretary, OLIVER EVERETT, is to take part in a pig-sticking contest in India.

On horseback and armed with sharp pointed sticks they chase the squealing creatures and spear them from behind.

CLASS WAR-MACHO?

A lot of people have slagged down Class War for its apparent sexist, macho image. Most of them have not been to any Class War meetings. This leads them to make certain assumptions about the people involved with Class War. Obviously Class War should look at itself and the way it comes across. It is probably true to say that while there is some discussion within Class War about these issues, it has not done enough to examine and clarify its position. A brief paragraph saying "We're sexist but we can't change overnight" is obviously not good enough and although it was not intended as such, it could well be seen as a complacent statement.

Sectarian

While we recognise such things, we feel that much of the criticism directed at Class War is largely based upon sectarianism. Some people have made rigid assumptions about Class War and the people involved with it and are not going to change their minds. This is not an explanation to them but a clarification of what we think about feminism.

We are aware that any real revolutionary discussion and, more importantly, any real revolutionary action includes looking at ourselves as individuals. Looking at the lifestyles we lead and the assumptions that we make about ourselves and other people. This obviously applies to both women and men.

Violence

People's ideas about Class War being sexist and macho is probably also caused by our belief in class violence. We do advocate violence, not just in a defensive capacity but in an offensive capacity. We're not going to wait around until the "right moment" or until some-one picks a fight with us. We're going to fight the class enemy on our own grounds.

Girls in school street battle

By STUART HIGGINS
TEENAGE girls waded in with their handbags and satchels in a street brawl between rival schools yesterday.

An eye-witness said: "They were going for each other hammer and tongs."

Parents and teachers tried to break up the 300-strong mob but the battle ended only when the police arrived in Sommes Avenue, near Castleview School.

Shocked Castleview governor Dorothy Shaw said last night: "It's absolutely deplorable."

"I have been flooded with calls from worried parents and I will be carrying out a full investigation."

PROBATION

UNEMPLOYED Rita James was placed on probation for two years on Tuesday.

James, 49, of Wycliffe House, Spencer Grove, Harold Road, Stoke Newington, pleaded guilty to damaging a pane of glass at DHSS offices in Sylvester Road, Hackney.

She admitted assaulting Pc Daniel Shields at Stoke Newington police station and failing to appear at court on August 10.

Pacifism

The build up the pacifist, feminist image has been lauded and admired not just by the left but to some extent by the media etc.. This is quite natural, as it is easier to deal with them when there is confrontation because there is no threat of violence. Peaceful, direct action, no matter how well organised will always only have a limited effect and in the end is not enough. A possibly powerful and effective group of angry people instantly make themselves a non-threat by taking a pacifist line. They become a nuisance, not a threat. Nothing is going to be handed out to us apart from some pathetic token gesture to shut us up for a while.

We think the view that women are organs of peaceful change is both unrealistic and sexist. This view of women as mystical and peaceful etc., is totally divorced from the lives of ordinary working women. Of course conditioning has instilled women and men with the illusion of different attitudes towards anger and violence. Nevertheless conditioning can be overcome—women can be angry and violent and are. Why should we conform to the passivity expected of us and which has been rammed down our throats for years.

Some women feel they can work more effectively if they organise autonomously and other women are active in mixed groups. Obviously everyone has the right to decide who they want to work with politically. The idea that women are somehow less radical because they work in mixed groups is as ridiculous as saying women should not work separately.

We should be fighting the causes of sexism as well as the obvious symptoms of it. That is not to say that we believe that sexism and all that goes with it will suddenly resolve itself after a revolution. We don't think it should be shoved to one side. How many times have we heard some patronising toad say "Don't worry love, it'll be alright after the revolution." That's not good enough because sexism is part of the whole system that oppresses all of us and so its part of the same fight. There is no room for complacency. Fighting class war is our priority. If we only attack the symptoms, and not the society in which it is so bound up in, they will continue to manifest themselves.

-YOU MUST BE JOKING

Sexism

We think that sexism should be fought every day. Men who force their attentions on women by being rude, insulting, threatening, violent or just persistent should be challenged and dealt with accordingly. It is unacceptable for anyone to force themselves on anybody else. Being approached and chatted up is not necessarily sexist—women do it to. If you don't want to talk to them or don't fancy them you can tell them to get lost. It's when you've made it clear you don't want to talk to them and they persist, that the approach becomes oppressive and sexist. This arrogant and persistent attitude is indicative of the society that we live in, similarly so is pornography. Pornography is an extension of power within sexual relationships. Which is why porn is usually sexist because it is an affirmation of male power ie. male sexual dominance.

