1934: U.S. General Alleges Fascist Plot
WASHINGTON — Major General Smedley D. Butler, U.S.M.C., retired, caused a sensation [on Nov. 20] by testifying before the House committee investigating un-American activities that he had been approached by a mysterious group to head a march of 500,000 ex-service men on Washington and establish a Fascist régime that would take over the rule of the country. The stormy petrel of the Marine Corps hinted that the backers of this political coup were wealthy Wall Street brokers who were ready to throw $3,000,000 into a fight to oust the President and the New Deal. Representative Samuel Dickstein, chairman of the committee, said that indications were that the general's testimony was correct.

Two sisters raped after getting lost in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — An 11-year-old girl jumped from a car driven by a man who abducted and raped her older sister and was raped by a second man as she tried to flee to safety, police said yesterday.

The girl and her sister, 19, were abducted at gunpoint late Friday at a closed service station where they had stopped to make a phone call to their parents because they were lost, Sgt. Roger Conley said.

The suspect forced his way into the car and ordered the teen-ager to drive away. Minutes later, the younger girl jumped from the car and hid in some bushes. The suspect drove away, raped the elder sister, then released her and drove away in her car.

After the younger girl escaped, she was grabbed by a man who saw her hiding and raped her twice. The rapist, who apparently had no connection to the first assailant, later dropped the girl at the downtown Greyhound bus station.

"I've never seen anything quite like this," Conley said.

