ANOTHER WAR IS POSSIBLE...
SOCIAL WAR!!!

A-NEWS 2

"Listen! All that we lived here before January, we knew that it is very easy to die by poisoning or starvation. And now that we have taken arms, there is also this possibility. But, there is another one: To die by a bullet while fighting our oppressors. In that case we die with dignity!"

The G8 gather in Evian of France, a little after the war on Iraq. They come to confirm and discuss about the new massacres, the new loots, the new phase of their "antiterrorism" crusade. They, that double up with open hand death all over the world, that in the name of "development" destroy both planet and people, that in the name of "security" make clearing out operations all over the world, leaving hecatombs of victims behind them...

They never stop, neither in "peace" nor "war" conditions, to materialise their inhuman plans. They consider that their palaces can't be affected by rage or death, and there will discuss about the "future of the world", how they continue the more and more inhuman exploitation of the people, how they organise new "antiterrorism" operations because their economy is ill and needs blood to feed, the "insecurity" breeds crisis and depression...

On the other side, there are others... These millions of people who refused in action from the first moment the "end of history", the end of revolts and rebellions. These people who follow the erratical company of the sovereigns where they hold a meeting, organise protests, combine their voices with the millions of oppressed all over the world, clash with the forces of order and death, make revolts like Genova, revenge their dead comrades and keep on fighting...

The hands of G8 are stained with blood. The blood of those who, in the name of democracy, "security" and "antiterrorism", are murdered in Yugoslavia, Afganistan, Iraq, Palestine...everywhere. And they keep on being murdered. Against the G8, as well as those who meet in Salonica in Greece on 19-21 of June, at the E.U. Summit. Let's welcome them as they deserve...

Instead of a prologue...

Last period was characterised by the war on Iraq and the massacre that took place there. Greek society shows, from the first moment it's opposition against this war, and many demos and every kind of protest happened in major cities of Greece. During many of them, furious clashes broke out between the protestors and the riot police, with banks and embassies arsoned, etc...

During the 19-21th day of June, the E.U Summit takes place in Salonica. Many organisations and groups are ready to welcome demonstrators all over the world, and manifestations, gatherings and happenings are planned during these days... Soon there will be details about the anarchists intentions, and the creation of an international black block...

Hope to see you there...

Let's welcome the sovereigns as they deserve...

In front of the anarchists' block, there is a placard where is written "WAR TO THE WAR OF THE SOVEREIGNS".

-The ATM of Emporiki Bank is set on fire in Kipseli (area in the centre of Athens). The fire spreads inside the bank, causing 10,000 euro damages. The "Orgismenoi Epanastates" ("Wrathful Revolutionaries") claims the responsibility by calling to a newspaper, saying: "Against the states and the imperialist outlooks of Bush".

SALONICA

There are three different gatherings with 7.000 people totally. In one of them, there are two different anarchists-antiauthoritarian blocks, one of the AKS 2003 (Antiauthoritarian movement of Salonica) with banners where is written "Capitalism kills during war and peace" and the other with cloth placard where is written "Freedom to Thanos Mihalakelis" (a comrade who was arrested during an anti-war demonstration). The riot police and undercover cops are at both sides of the two blocks. Eggs and firecrackers are thrown to the cops and some journalists.

Thursday, March 20

A protest begins after midnight outside the American embassy in Athens and lasts till the daybreak. At noon, 150-200,000 demonstrators march to the American embassy. Thousands of students participate, others light candles, others sit-in. Demonstrators throw eggs, bottles of water, rocks, woods and paints to the riot police and the patrol wagon that are outside the American embassy. An anarchists-antiauthoritarian block is not created and comrades that participate to the march are spread to different places. A lot of people remain outside the American embassy after the end of the demonstration. More and more people are gathering. At 6:00mm a part of the gathered people throw eggs, bottles, woods and rocks against riot police. The impermanent arrest of a Kurd has as a result Palestinians, Kurds and Iraqis to throw rocks against the riot police and the American embassy. The police throw tear gas against them.

SALONICA

50,000 people march in the centre of the city against the war, the bombardment of Iraq, the brutality that takes place. Thousand of pupils participate and a block is formatted by anarchists and anti-authoritarians.

A luxury car, own by an archbishop is set on fire and a McDonalds restaurant s also attacked. Two people are arrested and badly beaten, by cops and several people are gathered in solidarity outside the police station they are held. Finally, they set free.

Friday, March 21

ATHENS,

More than 150.000 people, participate to an anti-war march, at Athens.

Some demonstrators carry and play drums, other have their faces painted with anti-war slogans. There are also blocks of left and leftist parties, syndicalists and mainly, a lot of pupils.

