TRINITY HALL,
CAMBRIDGE.

Dear Ken,

Thanks for your letter of May 3rd, to which I'm sorry not to have... replied earlier.

I am going to Spain early next month, for about a year, to teach English. Since (i) I have only a short-term job to begin with and will probably have to move elsewhere in Spain in September (ii) I might get molested by the police if they found a syndicalist paper in my possession, I think it would be better if you don't send me "Direct Action".

I have your address, though, and if there are any interesting industrial events on which I can get first-hand information, I will send in a contribution. Also, I'll contact you next summer when (I expect) I'll return.

Fraternally.

Tim Oxtou.
