

Wednesday.

Dear Peter,

Many thanks for the D.P.s. and congratulations to all concerned for such a good first issue! It must be a fine feeling to at last have a real press of our own!

I have little news, sorry that you could not come along to Ritai Park, there was a full house - its the subject that draws in I guess. As you will know, Frank was here and I thought he made about the best contribution of the evening, a down to earth one stressing that marriage among working people implies far more than a mere sex relationship. Sorry that I did not hear him in full, the bother of a big meeting in that I am kept on the move most of the time -

Yes, Bill Haden was here although I did not do more than say hello to him, he will be along to the next meeting. Harold hopes to be back in London soon.

Oh yes, I am speaking to the Central London group next Sunday. (Classic Restaurant, next to Classic * Cinema, Baker St. W.1.) on "Myth of the Superman". Do come along (Frank too) if you can, several of our people will be there and, incidentally, I always feel on the defensive in Central London company. So do try -
