the ANSWERS lie in YOUR OWN HEAD..!

Individuals Anonymous is a small group of people who are soon going to set up meetings and discussions. From these gatherings we hope to bring up ideas for future activities.

This booklet-type thing is designed to make you think about issues and so you have your own conclusions and not anybody else's.

We soon hope to get more varied contributions for INDIVIDUALS and if anyone wants to add anything to future editions please let us know.

Anarchy not Apathy ♀

AN ARTICAL ABOUT

BORING OLD

POLITICS

HOW ANARCHISTS DIFFER FROM OTHER POLITICAL FACTIONS.

Many people are unclear as to the differences in beliefs held by Anarchist/Libertarians and, say, Marxists and Communists. In this article I hope to make as clear as possible the differences between Anarchists and Communists. So even if you don't agree with Anarchist philosophy, you will at least know what you are disagreeing with: ANARCHY and MARXISM.....

Karl Marx is the main influence to communists around the world. His beliefs (outlined best in "The Communist Manifesto") set the tone for communist thought and action around the world. People who take bits of what Marx said and alter some of them are called "REVISIONISTS". Other philosophies revolve around what M O A, LENIN AND TROTSKY said, they believe that the working class will rise up and overthrow the landowners, bosses, leaders and judiciary and will then have a strict leadership called "THE DICTATORSHIP OF THE PROLETARIAT"!!

This means that the leaders of the revolution will, for a short time, have a period of strict leadership to ensure that the bosses and the army, (called COUNTER REVOLUTIONARIES), will not try to take back power. Once all of the counter revolutionaries have been "dealt with", then this dictatorship will weather away and the age of true communism will begin.

There, that's as unbiased as I can bear it....NOW:

HOW MOST ANARCHISTS DIFFER.

Any violent revolution will result in establishing a new ruling party. VIOLENCE IS POWER. Whether it's the biggest muscles or the biggest missile, it's the same game. Marxists hope to seize power. Anarchists hope to destroy it. Anarchists believe that people are not born evil, but are corrupted by their environment and the power games within it, ... Marxists share the belief in human decency, but they think that they can use power and use control for good purposes without being corrupted and deflected from their goal.

YOU CANNOT FORCE PEOPLE TO BE EQUAL. EQUALITY, PEACE AND FREEDOM WILL HAPPEN WHEN THE PEOPLE WANT IT AND CAN ACHIEVE IT. NOT BECAUSE THE LOCAL WORKERS' UNION TELLS THEM TO CREATE IT!!!

How can you have an equal society, a "classless" society when you have got a bunch of self confessed dictators at the top. If you've got a bunch of subversives organizing revolt amongst the workers then any sort of uprising is going to be sexist, racist, authoritarian, inherently unequal and silly because you have to change the people first. The first step is to change yourself and those around you, start with living life according to YOUR principles.

YOU CAN'T DESTROY THE SYSTEM IMMEDIATELY!*

THIS is called non-violent revolution. This doesn't mean fighting a traditional revolution without weapons, it means subverting the state.....

STARTING WITH YOU!

WOMEN!

4 YOU ARE A PRODUCT OF THE MEDIA;

Paint your face, shave your legs, shave your armpits, wear high shoes that give you blisters, bunions and agonizing pain up and down your legs. Wear tight jeans you can't sit down in, wear a nylon bra which gives you shape, buy highly priced tampons to make rich men richer. Spend. Fashion. Trends. You are trussed like an oven ready chicken into the medias' concept of beauty. Is it beauty when all you can think about is your aching feet, beauty, when you can't rub your eyes for fear of smudging your mascara? Beauty when stubble pokes through your nylon tights. YOU ARE A TOY, A PUPPET. Pre-packed and ready for consumption by the ideal partner. And worst of all, he expects this "beauty" because he is just as much of a sex stereotype as you are.

QUESTION EVERY ANSWER. E.G.-

QUESTION: I walk down the road, some men are digging a hole in the road.

"Hello darling"

"She looks nice"

"Get'em off"

I don't wear high heels. I don't wear make-up. My hair isn't super soft. I am not what they told me to be. BUT I AM STILL LABELED AS A MANS' PLAYTHING. What can I do?

