OUR ADDRESS IS:-

P.O. BOX 217

SHEFFIELD

THE SHEFFIELD ANARCHIST is produced by the Sheffield Anarchists as an aid to the wider dissemination of the libertarian viewpoint in the Sheffield area and further abroad.

Vol.1 No.1 was published in 1891, and it was intended to appear fortnightly, but pressure from the law, the police and authority in general, and christians (displayin -g yet again their capacity for hatred and intolerance) forced it to close down after only ten issues. It was restarted in the mid 1970's, and has appeared at varying intervals since, depending on the level of interest and activity amongst anarchists in Sheffield.

The paper has no fixed price, a continuation of the original policy of the founders so that the want of a few pence shall not prevent the sharing of ideas. We pay ourselves no wages, under any guise, have no expense accounts and support no other enterprise (and are supported by no other enterprise- sorry, but we've had no Moscow gold to keep us going). All money received for the paper goes towards ensuring that we can print more copies of the next issue, and those who give generously ensure that copies can be available for those who really cannot afford to give anything.

Contributions of an anarchist nature are always welcome, be they articles, poems, letters or graphics - we exercise no editorial control or censorship over contributions, and inclusion is subject only to available space.

Articles, etc published in "The Sheffield Anarchist" are expressing the viewpoint of the individual author/poet/graphicist and do not necessarily reflect the views of all the people involved in producing the paper, nor indeed the views of all anarchists in Sheffield.

MORE GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE SHEFFIELD ANARCHISTS

We are a very loose conglomeration of people, having in common that we are anarchists and live in Sheffield. We are not a formal group, and have no membership cards or anything like that, although we do try to meet together whenever possible. Our diversity acts as a safe-guard against 'leaders', police-infiltrators, etc and ensures that space is offered to Anarchists of different opinions, for instance; pacifists and non-pacifists. The looseness of our grouping ensures that we do not become dogmatic and examine all avenues of anarchism. Also, as we are not a formal organisation as such we do not suffer from the same diseases that seem to afflict these structures i.e. bureaucracy, intimidation of the less verbally articulate, oppression of minorities, hierarchy, etc, etc.

Home news

Due to the intensity of the class war presently raging in Britain, and particularly in this area, it would be impossible for us to cover all the actions and events connected with the pit dispute that have taken place in the last couple of months even if we wanted to, simply for lack of space. The events reported below happened within only a few hours of each other during the morning of Monday November the 12th.

DINNINGTON : 2 Molotov cocktails were hurled at the police station forcing the police to flee. Shops were looted in Church Lane and Loughton Rd. A car was overturned and over 20 street lamps and many road signs were torn down to form a barricade. Later, the village was sealed off by police as 18 scabs were escorted into work. At one stage large metal bolts were hurled at police lines, badly injuring 1 copper, 5 others were also hurt.

MALTBY : Stones were hurled at the windows of the police station. Lampposts were torn down to form a barricade across Tickhill Rd and a nearby garage was ransacked. Wire was stretched across the road at windscreen level in an attempt to ambush police.

DODWORTH : Police station attacked. Police stoned at Lundwood. A length of steel wire was stretched across the road leading to the pit. 2 coppers were badly hurt in clashes, 1 had a broken leg, the other headed a brick. After police horses charged the crowd a crate of petrol bombs was found.

BRAMPTON BIERLOW : Stones and bottles were hurled at the police. The old Co-op building was torn apart to form a burning barricade.

BARROW : Clashes with police. Trees were felled to block roads.

REDBROOK : Scabs under siege in workmen's cabin as pickets pelt them with homemade spears, bricks and wood.

DARFIELD MAIN : Pit stores looted.

DEARNE VALLEY : Attempts made to break into NCB store as pickets search for pickaxe handles to use as weapons. Electric pylon pulled down blacking out the village of Middlecliffe.

SOUTH KIRBY : 500 pickets broke into NCB offices and stole keys to earth-moving machinery, this was used to block roads. After the keys were taken the offices were set on fire. Blazing barricades were also built.

CORTONWOOD : Police horses charged a crowd of about 100 pickets.

ROYSTON & KINSLEY : Management received telephone calls at 2am telling them to stay inside the offices. Shortly after pickets ran through the yards causing a large amount of damage.

South Yorkshire police have been forced to admit that they have had an unauthorized stockpile of C.S. gas for 6 years, and that 30 pigs are trained in its use. The C.S. gas is fired from the same cartridges that fire plastic bullets which the police have supposed to have got rid of. Defending the stockpile the Chief Constable said that "Before C.S. gas can be issued it has to have my personal authority." - Very reassuring Mr Wright.

