Anarchist Essays

By Charlotte Wilson

Edited by Nicolas Walter

Freedom Press dates from the first issue of Freedom in September 1886. The chief founder and first editor was Charlotte Wilson, who had been writing about anarchism in the socialist press since 1884, and led an anarchist faction in the Fabian Society. The most prominent contributor, Peter Kropotkin, had been released from prison in France in January 1886, and invited to London by Wilson and her group. Charlotte Wilson was, for a decade, the best-known native anarchist in Britain, but her life and work have been generally neglected. This volume includes the most important of her writings, with a biography and notes by the editor.

96 pages, £5.95.

Social Policy: An anarchist response

By Colin Ward

Colin Ward was visiting Centenary Professor in the Department of Social Policy at the London School of Economics during the academic year 1995-96. His lectures on the history of informal housing movements were very popular among LSE students. This volume, first published by the LSE and now kept in print by Freedom Press, includes all the talks he gave during his professorship.

96 pages, £5.

Welcome to the 19th annual Anarchist Bookfair!

In the main hall and the hallways, you'll find over 30 anarchist groups and publishers, selling (and giving away) everything from new and secondhand books, to pamphlets, mags, tracts and rants, to T-shirts, videos, tapes, CDs, comic books and postcards.

In the rooms around the Conway Hall complex, you'll find this is also a day of events and meetings. From activism to academic research, sex to poetry, the internet to art, you'll find an astonishing variety of anarchists and anarchism.

LONDON SOCIAL CENTRE

INTRODUCTORY MEETING

London's anarchist scene is in dire need of a self-managed building for organising and socialising in! Following an initial meeting at the MayDay 2000 conference, we are looking to set up a venue (named Emma's) for gigs, films and meetings with vegan food and bar. To achieve this, we aim to establish a membership structure along the lines of a working (wo)men's club, a co-operative consortium or possibly a charity, to build support, interest and finance. We see Emma's as following the examples of Bradford's 1-in-12 or Giros in Belfast. The workshop will look at practical solutions and would welcome anyone interested.

3-4pm

STEWART HOME SOCIETY

Join initiates of the Stewart Home Society as they celebrate their inaugural millennial

PUBLIC MEETING/DEBATE WITH CLASS WAR

6-7pm

ANARCHIST INFORMATION NETWORK

Annual discussion/business meeting for this group of non-aligned anarchists.

ARTISTS' ROOM

11am-12pm

NO BORDERS!

Meeting to discuss the issues and possible actions, including direct action against immigration control and deportations, as well as practical support for asylum seekers, refugees and others around the country.

4-5pm

INTRODUCTION TO ANARCHISM PAMPHLET MEETING

We want to produce a short, easily readable, pamphlet, relevant to working class people today, on what we mean by anarchism. The idea would be to get a small group to edit the pamphlet, with a much larger/wider group contributing to its writing etc. If you want to play a part – whether it's writing, editing, fundraising or just distribution – come to our meeting.

TOWER ROOM 1

12-1pm ANARCHISTS AND THE INFORMATION SOCIETY

DISCUSSION WITH ANARCHIST LIBRARIANS
Information shapes our lives. Information production and provision is shaped and determined by the state and capitalism. What are the implications for anarchists, and for those who work in the information economy? Do new technologies like digital radio and the internet provide anarchists with a weapon for social revolution? What are anarchist priorities in the information society?

1-2pm REBEL WORDS

JOHN MOORE & LEIGH STARCROSS
Anarchist writers, John Moore and Leigh Starcross, will read from their latest work. Known primarily for his highly-charged poetic short fiction, John's recent experimental texts explode ideological thinking and develop lucid insurrectionary perspectives. Leigh's writing explores the nature and condition of the anarchist self and the shaping of free activity.

2-3pm WOT IS ANARCHY?

LONDON ANARCHIST FORUM
The well-known anarchist debating group invites individuals to express and discuss what anarchism means for them. Is a general definition possible? Or does anarchism mean something different for everyone? Does it matter?

3-4pm VIRTUAL REVOLUTION

A meeting to set up a virtual revolution site on the internet. Want to assassinate your boss, burn down your school or bring global capitalism to its knees? Just send your virtual action details to Virtual Revolution. We can link in with other virtual actions and build for a new world. Reality is only a click away!

4-5pm SIMON JONES MEMORIAL CAMPAIGN

Simon Jones was killed over two years ago on his first day at work at a Shoreham dock – killed by casualisation. Since then, a campaign of direct action demanding justice for Simon has exposed government support for deadly working conditions, and won significant victories. Video and discussion about direct action and fighting for workers' rights.

5-6pm MUMIA MUST LIVE

Radical black journalist and activist, Mumia Abu-Jamal, has been on death row since 1982 on totally fabricated charges.

6-7pm ZAPATISTA SOLIDARITY MEETING

The Zapatista revolt has inspired resistance against neoliberal globalisation throughout the world. Local groups have held public meetings, promoted delegations to Chiapas, organized pickets of the Mexican Embassy, & run email list-serves (kebele@marsbard.com, chiapaslink@yahoo.com). This meeting will discuss recent developments in Chiapas and ideas for extending the solidarity network here.

DONATIONS NEEDED!

This year's Bookfair has cost around £3,700* to put on. This covers room hire, printing, postage, the crèche etc. Stall charges and sales of food, drink etc, raise a fair bit of this, but we rely on your donations to break even.

Look out for our collectors and dig deep!