ANSWER: TYPICAL MEN SISTER! Try hurling some of their abuse back at them. Make the first move to cast off their sugar sweet image. Now show the world that you are a strong woman, a person in her own right; not a toy to be played with and insulted by men. !! ? * !! ? *

A womans place is where ever she feels happy. So is a mans. The feminst movement can be as sexist as the male orientated society it is trying to fight. You know the sort of thing "WORKSHOP ON SEXISM WOMEN ONLY". There are many positive sides to the movement, which are obvious. But the negative side is its eliteism. Surely an anti sexist organization that hopes to achieve any thing must operate for men and women.

AS AN ARTICLE IN "FREEDOM" RECENTLY STATED:

“men must be brave enough TO care,
women must care enough To be brave.”

PATRIOTISM . POWER and the PEOPLE.

IT'S ALWAYS SOMEBODY ELSE'S FAULT. You have heard it all before yourself -

"There's no work because of the blacks"

"The Jews have got all the money"

"Bloody Arabs- buying up half of London"

Who built the divisions in the first place, who decided where those barriers should exist. Sure, some borders exist on geographical lines but others don't. Take most of central Europe. Who decides where France ends and Spain begins? Germany Austria? Switzerland? Wales? The border between Ulster and the Irish Republic runs through villages-walk down the road and you are in a different country. Think of the border between East and West Germany. These divisions which keep us apart are purely artificial ones to keep us separate and prevent us from creating some sense of unity, to keep us from trusting the unknown "THEM" on the other side of the fence.

"THE RUSSIANS ARE COMING, THE RUSSIANS ARE COMING!!!"
How many RUSSIANS DO YOU KNOW? AGGRESSIVE BUNCH ARE THEY????
Think also about the NF/BM attempting to claim British racial purity and demanding that we must keep our race, which they say is the best, from mingling with other lesser races. Just look at the history books!! The British race is the most bastardized race in the West. WE have had the Vikings, the Normans, the ROMANS and countless other races coming over here throughout history.

RACIAL PURITY IS A MYTH. ALWAYS HAS BEEN.

There is evidence coming from studies to suggest that human life as we know it originally came from Africa and spread outwards round the world from there. If that is true, then all but the Africans are immigrants.

Just how far back are the NF/BM prepared to go to prove that someone is "British". No-one can guarantee that their family for as long as it has existed, has lived in Britain and as bred exclusively from UK descended people. If you use the counter argument that if you are born here then you are British then blacks, Asians, whites and "coloureds" should all have the same rights and opportunities and start from equal positions.

It is worrying how many self confessed racists like reggae, blues, soul and ska. How can they not see the contradiction! The music and other things: food, philosophy and clothes come as a direct result of culture which is claimed to be a threat to our society's own culture. That culture is purely white, male and capitalist. I welcome any alternative with open arms.

Think-if you can stand it about the royal wedding. The packageing. The neat little production job designed to smother the government and stifle anything everything, I can't work out which Fleet Street journal out-arsed the other can you ???

no NUKES...

A lot of people have heard the environmentalist arguments against nuclear power, and, whilst these are all incredibly important, I think it would be worthwhile to shift the debate to look at the issue in a totally different way; The excuse that nuclear power gives the state to suppress freedoms. Nuclear power makes for a more centralized state—an entirely secret police force, to protect the uranium from theft for bomb manufacture, also have the knack of sealing the public from what is going on inside the power stations. It seems ironic that the police force are primarily there to stop terrorists getting hold of bombs, while the state at the same time is using the fast breeder reactors to increase its nuclear stockpile. The thought of terrorists owning bombs is appalling but the idea of the government owning them is supposed to be reassuring!!*!! It seems the label "terrorist" depends on which side of the fence you're on. I have no illusions about dying a noble death. I don't care whether I die from a trigger happy Reagan's whim or for a glorious revolutionary martyrdom for some violent rebels dream. I want to live.

The actual mechanical process involved in nuclear power is so complex that it can only be truly grasped by a very select few physicists. This ensures that people are kept in the dark. And who are these men answerable to themselves??? The government??? AND THEY WONDER WHY I'M SO WORRIED!!*!