South Yorkshire County Council has been accused of betraying the miners by agreeing to finance police spending in the pit dispute to the tune of £1,189,004. But Labour leader Roy Thwaites vehemently denied the accusation (well he would wouldn't he), he said that "not one penny extra" would be paid

Issue - dodger of the month award goes to Council leader David Blunkett. At a miners rally at the City Hall on November the 11th he managed to address the meeting with hardly a mention of the miners.

Last weekend (the 8th & 9th of December) a gang of shitheads decided to go gay bashing at the 'Sin Bin' nightclub. However, unfortunately for the macho bores, they got trounced themselves. Fight Back.

4) Fuse the whole school. Take a plug, cut the wire and join red & black or blue & brown, insulate well with tape, plug in and bang. Another method is to put a coin between the plug terminals, so that it is touching all 3, and plug in. Rubber or leather gloves are a good precaution.

-A PRISON OF MEASURED TIME

Sheffield Anarchists made the headlines (press t.v. & radio) yet again when we distributed 1100 copies of 'The School Stoppers Handbook' to schools throughout the South Yorkshire and North Derbyshire area. What a joke most of the press reports were, but what can you expect? The 'Mail on Sunday' even sent one of their top bloodhounds up to Sheffield to sniff out a story. We heard Adrian Lithgoe was on his way before he even reached Sheffield, but despite flashing money around like it had just been abolished and also pretending to be from 'New Society' (snob appeal) he failed to make contact with us. No doubt the Mail were not pleased at having to pay Lithgoe's expenses for no return, especially when he stayed at the 'Hallam Towers' Hotel (room 905). Sorry Lithgoe, but we've heard too many bad stories about you and you don't fit in with our press policy.

Joan Barton (Deputy Chairperson of the Education Committee) ended up playing council spokesperson; what a laugh she was on 'Look North'. As for the "danger" angle, which press and politicians alike tried to latch onto. The best thing they could come up with were vague references to our suggestions on fusing the school (reproduced in full below). What hypocrites these people are, they insist on adopting a patronising 'Blue Peter' mentality to anyone at school ("Don't pour paint-stripper over your teachers car unless a responsible adult is present".) and yet they are happy to be part of a system that murders 16 year olds in factories. You're a child until they can use your labour, they'll even have you fighting in Ireland at 17. And these same caring people are quite happy to run the risk of mowing kids down on the roads, just so they can sit in an expensive car.

But the School Stoppers Handbook is dangerous to parasites like Joan Barton, it is a threat to their positions of power and privilege. The Barton family are the very epitome of political whoredom, Joan the moan and husband Roger are right at the top of the town hall hierarchy that makes a living at our expense. And Roger, of whom it is said that no crowd is too small for him to address, has ambition way beyond Sheffield Town Hall. Even son Scott is being groomed to continue the Barton dynasty. Better wise up Scott because professional politicians don't have a future, one day they're all going to be looking for a job.

Despite the views of parents, politicians, press and police (which are the biggest complaint we could hope for) the School Stoppers Handbook has been so well received in the areas schools that we are considering another print run. So quake in your boots arseholes!

REVIEWS

Nutcases outside the school gates

THE Sheffield Anarchists who are urging children to sabotage their schools, and act against teachers in ways that are potentially lethal, ought to be prosecuted, if only in order that they may be identified publicly.

Their sick minds only have to influence one other sick mind for dangerous and unpleasant consequences to follow. If that one person is influenced into an act of sabotage, it does not matter that the vast majority will recognise the anarchists for the fools that they are.

That said, it cannot be right to make martyrs out of idiots, and although the firmest rebuke and disapproval are called for, ridicule may be the best weapon with which to reduce these childish trouble-makers to order and silence. But children need protecting from nutcases.

Anarchists probed

By Clark Herron

A BOOKLET being distributed by Sheffield Anarchists to schoolchildren, urging them to attack their schools and teachers, has been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

The move comes after the city education department passed The School Stopper's Handbook to South Yorkshire Police.

The Star revealed this week that the booklet advertised "91 Ways to Sabotage Your School" - some of them dangerous to the pupils themselves, to staff, and even to the public.

Superintendent Terry Swann said on the latest development: "We are concerned about the booklet and its contents. Some of the ideas are dangerous to the kids, such as tampering with the electrics. The whole thing is highly irresponsible."

Schools chief, Councillor

Joan Barton, commented: "Some of the stuff is laughable, but a lot encourages some very dangerous practices."

The booklet has been handed out outside school gates, in some cases to children as young as 11. It tells them school is "like prison" and "kills the mind," and is society's way of forcing them into its system.

Its recommendations include fusing electrics, putting teachers on trial, tampering with the safety of their cars, making hoax bomb and fire calls, and bursting drains and flooding schools.

The Department of Public Prosecutions is being asked what offences, if any, the booklet's publishers and distributors have committed.

