People begin to shrink at the age of thirty.

Mrs. Margaret Thompson died in London in 1776 leaving a will that she should be buried in snuff. It was her wish that the six greatest snuff-takers of the parish should be her bearers, each wearing a snuff-coloured beaver hat. Six maidens bore her pall, each carrying a box containing the best Scottish snuff, for refreshment, and her servant walked in front distributing large handfuls of snuff upon the ground and the crowd.

In mating, the Californian sea otter holds his mate by grasping her nose in between his teeth.

A male spider, intent on seduction, may offer his prospective mate a dead fly as a sweetener. If he makes too much haste, however, the outraged female is liable to eat him instead.

Even worse lies in store for the praying mantis : regardless of the quality of his performance, his spouse is quite likely to eat him before, during or after mating. He is a persistence lover, however, and not one to be discouraged by trifles. Even if the female nips off his head, which is indeed one of her special enthusiasms, the venal urge is strong enough to keep his tail wagging until the job is done.

Baptising an infant, the Rev. Spinney, of Meltham, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, dipped his fingers into the holy water and scooped out three pork chops.

To celebrate his 700th parachute jump, Flt. Sgt. Hector Macmillan made his descent in full Scottish national dress while playing The Road to the Isles on his bagpipes.

If all the Chinese jumped on and off their seats in unison, the vibrations would cause a tidal wave that would engulf America.

Jepson included : disastrous climatic changes; shortage of food; internecine fighting; disease; parasites; racial senility; fatal mutations caused by cosmic radiation, earthquakes and tidal waves provoked by the moon's untimely emergence from the Pacific Ocean; stupidity; divine disapproval; suicidal psychosis; raids from Outer Space; no room in the Ark,

Old British custom held it sacrilegious to kill a bee, the wisest and holiest of insects. Bees were believed to pine away and die in households where there was hatred or anger, to mercilessly attack the foul-mouthed or unchaste, and at midnight on Christmas Eve, to hum the 100th Psalm.

THE GREAT SUCCESS OF THE EASTER CAMPAIGN IN BERKSHIRE WAS, OF COURSE, HELPED ALONG BY MEMBERS OF THE CARLTON & GEDLING BRANCH OF C.N.D. . THE PUBLICITY WHICH THE CAMPAIGN RECEIVED GAVE C.N.D. A MASSIVE BOOST IN PROVING THAT WE ARE NOT " A SMALL MINORITY" AND ENCOURAGING MORE PEOPLE TO JOIN OUR RANKS. BUT WHAT ABOUT OUR "FRIENDS" THE NEWSPAPERS? THE FOLLOWING QUOTATIONS WERE TAKEN FROM THE NEWSPAPERS OF 2ND APRIL, 1983, REPORTING ON THE GOOD FRIDAY DAY OF ACTION :

THE SUN (EDITORIAL) :

" ... PEACE PROTESTORS ARE SO BLINKERED THEY SEEM TO BELIEVE THEY ARE THE ONLY ONES WHO ARE AGAINST THE BOMB. ... ONE DAY WE MAY WELL BE ABLE TO DESTROY OUR NUCLEAR WEAPONS, BUT IT WILL NOT BE DUE TO THE WELL-MEANING FOLK AT GREENHAM. ... IT WOULD BE THANKS TO THOSE WHO ARE RESOLVED TO MATCH MIGHT WITH MIGHT UNTIL COMMON SENSE PREVAILS."

DAILY MIRROR (INSIDE PAGE) :

" ... THE BULK OF THIS PEACE-SEEKING THROG WERE FAMILIES - WORRIED, YOUTHFUL FOLK, SOME ONLY IN THEIR LATE TEENS, WHO WERE JOINTLY CONCERNED, ANGRY AND EVEN SCARED ABOUT NUCLEAR WAR. ... THE MOST FAMILIAR SOUND AROUND THEM WAS NOT SLOGAN-CHANTING BUT CRYING BABIES. IT ALMOST SEEMED THAT THE LIVING SYMBOLS OF THE FUTURE WERE ALL BELLOWING AT ONCE. ... BUT IT WASN'T JUST A DAY PEACE TRIP OUTING FOR THE YOUNG. THE ELDERLY WERE MASSIVELY REPRESENTED."

DAILY MAIL (EDITORIAL) :

" ... THE INVASION OF GREENHAM COMMON, THE CRUISE MISSILE BASE, BY PROTESTING WOMEN, MANY OF THEM WITH THEIR BABIES, UNDOUBTEDLY ATTRACTED MUCH PUBLIC SYMPATHY AND HUGE MEDIA COVERAGE. ... EVEN THOSE WHO FELT THEY WERE THE DUPES OF THE KREMLIN OFTEN FOUND THEM SINCERE AND ON THE SIDE OF LIFE. ... BUT AS THE GREENHAM COMMON WOMEN HAVE BEEN MORE EXPOSED TO THE MEDIA AND THE WEIRDOS AMONG THEM HAVE COME MORE PROMINENTLY INTO THE PICTURE, THEIR APPEAL HAS WANED."

THE GUARDIAN (FRONT PAGE) :

" ... THE ASSISTANT CHIEF CONSTABLE OF THE THAMES VALLEY, MR. WYN JONES, SAID LAST NIGHT THAT HE WAS DELIGHTED WITH THE PEACEFUL END TO THE DEMONSTRATION. ... HE SAID " I AM DELIGHTED WITH THE WAY THINGS HAVE GONE OVER THE PAST TWO DAYS. ... THE WHOLE THING WAS ACHIEVED PEACEFULLY."
... THREE POLICEMEN OUTSIDE ALDERMASTON SPORTED DAFFODILS GIVEN TO THEM BY DEMONSTRATORS."

" ... THE ORGANISERS CLAIMED 100,000, BUT POLICE PUT THE FIGURE NEARER 40,000. ... WHATEVER THE NUMBER, IT WAS AN IMPRESSIVE & EXCEEDINGLY WELL-ORCHESTRATED DISPLAY OF COMMITMENT TO THE PEACE MOVEMENT, THOUGH MR. HESELTINE, DEFENCE SECRETARY, FRESH FROM VISITING THE BERLIN WALL, WAS QUICK TO POINT OUT THAT FROM HIS POINT OF VIEW THE CAMPAIGNERS WERE TRUDGING " A NAIVE AND RECKLESS ROAD." "

MORNING STAR (EDITORIAL) :

" ... THE TORIES MUST BE STOPPED, AND CRUISE & TRIDENT MUST BE STOPPED BEFORE WE CAN HALT THE SLIDE TO NUCLEAR WAR. ... THAT IS WHY, WHEN THE EASTER CELEBRATIONS ARE OVER, AND EASTER BECOMES SOMETHING WHICH HAPPENS AGAIN IN ANOTHER YEAR, THE DEMONSTRATIONS AND ACTIVITIES MUST CONTINUE TO FLOURISH, NATIONALLY, REGIONALLY, AND IN EVERY LOCALITY THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. "
