AN INTRODUCTION TO
CHRISTIAN ANARCHISM

BABYLON! ON THE FRINGE

In reality, the sole political Christian position conforms to Revelation: the negation of power, the total, radical refusal to accept its existence, and fundamental contesting of whatever form it takes....As a Christian one must participate in the world of politics and action. But one must do so to reject it, to confront it with the conscientious and wellfounded refusal that alone can put into question, or even prevent, the unchecked growth of power. Thus Christians cannot help but be only on the side of anarchists.

Jacques Ellul, "Anarchism and Christianity"