'Sabotage' propaganda hits schools

AN ANARCHIST booklet being distributed among children, entitled Ninety-One Ways to Sabotage Your School, has been referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

The book, which is the work of a group called Sheffield Anarchists, has been handed out at school gates to children as young as 11.

It recommends fusing electrics, putting teachers on trial, tampering with their cars, and making hoax bomb and fire calls.

Joan Barton, education committee deputy chairman, said yesterday: "I have read it and I am horrified. Some of the things recommended are very dangerous and rather stupid."

"I honestly think the majority of pupils will see it as rather childish, but there must be a minority who could be influenced and could put themselves and others in danger if they tried to follow any of the suggestions."

An education spokesman said: "Sheffield Anarchists were an identifiable group known to the police."

"This booklet is one of the nastiest pieces of propaganda I've seen."

Anarchists call for pupil sabotage

ANARCHISTS are distributing leaflets outside Sheffield schools encouraging pupils to acts of disobedience.

Pupils are being offered a booklet entitled Ninety-one Ways to Sabotage Your School by members of Sheffield Anarchists.

Sheffield City Council education committee chairman Councillor Mike Bower said: "If they are handing this out to 11-year-olds, most of those receiving it will have a mental age well in advance of those handing it out, so they are not likely to take much notice."

But grandmother Sylvia Rowland was disturbed to find her 11-year-old grandson had been given the booklet outside All Saints Comprehensive School on Granville Road. "My whole family is upset over it," she said.

CLASSROOM GUIDE TO TERROR

A COURSE in classroom terrorism circulated to a city's schoolchildren has been sent to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

A booklet - handed by anarchists to pupils as young as 11 - urges riot, attacks on teachers and sabotage of schools.

The School Stoppers Handbook lists "91 ways to sabotage your school". Police were alerted after copies were distributed at school gates in Sheffield and Rotherham - one of them to an 11-year-old boy at Sheffield's All Saints RC Comprehensive.

Compiled by a group called Sheffield Anarchists, the booklet also urges a "fight-back against the killing of the mind."

Terror textbook for schoolkids

POLICE have seized a textbook of terror being handed out to children at their school gates.

The privately-produced booklets list 91 ways the youngsters can sabotage their schools and attack teachers.

Some of the bizarre ideas include LOOSENING the teachers' car wheels, FUSING engines, BLOCKING tyres, HOAX bomb and fire calls.

The booklet, called "The School Stoppers Handbook", has been handed out at schools the underground group "Sheffield Anarchists" whose name appears in the booklet.

Superintendent Terry Swann said: "Some things suggested are straight out of the Bash Street Kids-like putting a film over toilet seats and taking screws out of doors-but other

Deadly tips in a classroom 'comic'

A BOOKLET aimed at provoking classroom anarchy contains tips which could kill.

the work of a group who call themselves 1984. South Yorkshire police, who describe it as an obscenity, have sent a copy to the Director of Public Prosecutions and are hunting its printers and distributors.

LETTERS

Dear Sheffield Anarchists,

Could you please send me 40 more copies of your School Stoppers Handbook. And could you also tell me whereabouts in Sheffield you are stationed. I think your book is great, somebody from Clowne (Chesterfield) gave me ten books and I sold them in the same day. How do I get the money to you in Sheffield?

Yours Faithfully

S.H.

Thank You

Dear Sir,

I enclose a £1 note, please could you send a copy of your leaflet "91 ways to sabotage your school" if possible.

I would also be interested to receive any information about your group especially related to present or alternative education methods.

yours sincerely

A.P.

Dear Sheffield @s,

I'd be very grateful if you could send me a copy of 'School Stoppers Handbook' as mentioned in the latest issue of 'Freedom'.

I am enclosing a donation towards further printing costs.

Thanks

R

Dear comrade,

Could you send me a copy of your School Stoppers Handbook, please? I've included a little something to cover the costs and maybe help fight the class war.

Thanks

Bruce

Friends,

Could you send me a copy of the School Stoppers Handbook. From the description in 'Freedom' it sounded useful and interesting.

I've enclosed a donation towards further printing.

Dear Sir,

Please send me 2 copies of The School Stoppers Handbook and any other pieces of free literature. In fact maybe some that aren't free that are deductible from this contribution to the cause.

Cheers

Ian

Sir?

I would appreciate you not soiling my children's minds with the rubbish she was given today i.e. THE SCHOOL STOPPERS HANDBOOK.

I see that you do not have enough courage of conviction to publish names or addresses of your organisers, which just about sums up what petty minds you must all have. As for financial help, I believe the only help you need is psychiatric and the sooner the better.

I don't mind people having opinions but I object to them being forced upon 11 years old children.