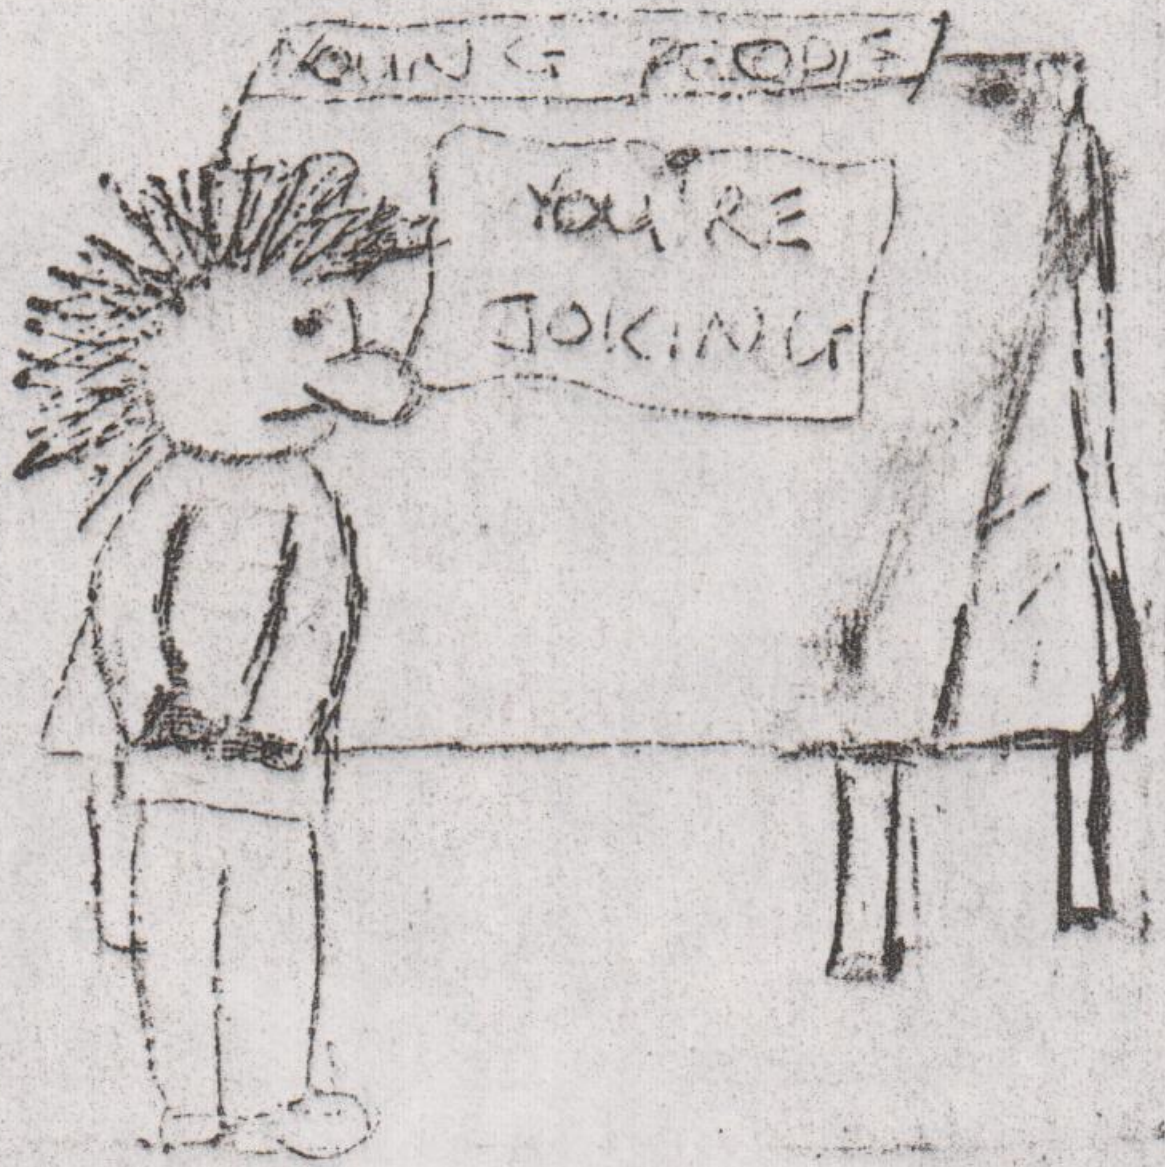

Look at the way alternative energy sources are shown to be impractical. Anything not "nuke", just doesn't work. It is because many, if not all of the "soft energy" alternatives are de-centralized and require no huge hierarchy to run it.

you don't need a police force to protect it. The sources will last as long as the earth does. It is a very low risk. Minimal waste, if any. It is easy to understand and repair. Its resources are not concentrated. SOUNDS GREAT, DOESNT IT?

Then why isn't it being developed? Where is the finance? Nowhere. Why?—Because there's no money in it. A de-centralized power system cannot be owned or controlled by anyone from way-on-high. NO PROFITS and NO POWER GAMES and it breaks down the monopoly of multi-nationals and actually gives the people some say!!!@@@!!

