

and starve or immigrate to employment. Britain was short of labour, Nurses, dustmen, postoffice, railways, buses, so, over they came.

Coloured immigrants now represent one per cent of our population. They are concentrated in working class areas because these are the only areas where they are able to obtain living accomodation.

Over the past months dormant race prejudice has been awakened, people are consciously thinking "these coloureds are pinching our houses and will pinch our jobs if unemployment increases". The British National Party and the National Socialist Party both blatant fascist groups, are too militant for Britain, but many people unconsciously support the 'comparitively moderate' Union Movement, with its 'send the coloureds home', 'United white Europe'.

What is the objection to coloured immigrants? The answer is 97% fear. First and foremost is Housing. "Thousands of Europeans on housing lists - immigrants getting houses?"

In the majority of cases what houses are they getting? Virtually derelict, and houses that cannot be sold to any one else. Overcrowding - what does one do when faced with notices "No Coloureds or Dogs".

Landlords are a parasite whether black, white, green or yellow, lets make no bones about that. As neighbours good or bad is a personal opinion, there can be no blanket opinion. Finally on Housing. How can 1% of the population be responsible for Housing Shortage? Lets face it Housing building is not a priority in present day society. Shortage means big profits and rackets, and thats the theme of 1962