BEYOND THE RULES

Some people ( not anarchists ) labour with the illusion that the choice of government in a democracy reflects the level of activity in the class war. Hence with Thatcher in power they resign themselves to a state of helplessness, waiting for the false choice of parliamentarianism to swing back in their favour. If anything the class war is more intense, we are playing with higher stakes under the Tories.

In the field of industrial action mass struggle during the miners dispute has gone and still is going beyond anything seen before on the mainland. The miners are engaged in a mass struggle with an overstretched and paranoid police state. ( pity that the stop the city interventions stopped when police resources were so stretched )

The militant tactics which the miners have evolved throughout the dispute have broken all the previous rules, erupting into bloody confrontation beyond control of the union mediators. Mass proletarian violence is not confined to the pithead. Autonomous action against scab convoys, power plants, cowboy contractors, N.C.B property, police stations, - blockades and occupations, ( Particularly necessary now it is winter and huge amounts of coal will need transporting to replenish stocks at power stations ) have become as commonplace as the police deployment of riot equipment.

The strike has extended itself into the communities involving those who cannot strike, pensioners, unemployed, housewives, kids. Community self management, particularly in solid areas has aided the spirit of determination exhibited by the miners. As a consequence the police have used various methods to intimidate the miners base of support 1. verbal and physical abuse of women 2. curfews and beatings if your a miners kid 3. invasion of homes 4. occupation of villages 5. harrassing fund raisers 6. stealing toys intended for miners kids this Christmas. Yet the struggle in the community cannot be halted instead it develops.

Despite the healthy development of proletarian violence many ghosts from the past have been dragged from sleep. They are the nightmares of class war.

1. The perspective of a general strike has to be seen for what it is : an admission of defeat. The leftists want it in order to put themselves into positions of power. And interestingly enough the ruling class want it in order to re-run the 1926 fiasco helping them smash working class organisation on a massive scale.

2. The self-proclaimed vanguards see the battle-ground as some sort of arena for paper-selling, hoping eventually to recruit combatants into the party. This behavior is parasitic, it causes massive demoralisation obscuring the possibilities of real solidarity.

3. The T.U.C and Labour Party have only one concern - to stop the development of proletarian violence at any cost, winning the strike doesn't enter into it.

To this end Kinnock has resorted to a form of left nationalism describing it as Alien to the temperament and the intelligence of the British trade union movement"

Admittedly its disappointing that the strikers haven't yet made the political break. This probably won't happen until the final phase of the dispute especially if a sell-out is to be blatant.

Yet now after 8 months of this strike, with winter upon us the class war takes on a new aspect. The possibility of the strike effecting new terrain, closes nearer and nearer as the days get darker. When the lights go out one has to ask will only hungry strikers start the looting.

Most of the previous article is ripped off from the paper 'Class War'. A state of insurgency is argued which goes beyond the solidarity already seen. 'Opening up the Second Front' is a strategy of conscious intervention by anarchists to forge revolutionary solidarity between different sections of the working class.

NATIONAL ANARCHIST CONFERENCE

Over the weekend of 23 - 25th of November over 50 Anarchists from all over England and Scotland assembled in Sheffield for a national conference and get - together. The weekend was a follow - on from a similar one held in London three months earlier. During the Sheffield weekend we had many hours of excellent discussion, without any of the back - biting many of us have grown used to at NEAF (North - East Anarchist Federation) conferences. We also saw a video - recording of the 'Sheffield Policewatch' video on police tactics during the miners strike, which was kindly lent to us by a comrade, had a vegan meal together and spent 3 excellent evenings in the pub.

Judging from what people said at the conclusion of the Sunday session everybody was greatly enthused by the weekend, and we all left not only looking forward to the next conference, but to working more closely with each other.

The cost of the conference was raised entirely from a collection that was held. Collections were also held for the miners and the imprisoned Glasgow comrades.

NOTES OF WHAT WAS SAID AT THE SHEFFIELD CONFERENCE

SATURDAY 24/11/84

Group Reports

SHEFFIELD : 'The Sheffield Anarchist' is still being produced quarterly, weekly street sales and some retail outlets, sell about 500 per issue. / 'School Stoppers Handbook' : 1100 produced and distributed to schools in South Yorkshire and North Derbyshire, considered successful, lots of media coverage, hope to do another print run. / Weekly meetings held in local pub.

EDINBURGH : Magazine ('Little by Little') produced, also leaflets. / Collecting for miners, police confiscated 2 tins of money, but they got it back. Money given directly to womens support group or local strike fund. / 'Counter - Information' newsheet produced in conjunction with Glasgow @s - relating to strike mainly, but some other matters are covered. / Complain that nobody goes to Scotland.