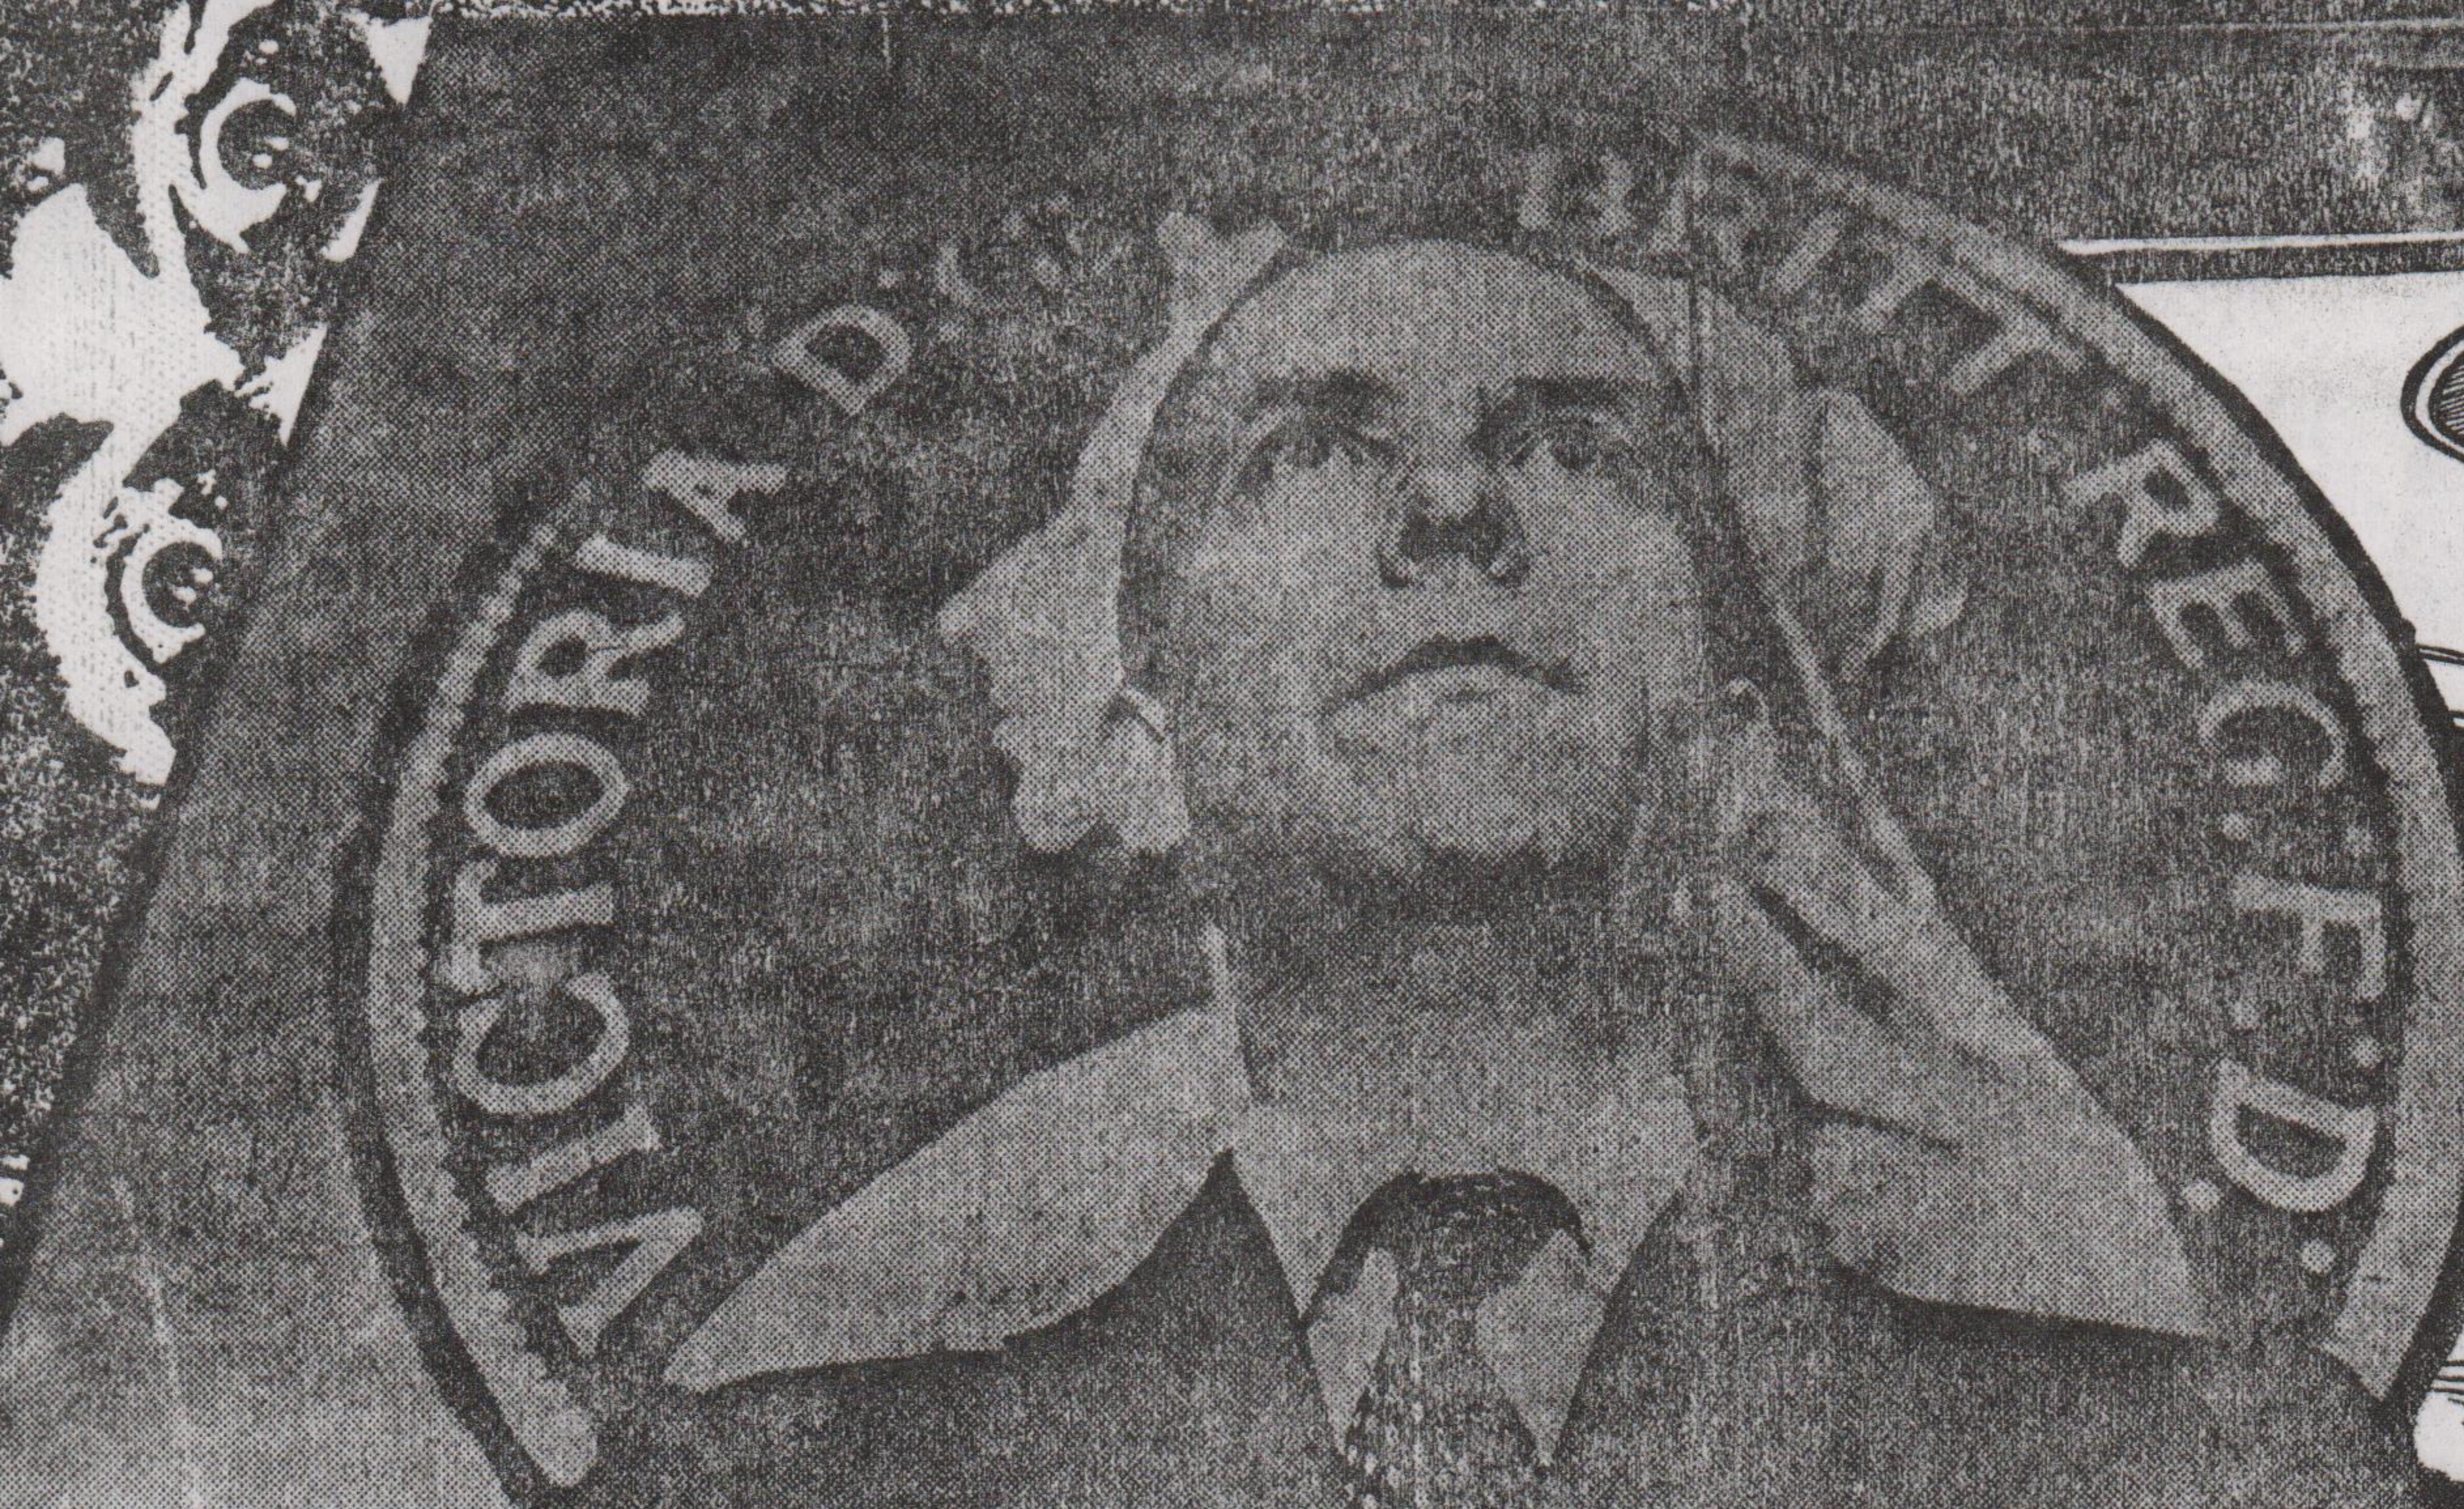

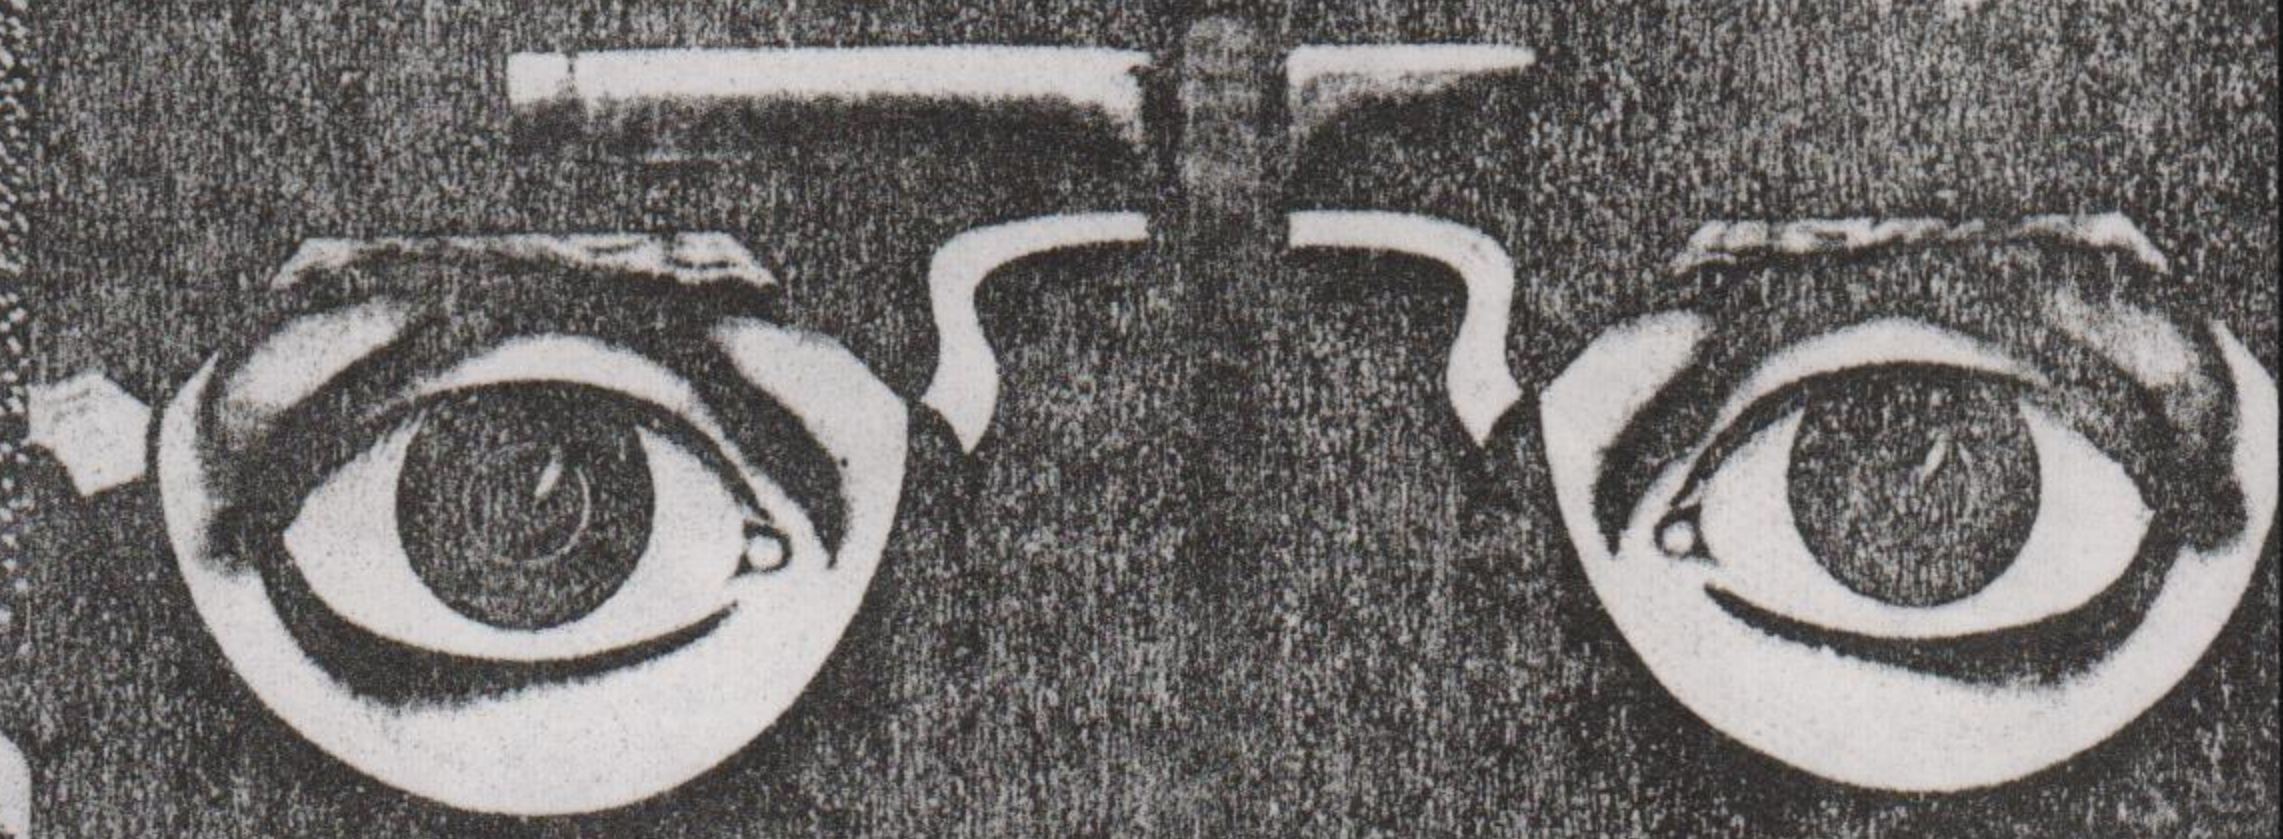

The girl telephoned her parents from the bus station at the same time police were talking to the family. The telephone operator, informed of the situation, broke into the conversation with police to notify the parents the girl was safe.

Mankind Owes To The Child The Best It Has To Give

This is what it says in the 'Declaration of the Rights of the Child', which was adopted unanimously on 20 November 1959 by the General Assembly of the United Nations. In ten principles this declaration lays down the rights to which each child is entitled.