Youth against unemployment

the Y.C.A.U.
(youth campaign against unemployment)

"WHO WANTS TO WORK ANYWAY" I can hear you all say, but some young people find it boring and most people find it hard to live off dole money, so they try to find a job. The trouble is, if you do find a job, how do you go to look respectable???? Anyway, as we all know, jobs are very scarce. so there is an organisation called "youth campaign against unemployment". I was given some info about it so here you have it:

The Peoples March For Jobs last may aroused enormous sympathy and support in every town. In every part of the country, the youth in particular have been savagely hit by the Tories' disastrous policies. The figure for unemployment now is 3½ million. School leavers are facing the prospect of never having a job (not that they'd want the jobs which are going e.g. dead end factory work) as long as the profit system hangs round their necks. Even the Peoples March has faced the cold attitude of the Tories, when, echoing the attitude of the Tories to the hunger marches of the 1930's, the Tory controlled Warrington Council refused to accommodate the march overnight.

I myself, personally, do not want to work for this system as I think it is conforming, and as we all know that conformism is death, but there are some youth who would like to have a job. Our aim is to make the youth realize that there is more to life than working (like overthrowing the government and trying to ban bombs) but if you want to know a bit more about YCAU this is their address:

DESTROY POWER NOT PEOPLE

PEOPLE'S GUIDE TO:

FACISM

Facism is an element in our conditioning. We are not born with fascist elements, but they have still worked their way into our society.

8

The basic origin of racialism comes from the time when blacks were used as slave trade in this country, and it has carried on ever since then.

Facism is rather a different matter, this originates from "state control" and is a must not only to oppress us, but to make us oppress others. Facism, and for that matter racialism, are both connected with patriotism as the union jack is a symbol of oppression, and both of these elements are part of our conditioned outlook on the world which are fed to us by the state, but indirectly.

The only way to wipe out fascist elements is to question everything that you normally accept in everyday life. Think of changes and new possibilities for your lifestyle. Once you have made these changes you should find that the element slowly wipes itself out. The only way we can change anything is to change ourselves first.

A large part of facism within our society is the police force. Why? Because basically because some of them are prejudiced against blacks. It was the state that originally encouraged blacks to immigrate here in the place, but as soon as they start asking for equal rights they want to get rid of them. Isn't it a bit feeble that just the color of a person's skin can determine whether or not they are accepted within society.

DON'T BE PROUD TO BE BRITISH. DON'T BE PROUD TO BE ANY RACE. IT IS JUST A LABEL. REALISE WHAT IT IS AND REJECT IT. CREATE YOUR OWN SYMBOL. SOMETHING POSITIVE. SOMETHING HUMAN!

JOKE:-

THIS THICK LESBIAN, PAKISTANI, TRADE-UNIONIST OVER FROM DUBLIN TAKES HER MOTHER-IN-LAW TO AN INDIAN RESTAURANT:

"WAITER, WAITER," SHE SAYS. "THERE'S A RACIAL STEREOTYPE IN MY SOUP".

RAPE- is society to blame??!

I think we can definately say yes to that one!
Rape is a subject which is looked upon by the media as disgusting and vulgar, but why doesn't the media give coverage and support to feminist groups? Well basically because they would be supporting subversion (in their view) and we all know the pressure that comes from that. The media do have their own political views within each, but what alternatives are they? Just another form of oppression.

Anyway, back to the original subject: why do some men stoop to the level of rape? Well, in some cases because they don't find any enjoyment from normal sex, they can't cope with a loving relationship and turn to rape to try to assert some sort of warped masculinity. Another element in rapists is to try to show their masculine aggression over women. THESE things lead to rape, a trigger in a warped minded person. A way to protest against rape is to boycott films which portray rape as being not so bad. Or for that matter pornographic films; they are both the same.

END.

PLEASE BOYCOTT ROCK CITY AND LET OTHER PEOPLE KNOW WHY.

THE BACK PAGE

The next time you go into a super market, avoid buying Nestle products, well avoid buying anything really. Why? Because nestle sell powdered baby food to third world countries and advertise that their milk is better for the babies than breast milk which is total bullshit. A large majority of third world women are illetterate so they cannot read the instructions for the milk. As a result of this propagander, millions of babies die either of not having enough milk or having too much. Also there is not the adequate sterilizeing equipment.

The main nestle products are coffe, drinking chocolate, chocolate bars you know the usual crap.

Cheers.
