...... OCTOBER 29 - be there!

Malcolm Reid, Campaigns Worker

With just four weeks to go there is still much that you and your group can do to help make the day a great success. It's not too late for a stall, to distribute leaflets at work, in your street, outside stations etc, or to put up some posters and/or stickers. Letters to the press and or your Local Authority/MP/MEP asking for their support is very important. For further ideas ring the campaigns team.

On the day

- 12.00: Assemble at Temple Underground Station for march to Trafalgar Square. March will leave around 12.30
- 12.00: pickets will begin outside the MoD in Whitehall and BNFL headquarters, Buckingham Gate, (near Victoria Station). If you would prefer to join these rather than the march ring David Polden (MoD Picket) 071 607 2302 or Nigel Chamberlain (BNFL) on 0768 898 641.
- 1.30: Rally begins in Trafalgar Square.....This will be finished by about 4.00pm although there will be some music organised by Youth CND until around 5.00pm.
- Yorkshire and Humberside CND will be bringing the mock nuclear warhead convoy to London to be part of the march, leaving Leeds on Friday with an overnight stop at Wittering. If you would like to travel with this, ring the Yorkshire office on 0274 730 795.

Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament

Holloway Road London N7 8DQ

Back on the agenda

Martin Jones, CND Vice-Chair

The last few weeks and months have seen the media focusing more and more on nuclear matters. Attention has variously been given to the nuclear ambitions of North Korea, India, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and frankly anyone willing to do a deal with members of an international crime syndicate allegedly smuggling fissile materials out of Russia.

One has to be pleased that the media is once again interested in these issues because it gives us hope that we can also interest them in our practical plans for banning nuclear weapons entirely. However, the cynical might wonder whether this new-found concern with things nuclear was not just part of the softening-up process for the indefinite renewal of the NPT the problem with nukes is these Russian gangsters having 0.2gms of plutonium rather than Britain having a new missile system with a nuclear payload calculated in megatons. With Trident, size apparently does not matter.

But getting the media concerned was always going to be the harder half of the battle. The other half, coverage of our own views, is something we can more easily influence. We have already been doing a lot of work with MPs, MEPs, trade unionists and other public figures while the support of bands like the Levellers and the Stereo MCs should ensure our cause is championed among younger elements too.

A really strong turnout on October 29th would be an ideal start to reminding the politicians and journalists that CND is still around and still as relevant.

Shut Sellafield

Kate Witham and Rachel Julian

Following the huge success of the Sellafield blockade in June, the Shut Sellafield movement is swinging into action again: 11-14 November, join us for a mixed peace camp and actions at Sellfield main gate to mark the twentieth anniversary of Karen Silkwood's death. She worked at a US plutonium plant, discovered the horrific radioactive risks faced by workers, became mysteriously contaminated with plutonium and was killed on her way to meet the Secrecy, propaganda and lies are the trademarks of the nuclear industry; accidents are not admitted, millions are spent on propaganda, links with cancers are denied, radioactive releases are lied about, and the deaths continue...

Join us on 11-14 November, and Act to Stop the Secrecy surrounding Sellafield; bring tents, sleeping bags, banners, bolt cutters, paint, etc.

Meanwhile the thirty nine blockaders from June are facing trials in Whitehaven during October, November and December, charged with wilful obstruction of the highway. Future mixed camps include 28-30 April and 4-7 August.

We need your support; join us, send donations, and spread the word.

November Week of Action

Ilana Cravitz, Press and Information Worker

For a week from Monday 14 November, ITV will be showing a number of programmes with the arms trade as a common theme. There will be news items. CND is working with other organisations on a pack which will be sent to interested people who contact ITV after the programmes.

The week will provide a great opportunity to have stalls and other activities which hook up with the week of action and follow up on the interest and activity generated by October 29.

Building on contacts made for October 29, CND groups could use the November week as an opportunity to get in touch with local Campaign Against Arms Trade (CAAT) and World Development Movement (WDM) groups and hold joint events, since these organisations will also be activating local members at that time.

