

INTERNATIONALER ZIVILDienst, DONAUESCHINGEN,
BADEN,
GERMANY.

Sunday 18-2-51.

Dear Ken, Malie & all the group,

I arrived at this place on Friday afternoon after quite a pleasant journey, particularly over the last two or three days of it. I'm not very fond of writing letters but I suppose it is about time I dropped you a line.

The camp is attached to the "Neue Heimat" co-operative housing project which is quite an interesting development but I'll write more about that later, I just haven't got the energy now.

I would particularly like a copy of the last D.A., & an occasional "Industrial Worker" would also be welcome.

I've become a bit out of contact with events generally during the journey, but now I'm settling down I'll get hold of a few newspapers & see if I can make any contribution to D.A.

I think this is about all I can think of to write now, so all the best,

Yours fraternally
Pete.