BRIGHTON : Squat gig held in local cinema, but there were arrests and things have been in disarray since then. Nothing much happening. / Miners support groups are dominated by the Labour Party and Communist Party, but there are signs of things improving. Some Kent miners are critical of NUM hierarchy, but are scared to open their mouths about it. / Actions against the Tory conference, discussed at last conference, failed to materialise. / Got hassled in connection with the Grand Hotel bombing.

GLASGOW : Occupation of Price - Waterhouse offices - those arrested are due to come up on trial in December. / Daily street collections for miners - threatened with arrest for illegal collecting - Trades Council issue licences for collecting, but is controlled by Communist Party - Miners have been threatened with having all official financial aid stopped if they accept money collected by Anarchists. On Thursday 22/11/84 5 people were arrested for collecting - stiff sentences are expected. / Group hopes to open bookshop shortly.

BRADFORD AREA : Anti - school pamphlet ('Fuck School') produced. / Hoax leaflets advertising free trolleys of food at a new Sainsbury's supermarket were distributed to a posh housing estate, quite a lot of media coverage. / Campaign against Marcus Fox M.P. / "Knee Deep In Shit" magazine produced. / Attacks on Lord Mayor. / In Bradford street lighting is not coming on until about 9.00pm. / Very serious rioting in Pontefract nearly every night, which is not being reported in the press. / Long running campaign against poultry farmer Billy Webb - a very nasty character. / Occupation of Halifax Building Society (who are attempting to repossess homes of striking miners) office on November 5th Day of Action - Leaflets distributed and stink bombs left before leaving.

STOKE : Have been reduced to only a small group recently. / Produce 'Careless Talk'. / Have been attending Trot miners meetings to put across an @ line. / General involvement in miners strike. / Produced a leaflet for start of new term at Keele University - "The poverty of student life" - critical of university life. / Scargill & Kinnock double bill coming up - other comrades invited to attend.

'CLASS WAR' - LONDON : Sell 'Class War' on demos - up to 700 on a large demo. / Continue with 'second front' policy.

'Molly's Cafe' - LONDON : Squatted cafe - claimants group, housing support group, miners benefits, jumble sales, discos, squatters bar.

Labour Party miners support rally in Stoke

For the first time Kinnock is to attend a meeting about the miners. He says he hasn't had the time yet he can fuck off to the funerals of Indian dictators at the drop of a hat, or to spend a week in Russia. The total rejection of the Labour Party would be as politically significant as the class violence already seen in the dispute. The rally is a make or break situation for Kinnock as Labour leader and politician. Stoke chosen because Kinnock has spoken there before with generally good reception - it is his best ground. Rally is tickets only, most of tickets to Labour Party members, but some will go to NUM, to be distributed with absolute discretion. This will not only restrict us, but the response of the miners invited will be very different to that of the rank and file. Things must go beyond polite hollering.

Footnote

About 35 of us succeeded in getting in to rally, very few militant miners did. The stewards were controlled from the stage by Scargill, who had given instructions that Kinnock was to be allowed to speak. The stewards had even been told to cheer and applaud Kinnock. The whole event was entirely stage managed.

Edinburgh 'Day of Action'

Edinburgh group are organising a 'Stop the City' type action. Suggest street theatre, porno trashing, 'free with compliments' etc stickers for shops, Xmas shopping. Complaints from group that nothing ever happens in Edinburgh - people are not interested in anything North of the border. Day of Action set for December the 20th. Would groups please advertise it and try and get along.

Pacifism

What is pacifism? Nobody seemed sure, but several criticisms of people's experiences of pacifists and pacifism were given. "When you're fighting a class war you can't afford pacifism". Pacifism is a religious decision. "If the miners were pacifists the strike would have been lost long ago." The situation must decide the tactics. The Greenham women have failed absolutely, all they have done is upset a few local middle-class people. Pacifism and "Psychopathism" are false choices. Pacifists add to the mystification that is going on about that governments can be negotiated with. Defence of Greenham women - there has been a development of their ideas, away from absolute pacifism and towards a more militant approach. It's bad enough to discuss pacifism when there are pacifists present, but to discuss it when there are not is ludicrous. Subject abandoned.

Feminism and Sexism

Some very articulate discussion about these subjects. Sexism will be around long after the revolution unless we do something about it now. We must confront all forms of oppression. "Most feminist groups organise in an Anarchist way but don't call themselves Anarchists". A lot of the dynamism of the feminist movement has been lost because so many feminists and feminist groups have worked hand in glove with the state (women's committees etc). 16 women and 37 men were present (+ 2 female children + 1 dog). Isn't it a bit worrying to condemn half the population as being not worth bothering with? "Women are sexist as well, they must change as well. We must change the whole of society." These discussions are never conclusive, but they cannot be. Stoke say they will organise a conference dealing specifically with these issues, this will be in the new year. Gay men are ignored (?) by their 'straight' male comrades. It is not a question of men giving up their power, but a question of men developing themselves to destroy the power system. We must ditch the ideas that are fed into us by the system. Anarchists must change themselves before they can change the system. Sexism must be challenged whenever it arises.