The Campaigns Team will be putting together November Week of Action Proliferation Packs which include campaign postcards, petitions and charters, leaflets, draft press releases and letters (available from beginning of November, but can be ordered now on the form at the back).

For more information, including some of the programmes ITV will be screening, contact Ilana Cravitz on 071 700 2350.

29 0 CTOBER

We can stop the Nuclear Free-for-all

Malcolm Reid, Campaigns Worker

Our demand for a complete ban on nuclear weapons is both essential and feasible. The threat of a nuclear freefor-all is very real and the plutonium trade stories have created some public awareness that nuclear weapons could still cost us the earth, as you can see from our list of supporters..

Speakers include Janet Bloomfield, Bruce Kent, Adi Roche, Doreen Cameron, MPs Tony Benn, Simon Hughes, Alex Salmond, Andrew Puddephatt (Liberty), Kate Witham and other youth speakers will round off the day. Speakers will be short and broken up by music and performance poetry. Hopefully there will be something for most tastes!

At the rally we will launch our postcards for a nuclear free world campaign. Celebrities and supporters will sign the petition and "post" their UN cards. We will be distributing these to everybody at the rally for posting to the UN before April 1995. There will also be a market beside St Martins-in-the-Fields with stalls from supportive organisations.

Stewards and stickers

1: As well as the posters and leaflets that you can order on page 7, a few 29 October stickers are enclosed. Please use them where you can and contact the office if you need more.

2: If you (or anyone you know), would like to be a steward contact me on 071 607 5013. We will need you from 10.30am until about 5.30pm. Excitement and interest is assured!

Transport

Transport has been arranged from most CND nations and regions. Please ring Malcolm Reid on 071 700 2393 for details.

Supporters of October 29 include:

Greenpeace, Medact, The Levellers, Stereo MCs, John Keane,

Raymond Briggs, Jeremy Hardy, Bill Morris, Juliet Stevenson, Zoë

Wanamaker, the World Disarmament Campaign, John Peel, Andy Kershaw, Benjamin Zephaniah, Atilla the Stockbroker, plus many MPs, Lords and MEPs.

Good luck for the 29th

Bruce Kent and Janet Bloomfield

Once again CND groups have responded magnificently to the appeal for Rally funds. At this stage over £7000 has been raised and money is still coming in.

It will be a big day for us but we need your support to stop the free-forall. See you on 29 October!

Sea Action Duncan Blinkhorn

Sea Action has continued during the year to carry CND's message onto the waters around Britain where ever the Trident programme manifests

In May a group of us swam into the path of the second Trident sub-HMS Victorious- as it set off from VSEL in Barrow. A few days later canoes and inflatables were used to obstruct the sub as it arrived at its submarine base at Faslane.

On the South Coast we are currently investigating the possibility that ships may be used from Portsmouth to transport Trident warheads from Burghfield up to Coulport. We're preparing to back up the successful work of Nukewatch in monitoring convoy movements on land with increased Sea Action activity in the naval bases at Portsmouth and Plymouth.

In October we plan to carry the disarmament message up the Thames to Westminster to draw attention to the Government's hypocriscy on nuclear proliferation and CND's call to abandon British nuclear weapons in the interest of reversing the global spread of nuclear weapons.

Sea Action continues to be an effective way of getting CND's message into the press and of getting up the snout of every Trident submarine that ventures out of VSEL's white elephant shed. See you in London on October 29.

For more information contact Sea Action on 0273-620125.

Has anyone got any wet suits or dry suits which they would be willing to donate to Sea Action. If so, contact Bob Sprocket on 0273-770330/0273-677577.

Leaking from Russia, flooding from the UK

Ilana Cravitz,
Press and information Worker

The news on the nuclear proliferation front is not good: Russian plutonium, open declarations of nuclear weaponhood in Pakistan and failure of the negotiations in Geneva to agree a text on a Comprehensive Test Ban to go to the United Nations this autumn.