This is a point of much discussion, as are the other points that have been raised. This is not an article saying this is what Class War thinks and that's it. Obviously there are a whole range of opinions and arguments and this evident within Class War itself—as in any other group. Women have to push themselves forward more, there should be less complacency etc., These are evident in any mixed political groups, not least within the anarchist movement.

WE ARE CLASS WAR!

The anarchist paper FREEDOM now makes regular attacks on CLASS WAR. According to Freedom we're a bunch of psychopaths and they compare us with Dennis Nilssen, the Muswell Hill butcher. They run a regular anti-CLASS WAR cartoon strip which depicts working class kids with any fight in them as total morons.

Class War - or behaviour like that of the group of anarchists who did their best to wreck the demonstration it is this small minority of anarchists who are the real wankers in the movement.

Their use of abusive language and aggressive behaviour last I squeezed through to the outermost circle of black flags. It was as if the temperature had dropped instantly to zero. A sudden barrage of sound blocked out the speaker's words - 'Shit! Shit! Shit! Shit! Shit! Shit!'

they began throwing bottles and crushed up beer cans and these,

I saw a bottle, hurled from the midst of one group of black flags,

The pacifist paper Peace News calls us 'murderous' 'Obscene' 'vile' and 'disgusting'. We're in good company as they have already denounced the A.L.F. as a 'para-military' organisation and will doubtless soon be grassing them up to salve their pacifist consciences.

The 'Liberator', the paper of the BUAV, alleges that we are 'NF type agitators masquerading as anarchists'. This stems from our presence at the Biorex march in Islington when we chose to take some action with the A.L.F. rather than going to listen to a load of Labour MPs jerking off in Islington town hall as the BUAV bureaucrats wanted.

Biorex Barricades

CLASS WAR fully supports the movement for animal liberation. Many of us are active in Hunt Saboteurs groups and take part in attacks on animal exploitation labs and factories round the country. Some of us got arrested on the Biorex march last November when we handed out a leaflet attacking the hypocrisy of the Labour Party on the animal rights issue and saying that animal liberation would only be achieved by smashing the whole power system set up by the bosses and politicians for their own profit.

Liberator Comment

At the recent day of action against the Islington based Biorex Laboratories, it was clear for all to see that there was a handful of agitators whose sole purpose in attending the demonstration was to disrupt it and confront the police. We totally condemn these agitators and their blatant and deliberate attempts to vandalise our demonstration.

Society has, and always will, employ agent provocateurs in this role. Whether the agitators on the Biorex protest strictly fit this role or not is perhaps unimportant.

Police face fury in siege of fox farm

MOUNTED police were used in charges against 2,000 animal rights protestors outside a fox-breeding farm yesterday.

Five hundred officers threw a cordon around the farm, and protestors were jammed up against barbed-wire fencing.

Snatch squads were sent in as the demonstrators hurled clods of mud at the police line. There were 25 arrests.

The organisers had asked for a peaceful protest, but the appeal was ignored by a group carrying black anarchist flags.

The B.U.A.V. bureaucrats who organised the Biorex march ... i) Tried to stop us handing the leaflets out... ii) Tried to stop us going on the march at all... iii) Asked the police to chuck us off the march - open collaboration with the same police who protect the labs of the animal exploiters and attacked the march outside Biorex later - exactly the same as the stewards on the Oct. 22 C.N.D. march... iv) Told other demonstrators that we were the National Front... v) Tried to stop us getting into the Town Hall for the public meeting. The December issue of their paper, the Liberator, surpassed even this shit by suggesting that we were either the National Front or agents provocateurs paid for by the drug companies!!!! Why do the B.U.A.V. bureaucrats act in this way and come up with these blatant lies? Because they are shit scared of the influence of our ideas. Although the majority of active animal liberationists are anarchists the B.U.A.V. bureaucrats are Labour party members - thus after the Biorex march we had to listen to Labour M.P.s - they never invite any anarchist speakers. They are afraid that the anarchist influence will grow and that they will not be able to use the animal rights movement as a recruiting ground for the Labour party.

They also fear that the violent attacks on animal exploitation establishments will spill over into violent attacks on other parts of this shit society... they fear that that they will not be able to contain or control the anger!!

Police clear anarchists from town hall meeting rally organised by the Islington Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament.