Organisation

Bristol group have their mail tampered with (who doesn't), often only hearing about event -s after they have already taken place. Suggest transfer of important information by word of mouth to stop infiltration. Develop support for each others actions. 'Counter Information' service (Edinburgh - Glasgow) invite people from other groups to get involved. Copies of C.I. taken to picket lines and strike centres with good reception and exchange of information - 2500 printed.

The Direct Action Movement (DAM)

DAM is now officially the British equivalent of the Spanish C.N.T. Their delegates are able to address C.N.T. / I.W.A. conferences not only on behalf of the British Anarchist movement, but on behalf of the British working class. Despite this DAM are pathetically small organisation after several years of existence. They exist to infiltrate and take over the British @ movement. They have no factory groups. The miners strike has been a big boost to them as they have been able to collect money, and money has been sent to them by IWA groups abroad - £3,000 to Hull DAM alone. Great personal differences exist between East London DAM and South London DAM, and even greater differences exist between the DAM groups in the North and those in the South (2 small groups in London and 2 people in Chatham). Two long standing Anarchist magazines have been completely taken over by DAM every member of 'Anarchy' collective is a member of E.London DAM, and every member of 'Black Flag' collective is a member of S.London DAM.

When the C.N.T. finally gets the enormous assets (millions) seized by Franco after the civil war, DAM will be getting a decent sized slice of the pie. But, as there are several squabbling factions of the C.N.T., DAM must continue to support the main faction uncritically. The only DAM member who has dared to criticise this C.N.T. publicly has been ruthlessly denounced and suspended. DAM were involved in the 'LOGO' incident. DAM are beyond the pail, we should not have debate with them. They have nothing in common with the active syndicalist movements of the past, they are not involved in direct action in the workplace, they are "closet - syndicalists". Sheffield in particular complained of the unscrupulous entryist tactics DAM were prepared to use, these tactics had been used to manipulate the North - East Anarchist Federation (NEAF) on many occasions over several years. Doncaster DAM (masquerading as the 'South - Yorkshire Anarchist Group') had told a whole number of lies about the Sheffield group ranging from allegations of scabbing to allegations of kneecapping. DAM are a definite threat to the real Anarchist movement, the local autonomous groups. Be vigilant comrades, you never know what they might stoop to next.

Miners

Fights developing between those scabs who have gone back recently and those who went back earlier on in the dispute - 1 pit had to be closed recently for the day because of this. A lot of non - reported incidents of riots and disturbances from all over the country. Hit and run tactics used at Pontefract, but not directly related to miners strike - Similar occurrences going unreported at Hackenthorpe, Sheffield. - How many more places? Striking miners benefit gig held at Bradford 1 in 12 club and picketting is planned. Regular picketing by Edinburgh group. Little solidarity action has been shown by other workers. We must open up the 'Second Front'. Even during Leeds 'Stop the City' a noticeable number of cops were taken away from local picket lines.

"THEY CALL THIS DEMOCRACY"

In the last election the number of valid votes counted was 30,671,000, 72% of the electorate, compared with 75% in 1979.

*** More people didn't want to (or couldn't be bothered to) vote in Sheffield Central than actually voted for labour (the winner?)

In every area, except Hallam, more people didn't want labour, than wanted Labour and in Hallam more people didn't want conservative than wanted conservative.

Always about 65% of the electorate don't want the winning party.

It seems strange that they think that they have a mandate to speak for the people..

WHY?

With the increased militancy of the Anarchist movement it amazes me that we are still going through the tired old ritual of paying fines. Despite more people being prepared to get involved in 'direct action', the circle remains unaltered - Go out and do something - Get caught - Pay fine - Go back to Go minus £200. What's the point of going out and doing £10's worth of damage to an army recruiting office, and then paying a £50 fine? (This may seem a little pessimistic, but the possibility of getting caught is something we should think about before - not after). Perhaps I shouldn't get on my high horse and say "Don't give them the money comrades, do the 14 days" - It's up to you to say it to yourself if you wish. If you want to go through the ritual of getting nicked and paying fines, it's up to you. But do we really have to have all these appeals to the rest of the Anarchist movement to pay your fines for you, we'd be better spending what little cash we have on more worthwhile things than helping to support the judicial system and the state. Maybe you'd just like to gamble on not getting nicked, and maybe if you smash 5 windows and only pay a fine for 1 of them you think you've got a good deal, but you still ought to give the question of fines a bit of thought, get off the fence, and try not to get caught.