Russian nuclear smuggling

In CND's 'Blueprint for a Nuclear Weapon-Free World' we suggest the creation of a fund for disarmament which 'could also be used to improve the economic situation of nuclear industry workers in the former Soviet Union in order to limit the possibility of nuclear materials leaking onto the black market. Once again we were ahead of the game. In the last few weeks substantiated reports of plutonium smuggling out of Russia have terrified the world and led - finally - to international concern about the plutonium economy. Suggestions for tackling the problem, eg. that Europol fledgling Europe-wide intelligence agency) could be used to stop the trade do not go to the heart of the problem. Especially since Europol are, apparently, not especially keen, pointing out that they would need legal instruments and back-up to be effective!

Other suggestions come from The Economist, which advocates centralised storage of all Russian plutonium and highly enriched uranium under armed guard. They also point out that in order to persuade Russia to agree to international or bilateral inspections, Western facilities should be opened up to similar scrutiny. Another excellent suggestion is that plutonium production, including civilian reprocessing, should cease worldwide: 'If putting the West's billion-dollar plutonium industry on hold encourages Russia to see its plutonium problem in the right light, it is worth doing.'

Campaigning with attitude! Youth CND held a die-in outside BNFL's London offices with suitcase bombs on 2 Sepember - making the THORP plutonium production connection. Photo by Eirlys Rhiannon

There is no lack of ideas for ways to tackle the problem of plutonium availability, whether from Russia or THORP. What is missing is the political will to take action before it is too late.

Given the current level of concern, CND members might expect a better than average response from their MPs and local press on the issue. The Blueprint (available FREE from the Holloway Rd office), explains some of the steps that could be taken to stop the trade, both legal and illegal, in nuclear materials and technology. Of course, the scare also provides an ideal opportunity to gain support for October 29th and win new members!

South Asia

The recent announcement by a former prime minister of Pakistan that Pakistan possesses nuclear weapons is unlikely to substantially alter the situation in South Asia. There has been an assumption for many years by the international community that both India and Pakistan have, if not actual nuclear weapons, the capability to assemble them in a very short time. The swift counter-claim that Pakistan does not have any actual nuclear weapons suggests that the information was revealed as a bit of internal politicking.

Pakistan's announcement has brought out the inability of the nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty to deal with the situation - mainly because neither India nor Pakistan have signed! The Pakistani Government has issued a statement demanding that 'the extension of the NPT should coincide with a commitment by the nuclear weapon states to achieve the goal of global nuclear disarmament through a specific and time-bound programme.' Sounds familiar?!

The statement broadly outlines a programme which could achieve nuclear disarmament:

- 1. Full implementation of the START Treaties by the US and Russia.
- 2. The other three recognised nuclear weapon states joining the US and Russia to work out a plan for a general reduction of nuclear weapons.
- 3. Efforts towards completely eliminating all nuclear weapons, to be accompanied by comprehensive safeguards on the nuclear facilities of all countries.

Whilst far from ideal, this is one of the few proposals from a Government for 'going to zero', and as such should be on the table next April as part of the NPT renewal discussions.

From Ireland to Chernobyl - with love

Lionel Trippett

On August 28th a fleet of five ambulances arrived at Fishguard, on the midnight ferry from Ireland.

Welcomed to Wales (where 337 farms are still affected by Chernobyl fall-out) by CND Cymru, the ambulances were en route to Belarus, a gift to the Minsk hospital that is desperately trying to cope with the child victims of Chernobyl.

Serving an area the size of Ireland, the hospital has had until now, only one 40-year-old ambulance.

Renovated and equipped by volunteer ambulance and fire workers from Waterford and Tipperary and paid for by the Chernobyl Children's Project in conjunction with the Irish Department of Health, they are being driven by volunteer drivers who have given up their holidays.

Travelling with them is a team of mechanics who will instruct the hospital on how to service and maintain the vehicles and their equipment.

One of the many children who will benefit from Irish CND's fundraising and support

After the drive across Wales and England, the ambulances were waved off on to the Calais ferry by Dover CND, representing all the CND groups and people who have helped in fundraising for the Project.

If You Go Down To The Coast Today...

Lionel Trippett

Chances are you'll find a derelict submarine bobbing about among the seaweed, sand and sewage.

Up at Rosyth, on the Forth, there are now four dumped nuclear subs (one Polaris and three hunter-killers).