Children Have Rights

- 1 The right to equality, regardless of race, colour, religion, sex or nationality.
- 2 The right to healthy mental and physical development.
- 3 The right to a name and a nationality.
- 4 The right to sufficient food, housing and medical care.
- 5 The right to special care if handicapped.
- 6 The right to love, understanding and care.
- 7 The right to free education, play and recreation.
- 8 The right to immediate aid in the event of disasters and emergencies.
- 9 The right to protection from cruelty, neglect and exploitation.
- 10 The right to protection from persecution and to an upbringing in the spirit of worldwide brotherhood and peace.

maṣāḥere n [MF] 1: the act or an instance of killing a number of usu. helpless or unresisting human beings under circumstances of atrocity or cruelty 2: a cruel or wanton murder 3: a whole

EMPEROR REAGAN SAY'S

“Let us be aware that while they [the Soviets] preach the supremacy of the state, declare its omnipotence over individual man, and predict its eventual domination of all peoples of the earth—they are the focus of evil in the modern world.” (3/8/83)

“We should declare war on North Vietnam . . . We could pave the whole country and put parking strips on it, and still be home by Christmas.” (Fresno Bee, 10/10/65)

PROS & CONS:

REDWOODS

“A tree’s a tree. How many more do you need to look at?” (Sacramento Bee, 3/12/66)

“. . . 115,000 acres of trees in the state park system is a lot to look at. How long can you look?” (Sacramento Bee, 4/28/66)

“I’m a fellow who bleeds every time a tree is cut down.” (Fresno Bee, 4/28/66)

“I don’t believe a tree is a tree and if you’ve seen one you’ve seen them all.” (Sacramento Bee, 9/14/66)

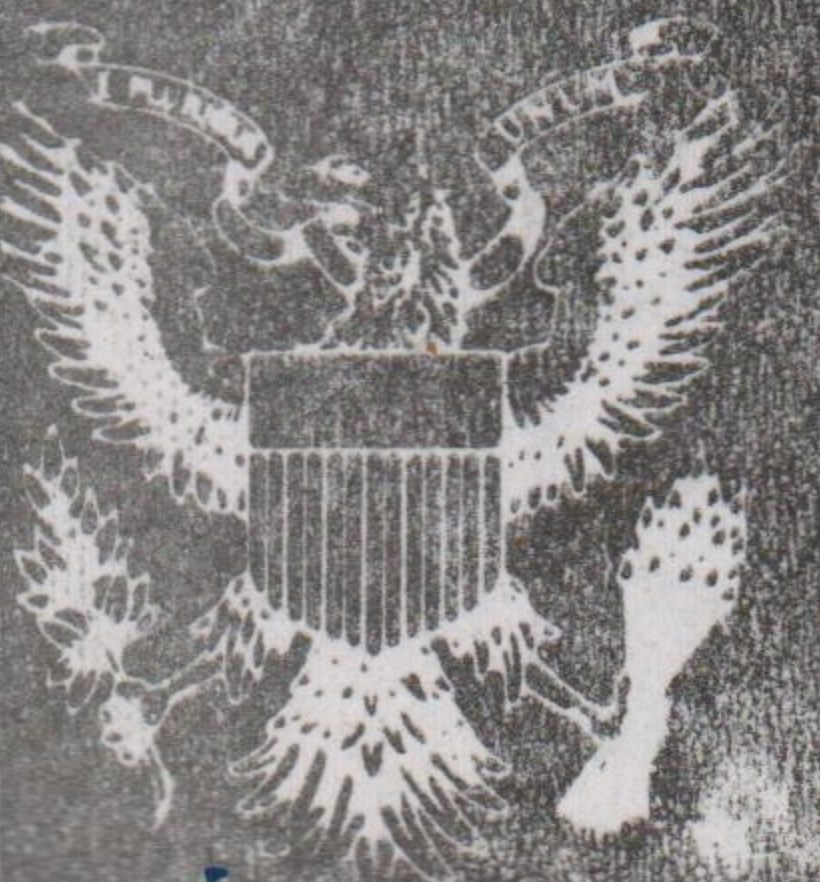

“I just didn’t say it.” (Associated Press, 10/5/66)

“Approximately 80% of our air pollution stems from hydrocarbons released by vegetation, so let’s not go overboard in setting and enforcing tough emission standards from man-made sources.” (Sierra, 9/10/80)