REVOLUTION by Malatesta

REVOLUTION is the creation of new living institutions, new groupings, new social relationships, it is the destruction of privileges and monopolies; it is the new spirit of justice, of brotherhood, of freedom which must renew the whole social life, the moral level and material conditions of the masses by calling on them to provide, through their direct and conscious action, for their own future.

REVOLUTION is the organisation of all public services by those who work in them in their own interest as well as the public's;

REVOLUTION is the destruction of all coercive ties; it is the autonomy of groups, of communes, of regions;

REVOLUTION is the free federation brought about by a desire for brotherhood, by individual and collective interests, by the needs of production and defence;

REVOLUTION is the constitution of innumerable free groupings based on ideas, wishes, and tastes of all kinds that exist among the people;

REVOLUTION is the forming and disbanding of thousands of representative, district, communal, regional, national bodies which, without having any legislative power, serve to make known and to coordinate the desires and interests of people near and far and which act through information, advice and example.

REVOLUTION is freedom proved in the crucible of facts and lasts so long as freedom lasts, that is until others, taking advantage of the weariness that overtakes the masses, of the inevitable disappointments that follow exaggerated hopes, of the probable errors and human faults, succeed in constituting a power, which supported by an army of conscripts or mercenaries, lays down the law, arrests the movement at the point it has reached, and then begins the reaction.

CRIME

To some people, anarchism is totally unacceptable, not because they disagree with it in theory, (on the contrary, a large amount of people have grasped the fact that anarchist ideals are the highest people can aspire to) but because an anarchist society doesn't seek to constitute a governing body of law makers such as M.P's, councillors, etc, or a police or military force to carry laws made by the latter out, there would obviously (according to these disillusioned people,) be an incredible amount of crime.

The people who believe this then, have swallowed the lie created by the state that the state and all its advocates are there for the benefit of the masses, that the courts and the police forces are present to keep a check on crime and corruption and to protect the public from disorder.

In our present society crime is constantly on the increase, this isn't because of the lack of laws, but because we live in a capitalist regime and crime is a direct result of this. Under the capitalist system, all ownership of land, workplaces and means of production of commodities lies in the hands of a minute fraction of society and it is this minority and their privileged positions that the government and its law administrators protect.

The rest of society which happens to be the majority has to, because of the way capitalism is structured and defended, (and most importantly, because they think at this present time it is the best way to organise) rely on this privileged section for jobs, houses, food and other necessities even though it is they who have produced these goods.

Therefore, because society is arranged so, it is extremely unbalanced and unequal and because of this, individuals will have more than others and when they see someone with more than them or something they can't afford this inevitably leads to crime.

If a person lacks something, especially if it's a basic necessity such as food or clothing, they will go out and steal what they need, perhaps because they are in a financial crisis, (yet again, through no fault of their own, but perhaps due to the state not finding it necessary to employ them at that moment, and the money they receive in the meantime is inadequate). So then, a crime is committed, and what's the state's answer to these 'crimes'? a long spell behind prison walls which is not a solution to the problem, all it is is the state's way of punishing those people who won't stay in line and accept their measly lot.

THE MEDIA, MISINFORMATION, LIES AND STATE CONTROL.

We will start with what we already know-

The newspapers are owned by the rich. The T.V. is run by people with Sir before their names.

The radio is an extension of the T.V. The people at the top of these 'companies' have a lot to lose.

The media being used by the government has been most obvious during the miners strike, and to a lesser extent during the Falklands.

With the Falklands the government knew that it couldn't let us know what was really happening (they learn't their lessons from Vietnam). So obviously they weren't going to tell us that they were sending submarines with nuclear capability, the truth behind the sinking of the Belgrano and they definitely weren't going to send pictures of the glorious war home, so that we wouldn't actually see the war in its true colours, instead they let the media tell us about the daring exploits of 'our boys'.

With the Falklands it wasn't really lies we were told, basically they omitted to tell us the important bits (mostly anyway). They said that it was in the 'national interest' not to tell us, let's just say it was in the governments interest anyway.

Which brings us on nicely to the miners strike, the smashing of which is obviously in the national interest.

All the 'shock horror' news reports are of violent miners on picket lines, scabs being beaten up by striking miners etc, etc. I'm not saying that it doesn't happen, 'cause it does and it's great to see it happen, but we never see the other side of the coin - the police arriving at picket lines, their only purpose to get striking miners, we also never hear about scabs beating up striking miners, and we hear how many miners have gone back to work on every news, never how many are still on strike or how many scabs have rejoined the strike and become strikers again, etc.

When most people are involved in actually making the news, they realise what lies are reported, but it doesn't seem to actually go further than that. Nearly everyone believes media lies.