In spite of over thirty years in which to work out what to do with the radioactive remains, the MoD is a bit stuck.

They can't just tow them out to sea and scuttle them. That plan was stopped by the ban on radioactive dumping. Nor can they do what the American are doing: cut them up into chunks and bury them in the desert. No desert. Hmmm... Sound of heads being scratched in Whitehall.

And down at Devonport there are three more - with another half dozen or so due to join them soon.

Meanwhile where the sweet Thames runs softly, the Russians are coming. Rubber-coated, 100 yards long, home to 75 crew, two small loos and 22 torpedoes, it's U-475, a Foxtrot class Soviet sub that has chugged its way across the Baltic to become a tourist attraction.

Or possibly not. Because lurking further upstream is a plucky little Oberon-class British submarine, decks cleared, loos scoured, ready to fight for that same tourist market.

So it's war. Depth charges at dawn? Afternoon injunctions? Tantrums at tea-time? Already hostile press releases have been exchanged.

More shoreline tales will follow from the man with a used condom wrapped round his snorkel.

Defence Estimates Debate

17-18 October 1994

Don't forget to contact your MP about the Statement on the Defence Estimates. Make the points that Trident breaks the Non-Proliferation Treaty and that Article VI of the NPT should be implemented now.

Beyond the Famished Road-

New Policies for Common Security by Alan Simpson MP

Janet Bloomfield

One of the great pleasures of reading Alan's pamphlet is to imagine the reaction of hidebound government Ministers and officials to its proposals. Scrap the Foreign Office and large parts of the Ministry of Defence and replace it with a Ministry of International Development and Common Security! Give up the UK's seat on the UN Security Council and invest in a UN agency devoted to preventative diplomacy and conflict resolution! Britain's defence strategy should be entirely non-nuclear and shifted from its current NATO role! You can almost hear the sherry glasses hitting the floor in Whitehall. Of course the rest of us can welcome it as an inspiring and relevant contribution to the debate on what security really means as we approach the twenty first century. If you only buy one political pamphlet this year make it this one, available priced £2.50 (including postage) from the Mushroom Bookshop, 10-12 Heathcote Street, Nottingham NG1 3AA; 0602-582506.

Peace in Court-Thank you!

After many years as a regular contributor, David Polden has decided to stop producing Peace in Court for Campaign. We will all miss the "P in C" column, but hope to continue covering NVDA activities, so if you have any suggestions for how you would like to see NVDA reported in Campaign, please contact Nicola on 071-700 4524.

Hiroshima Day 95-Make it our day!

Keith Richardson, Campaigns Group

This year we've seen the importance of fiftieth anniversaries to the public and media. Next year it's our turn- the fiftieth anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and a potent symbol of the horrors of nuclear weapons. The anniversary, on Sunday August 6, is a tremendous opportunity to remind people of the immorality of nuclear weapons- and that CND is still here.

Over the years we have developed a huge variety of campaigning activities to mark Hiroshima Day. We must draw upon this valuable resource, and develop new ideas, to make the fiftieth anniversary our day. But if we are to make the most of it we must start planning now.

Draw up your Hiroshima Day strategy. Select the most appropriate events for your group and begin work now.

Local Authorities and Schools

Contact your Council and suggest they have a Hiroshima Remembrance ceremony, eg plant a cherry tree (contact Nuclear Free Local Authorities for ideas on 061-234 3324).

Contact your education authority and individual schools to find out their plans for Hiroshima Day. Suggest twinning with a school in Hiroshima or Nagasaki; suggest events such as shadow painting or that they carry out research about public awareness of Hiroshima (see street poll below); offer speakers; send them a copy of the CND schools Hiroshima information pack (contact Lionel Trippett at CND for further ideas).

Find out about local play schools that might be happening on Hiroshima Day (Sunday) or Nagasaki Day (Wednesday) and suggest they get involved in shadow painting, making paper cranes and boats to float down rivers etc.

Churches

Contact your local churches, diocesan offices, Pax Christi and Justice and Peace groups to see if they plan to hold commemorative services and to remind them of the national remembrance service in Westminster Abbey (contact Christian CND on 0742-588726).