Anarchists and anti-authoritarians, are gathered at a block, with the cloth placard writing "WAR TO THE WAR OF THE SOVEREIGNS". More than 800 comrades participate at the block, most of them wearing masks and with covered faces.

When the block passes the "Grand Britain" hotel (luxury hotel, at the center of Athens, across the parliament), several comrades attack with stones and red paint to its windows. Some meters away, the parliament is also being attacked, so as the cops who guard it and the journalists who film the march.

Several meters away, the target is the French embassy. The cameras, which are outside the building, are destroyed.

The turn of Italian embassy has come, were stones and Molotov bombs are thrown to the building. The Ministry of Internal Affairs, which is some meters away, is also being attacked by stones and Molotov bombs. Stones are thrown against the Embassy of Portugal.

Before the British Embassy, riot police is trying to move near the anarchist block. Since then and during all the attacks, the block has stayed composed and many comrades did not stop shouting slogans, as "WAR TO THE WAR OF THE SOVEREIGNS", "SOLIDARITY IS THE WEAPON OF THE PEOPLE" and "ANOTHER WAR IS POSSIBLE - SOCIAL WAR, ANTI-STATE WAR" etc.

For some minutes, the anarchists block breaks in two pieces. Then, comrades create a human "chain" from the side of the British Embassy, (from the other side, other blocks were passing by).

Later, when most of comrades are found together again, a co-ordinate attack takes place, against riot police who have approach from both sides. The "rain" of Molotov bombs, to both of the sides of the block, forces the squads of riot police to retreat, lose the anarchists and start throwing tear gases everywhere. People from the block are gathered to small, individual groups who are "lost" among the tens of thousands of demonstrators and move to the U.S. Embassy.

The same time that all these happened, the demonstration is passing the U.S. Embassy and a lot of people throw stones, woods, bottles of water etc, to the building. Some time later, Molotov bombs are added...

Tear gases are thrown from riot police to the demonstrators, who are forced to retreat. Clashes break out, with the participation of tens of hundreds of people. The Hilton hotel, (luxury hotel) is also being attacked.

The fighter planes, which are outside the Museum of War, are under attack by molotov bombs and a building, own by State Television, is also being attacked - so as the cars which are parked outside. The same time, the branch offices of "Nova bank", (which is spotted several kilometers away the museum and the Television building), is set on fire, and is destroyed totally.

After the end of the demonstration and the clashes, several people remained outside the U.S. Embassy protesting against the war. Riot police attacked once more, in order to "clean the area".

Cops bring more than 40 people to the Police Headquarters and finally 23 are arrested. Twelve of them are Iraqis. The next days, more than 80 people are gathered in solidarity outside the courts, demanding the immediate freedom of the prisoners. Finally, all of them are set free, charged with indictable offences.

SALONICA

Riot police uses tear gasses and chemicals. Although the organizers call people to return, a lot of people continue to clash with riot police. Gas, force people to retreat to a near village, called Sternes, where the local police department is being attacked, the Greek flag at its entrance is burned, and several flaming barricades are made.

Xanthi, (city of n Greece)

Thousands of people block the "Voice of America" radio station for an hour, in Dasohori, (near Xanthi). It is the second most powerful range radio station of U.S. in Europe.

Wednesday, April 16

A European Union meeting takes place at Athens. For almost four days, large areas of the city have become "red zone" and people are forbidden to pass. Police, military, "anti - terrorist" and secret agent forces, have spread to all over the entrances of "red zone". Special forces, are even at the roof of several government buildings.

The media and political parties propaganda, (about "winning" for greeks for Cyprus participation at E.U., terrorizing people about the "huge police forces" that "were everywhere" and "knew everything", about "blood that is going to be spilled" etc.) and government measures, (public servants were not working during the meeting), resulted not more than 7.000 people to gather at Sindagma square, (center of Athens) in order to protest against the meeting of E.U.

At 12.30, among them, there are about 800 anarchists, anti - authoritarians and unsubdued youths, have gathered at the place where "Sinelefsi Anarhikon" (Assembly of Anarchists) has called. The same time and several meters away the anarchists, leftists move to riot police lines, in order to pass them and go to "red zone". Leftists are not prepared for battle and they finally retreat after having been heavily gassed. Some minutes later, riot police which are around Syndagma square and guard banks, are being attacked by tens of Molotov bombs. The branch offices of "National Bank" are also being attacked.

Tear gasses and chemicals, force people to retreat. Police plan, was to force with tear gasses and the help of political parties security, to force all the "un - controlled" people to a specific direction, where riot police squads were ready to "act". In spite the fact that these plans was understandable by comrades, and several other people were warned not to retreat to the specific direction, unfortunately at least one hundred people moved (forced by gasses and parties security) to this direction. All those, were chased, a lot of them were arrested, some others entered buildings and escaped by "adventur-
