

4th November, 1963.

Dear Walter Kendall,

We note that you no longer wish to receive DIRECT ACTION. Also that the reason for this was an article attacking a totalitarian dictator, who has been responsible for the jailing and execution of many libertarian comrades, together with the proscription of the Cuban workers' right to free organisation.

Frankly, we might have been a little more impressed by the vehemence of your protest, had you not accepted 11 previous issues without having the courtesy either to bring your subscription up to date—or cancelling it. . . .

Yours fraternally,

pp. Publications Committee.