Media

Is anyone in your area doing an article or programme on Hiroshima and any local implications it might have had (eg local servicemen who went to Hiroshima or Nagasaki). Contact the local media to find out and suggest ideas.

Run-up events, May- July

Great Peace March

Can your group tie in with four inter-denominational marches through major cities (including London) from Auschwitz to Hiroshima and

Nagasaki? (Contact Rev Nagase on 071-228 9620.)

Street Poll

How many people know what happened in Hiroshima? Awareness is probably very low. (Contact Keith Richardson on 091-233 0656 for a survey form.)

The Anniversaries and the preceding week

Remember, Hiroshima Day (Sunday), will be good for mass events but not so good for the media while Nagasaki Day (Wednesday) will be the reverse.

You could attempt to get a speaker from the Japanese anti-nuclear movement, invite one of CND's officers, get a debate with local historians on whether or not the bombings ended the war against Japan, etc.

Have a "No More Hiroshimas" fundraising benefit.

Combine a series of activities into a special Hiroshima Remembrance festival.

Have a mass origami day in the week before the anniversaries and launch the boats on Sunday or Wednesday.

Exchange candles with groups in Japan and light them simultaneously or get individuals to put remembrance posters and candles in their window between the two anniversaries.

Get your supporters to sponsor an advert in the local press.

Ask passers-by to pledge their support (and money!) to the elimination of nuclear weapons.

There is no shortage of ideas for marking Hiroshima Day. The important thing is to start planning now.

With Hiroshima Day as the main focus for activites, it is a good time to contact both neighbouring groups-especially those who are flagging- and to contact all the national and local CND members in your area.

We must make the fiftieth anniversary a big event and effectively counter the predictable triumphalist government propaganda.

Do send any other campaigning ideas for Hiroshima Day or the run up to it to Malcolm Reid at CND. They can then be included in a pack to be sent to all groups early next year.

Conference is a coming... come to Conference!

University of London Union (ULU), 2-4 December 1994

Nicola Butler, Conference Organiser

1995 will be a momentous year for CND groups and activists everywhere. HMS Vanguard prepares to go out on its first operational patrol. The future of the Non-Proliferation Treaty is decided in New York. The fiftieth anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima. Will a Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty be achieved? Will the nuclear powers finally start to implement their commitment to complete nuclear disarmament?

With nuclear weapons back with a high profile on the agendas of politicians and the media in 1995, it is critical that CND members work together to demonstrate public opposition to Trident and to create pressure for a nuclear-free world.

What do we do? In a priorities debate and ballot, Conference will decide which campaigns CND will focus on for 1995. The Conference agenda has now been decided, but there is still time for groups to submit emergency resolutions by Monday 28 November, 5pm. Conference delegates will also have the opportunity to ask questions about CND's work in the past year to the Treasurer and CND's elected officers. Elections will then be held for the Chair and Vice-Chairs for 1995.

How do we do it? Conference isn't just about debates and elections. Workshop sessions will provide information, ideas and support for local campaigners whether they are individual members or group activists. Workshops will also provide a forum for ideas to be exchanged: how to involve new members; how to revitalize existing groups; how to target lobbying and media work; and how to get into schools. This is an opportunity to get practical ideas and find out what campaigns have been working well in different parts of the country.

Above all else, Conference provides an opportunity to meet campaigners from all over the country, from Faslane peace campers to the Exeter peace shop, from Sea Action to the Lobby letter writing network. Find out their news and how to take part at stalls and meetings throughout Conference, not to mention the socials on Friday and Saturday night.

Registration Special Offer

This year, we've managed to cut the registration fee to £24 per delegate (£5 unwaged). And that's not all. There is a discount for groups sending more than one delegate- the more delegates you send, the cheaper it gets. Use the form enclosed with this edition of Campaign to register group delegates. Contact Nicola Butler on 071-700 4524 for individual registration forms.

Please remember: the deadline for registration with accommodation is Friday 4 November, without accommodation the deadline is Friday 18 November.