Early on in the meeting a group of young anarchists made a sustained but unsuccessful attempt to disrupt the proceedings by shouting obscenities and blowing whistles.

Members of the audience who tried to persuade them to keep quiet were subjected to foul-mouthed abuse.

But eventually the police had to be called and the anarchists removed.

KINNOCK PELTED

LABOUR leader Neil Kinnock was pelted with cans and bottles as he spoke at Britain's biggest ever 'ban-the-bomb' rally yesterday.

He was the target of a mob of flag-waving anarchists who had surged to the front of a crowd of more than 200,000 in London's Hyde Park. After shouting "Liar, liar" repeatedly, they showered missiles on to the stage from which Mr Kinnock was speaking.

Police pounced on the 100-strong anarchist faction and dragged away youths and girls, three of them bleeding from cut heads.

They then drove the group back into the crowd before forming a three-deep guard on the stage.

ANSWER

Mr Kinnock did not appear to have been hit by any of the missiles and continued his speech unruffled.

Earlier another group of anarchists in studded black leather jackets tried to take over the stage while Liberal MP Paddy Ashdown spoke. Six were arrested.

While he was at his oratory, black flags unfurled in front of him. Half an hour before there had been 18 of them. As he spoke, the number of flags grew to 30 or so, sticks and a shoe were hurled through the air, the police moved in, and four men, that I saw, were dragged out of the crowd. By the time Mr Kinnock was quoting Tennyson on a thousand years of peace, quite an active little riot was in progress.

But earlier I had bought for 10p, a news-sheet called Class War. Plainly it had nothing to do with CND. Under a headline, "Rich Bastards Beware."

So why do we have this unity of the anarchist establishment, the pacifists and the aspiring bureaucrats of the animal liberation movement against us?

BECAUSE THEY'RE SHIT SCARED OF THE SUCCESS WE'RE HAVING.. because we do not water down our class hatred or our commitment to class violence as the only way to get rid of the rich scumbags and politicians who run our lives.....

because we are committed to the building of a fighting, combative, anarchist movement..... because we believe that revolutionary change is still on the agenda unlike the anarchist establishment which happily accepts its status as the 'permanent minority voice of reason'.

Because the pacifists are seeing the collapse of their CND/Peace camps strategy as its impotence becomes obvious to their troops who they have led to the top of the hill and led down again as they did in the 60s. They fear a turn to violent action by those disillusioned with holding hands and singing. Similarly the bureaucrats of the BUAV fear the growing militancy of the animal liberation movement, the increased daring of its attacks on property and confrontations with the police. On the contrary we warmly welcome the increased ferocity of these attacks and will do our best to extend them into all areas of enemy held territory.

POLICE ATTACKS ON ANIMAL LIBERATION MARCHES, AS AT CARSHALTON ABOVE, ARE DESCRIBED AS "UNFORTUNATE" BY THE B.U.A.V.

At the same time approximately 50 people at the front decided to sit down in the road. Mingling amongst these were the agitators. After a while this protest became more aggressive, with insults and taunts were thrown at the police who up until then had handled things quietly.

Added to this BUAV organisers were aware that a small infiltration of National Front type agitators masquerading as Anarchists were present distributing leaflets which were crude, insulting, violent and speciesist.

The atmosphere became more aggressive, and police from behind unfortunately chose to charge in as the tail end of the demo filed past. Scuffles broke out and arrests were made

As CLASS WAR is the fastest growing and only coherent anarchist group around they have to resort to lies and slander against us. They have openly stated that they intend to collaborate with the police to keep us off the big animal liberation march in London on May 12th. They described the police attack on the Biorex march as 'unfortunate'. But they hope that their lies will save them from having to use the police - that they can fool all the other marchers into believing that we are fascists and that the marchers themselves will keep us off the march. They are typical politicians - they think that they can fool and dupe people for their own ends while claiming that their only interest is the good of the movement.

We in CLASS WAR are committed to the struggle for animal liberation and we will treat the B.U.A.V. bureaucrats on May 12th the same way we did the C.N.D. stewards on Oct. 22nd. We are going on that march and no Labour party power builders are going to stop us. In the meantime we ask everyone to expose the lies in the Liberator and to join us on May 12th and other activities beforehand. KEEP THE ANIMAL LIBERATION MOVEMENT FOR ANIMAL LIBERATIONISTS NOT AS VOTING FODDER FOR THE LABOUR PARTY!!