When there was an 'alternative' media available to the masses, we listened to it, not because it was an alternative really because it was the same old shit. I am talking about pirate radio, which was big in the 60's. The pirates played the new styles of music which were coming in, but were not taken up by the totally legitimate radio stations. When there was something around that was not controlled by the state, it had to be got rid of, not really because it was a threat more the threat that it could have been to the state, (Tony Benn as postman or general saw to that). Anyway, Tony Benn decided (with some help from his string pullers) to ban them and they were banned. The thing that they were really scared of was community radio - people putting their ideas across who weren't accountable to the system. There are 'political' radio stations still going... 'Peace Radio' in Sheffield hopefully will soon start to transmit again.

So far I have really been just writing about the news broadcasts, so next is the turn of the adverts and films. The adverts are probably the worst thing ever, not only do they try incredibly hard to make us buy useless goods, but they reinforce horrific stereotypes - the woman in the kitchen cooking for hubby who's at work, before she collects the kids from school, the men who don't have to try...too hard.etc. Stereotypes which you don't normally come across in the 'real' world.

In fact, less than 30% of households match up with ~~this~~ stereotype (according to a recent report). So why do they try so hard to convince us that 'this' is the way we should be?

The family divides us rather than unites us. If we are convinced that our loyalty lies with the family rather than each other, we become isolated from each other. For example, scabbing to make sure your family has a nice christmas and sod the rest of them. (never mind about next christmas.)

The family is being used to reproduce the society that our rulers want and can control. From cradle to grave (from medically induced, forcep helped controlled birth to death from poisoning by industrial waste). We are trained to be factory fodder (or battlefield fodder). It starts at home, then the state takes over to continue the brainwashing unto death.

The conditioning reinforces the family and the commodities that are supposed to make our lives bearable. The breadwinner becomes a machine, (which is part of a big machine) and is looked after by a machine at home, which services the machine (and usually produces more machines for the factory).

The family also becomes a basic unit of social control. Hopefully the family can keep itself in line and if not the state will do it with the prison system. The fear of this makes the members of the family police each other. "What if I get arrested, what will happen to the baby". If we don't toe the line, they can take away our children, just like that and they do it all the time, (761 children were taken away from their homes by Sheffield city council in 1983).

The series' and films on tele (about the police helping people) seem to be on the increase. Always reinforcing the idea that we really need a police force. Yes, they are always out there saving us from the 'baddies' on the T.V., but in real life their main job is to protect the rich and the powerful bastards.

A lot of their time is spent actually protecting the rich, their property, government installations, pits (the property of the NCB) etc etc.....

THE BOX

crime continued

Food, clothing, housing, medical treatment and innumerable other necessities are not a luxury but a basic right, they should not be a privilege that we have to pay for, whose availability is controlled by the greed of a capitalist class that shouldn't even be in a position to possess or distribute these things.

When enough people realize that it is the state that causes chaos, that it is the state that is behind all crimes and at the root of all social problems, it is then that the spirit of revolt will be born and we will free ourselves of that parasite that has restricted and inhibited us for so long.

REVIEW: ANGRY PILOT ISSUE NO 1

The intention of its author is that this Pilot issue although independant of Class War should act as some sort of theoretical journal of the Class War movement.

"The working class consists of all those who are wage slaves, unemployed or at school but is this definition enough? No! it is activity that makes class war, without rovolutionary struggle, class is just a persons background."

In this vein articles include the miners strike, spreading it (class war) beyond the mining areas themselves. Emphasis is put upon mini riots as the hope of building a combat-ive revolutionary movement.

Developing and consolidating the anarchist position where the climate for confrontation has been created in the order of the day, however you're left a bit unsure as to what this entails. What it most certainly is not is pacifism/pacifist. Angry sports a critique of the peace movement, and under an article entitled 'Militant Anarchism strikes back with a vengeance' pacifism is shown up as a one dimensional idea when stood side by side with insurrectionist theory. This is all good stuff despite the pisstaking, some of which is offensive (references to 'dykes' in an Anarchist mag. would you believe!?!)

However Angry has its hangups. First it seems the author believes even if in a qualified way bourgeois pregudice about the working class "Commies will enevitably accuse even mild patriotism as absolute nationalism, being oblivious to the difference between a basically apolitical persons love for their country's character and heritage and the predominantly Fascist inspired beliefs of National Socialism." Judge for yourself, maybe i'm just a commie.

What's really disappointing about Angry is its concern with maintaining the C.W. image, an image invented for it rather than by it. The concluding page sports side by side paper clippings then some whinging about 'press blackouts and lies'. Despite it all "still we grow", "we are the new breed." Fine sentiments with which I agree, just keep to insurrectionist theory and forget the posing.

He's romantic, charming
and amusing.
He's heroic, tough
and daring.
Once again, meet
the irresistible
Michael Bakunin.

"The son of 'Madness of the West' and 'Last Rites' to take to his all new adventures."
