"I was stirred by it."
"great mag"

"What a joy and surprise it was on Saturday to accidentally come across a copy of 'Pinch', which I didn't know existed!"

Many thanks for the CIA Journal, it was beautiful, it was interesting and very utter in fact."

"Yes, Jesus was an anarchist. Don't know I dare be one....."

"Praise be to God on high for the inspiration imparted through 'Pinch of Salt'. It really is growing into one of the most gratifying and collectively uplifting sources of spiritual insurrection I have ever read. I am delighted to receive this blessed publication."

"A lovely, lively magazine. I hope you will, in time, reach many. Too many of 'us Christians' take ourselves too seriously - it's not very attractive."

"A breath of fresh air"

it's great to know that anarchist Christianity is alive and kicking."

".....it meets a tremendous need. Some outstanding things in it. Some things that have warmed my heart greatly."

"Please send me a copy of 'A Pinch of Salt' - I really don't know what a Christian Anarchist is."

A PINCH OF SALT

.....a slightly irregular magazine of poetry, articles news, views, letters, cartoons and drawings. Somehow trying to understand more about the broken and beautiful world we find ourselves in, the people around us, the person inside us, and, last but not least, God.

However, don't believe all you read on leaflets..... see for yourself. A free copy of "A Pinch of Salt" is available upon request. If you're not completely satisfied within twenty seven seconds, then you won't be the first.
