

27th March, 1951.

Dear Peter,

No letter from you for three weeks, and we are wondering what has happened, particularly as we didn't get anything for D.A. You'll be getting the current issue - it will probably have arrived before this. D.B. has taken 200 copies for distribution in Merseyside docks, which opens up all kinds of attractive possibilities. Keep your fingers crossed.

Harold Gilbert, whom I think you know, and Jim Diprose have joined us, and another Wobbly is likely to do so next week.

The address of the Germany comrade is:

Edwin Eisenpass,
Bach a/D No. 63,
bei Regensburg, Bavaria.

On looking at the map, I have realised it must be some 200 miles away from you. I hadn't realised the Danube flowed through so much of Germany.

You will have seen something in the papers about the general strike at Barcelona, I expect. Needless to say, it was mainly the work of the CNT.

Excuse more news now,

Every good wish from us all,

p.s. Have you heard anything from Willi? We have heard nothing since he left England.
