

WHAT'S UP DOC?

by Doctor Shaw
ALCOHOL

Dear Doctor, I'm not an alcoholic but just lately I can't seem to stop drinking. It starts as soon as I get up. I'm even hiding drink at work to keep me going 'til I can get to the pub at lunchtime. On nights out I usually down ten pints and am either sick or pass out. Even my drinking friends are passing remarks about me. Can you advise me what to do?

Dear Reader, Despite the limitations of communication by letter, the description of your drinking habits could hardly be described as healthy. Apart from stating what is very obvious, that you are drinking too much alcohol too often, your drinking pattern and its consequences, coupled with your own concern and that of your friends expressed in your letter, suggest a serious alcohol problem.

Confronting this situation and having the motivation to do something about it are important to beating it. Talk things over with your GP or a self-help and advice group, such as the Alcohol Prevention Advisory Service (APAS), Tel: 414747.

PILES

Dear Doctor, I suffer from piles which often bleed. I put off going to my doctor because she knows I'm gay and I would be uneasy if I was to go and ask her for advice. Can you tell me if I can buy something from the chemist for this? Yours sincerely, Worried Walter.

Dear Walter, I quite agree, piles (haemorrhoids) can be a very distressing condition and many who share your problem are reluctant to seek medical advice. Piles are not uncommon in both men and women, gay or straight and contrary to Scene folklore their presence is not related to anal sexual activity.

There are several over-the-counter preparations for the relief of piles available from the chemist and s/he will be able to advise you on this. However it is unwise to assume that symptoms you may have are the result of piles since a variety of conditions whose cause and treatment may be very different could be responsible for identical symptoms. There is no substitute for accurate diagnosis and treatment. If you are unhappy about discussing this with your GP, then your local Genito Urinary Medical Clinic will be able to help you.

ALL DRESSED UP AND NOWHERE TO GO

Lincoln's lesbian and gays have lost their one and only disco venue, following queer bashings there last month. Without asking the organisers the landlord decided to allow in straight male pub customers. "We asked them to leave but they became abusive and attacked two women. All fifty of us piled downstairs in solidarity" said Jason Poole, one of the disco organisers.

"The police took over forty minutes to arrive, but we found out later that was because the landlord hadn't even called them. Eventually, neighbours alerted by the disturbance, called the Police themselves. Apparently the landlord didn't have a midnight licence, and was hoodwinking us."

Meanwhile the landlord has lost his licence but has apologised to the communities. It is understood that one of the injured women who sustained severe internal bleeding is pursuing an assault charge against her attacker. But despite this set back the group are confident they will find another venue in time, hopefully before Spring's out.

NEW GAY PUB OPENS IN DERBY

Curzon Street now has two gay venues with the opening of Freddie's Bar. Named after rock star Freddie Mercury, the new owners are aiming to decorate the bar in Queen style. Dave and Keith (above) have bought the freehold of the premises. Dave told OUT-RIGHT that the present name of The Refreshment House would stand for the next month until the new sign goes up.

HOT STUFF FOR ALL DEVILS

If you are middle-aged and want to behave like a teenager at a rock concert then try 'Hot Stuff' at Leicester's Haymarket Theatre. This is the show featuring Dave Dale who was profiled in the last edition of OUTRIGHT. If you saw him in a pub, you wouldn't look twice, but on stage all the glamour and tackiness is there.

There is a very flimsy story line and most of the humour involved in drag will be familiar to lesbian and gay members of the audience. But who cares? This is an opportunity to wallow in nostalgia for the 70's, enjoy the sheer extravagance of flared trousers, platform shoes and several acres of lurex. Gary Glitter's appearance would be more convincing with a chest wig, nonetheless smile, relax, remember the songs and enjoy the vitality of the cast. It is not only teenagers who enjoy singing and waving their arms in the air. Hot Stuff runs at Leicester Haymarket Theatre from 16th-22nd April.

Tony Skelton grew up in the Nottingham North constituency and works for London Transport. He will need to overturn a 1,500 Labour majority of the sitting Labour M.P. Graham Allen. The Liberal Democrat Manifesto re-affirms its commitment to equal citizenship for Lesbians and Gay Men through changes to the criminal law, will introduce anti-discrimination legislation and tighten up on police practices. If elected the Party will also repeal Section 28, and create a common age of consent regardless of gender or sexual orientation.

IMPRISONED IN THE MIDLANDS

Maggie Kilpatrick has been treading the boards for nearly thirty years but only in the last ten has she sampled near celebrity status along with the rest of the Cell Block H crowd, as Joan Ferguson, (a.k.a. 'the freak' from Central TV's long lamented and now departed soap). She talks to OUTRIGHT about how she came to be involved in AIDS charity work in Sydney.

She comes over as someone grounded in reality, down to earth and modest with it. "In Australia I'm a medium sized fish in a medium sized pool, here I'm a very small fish in a large pool. If there's one thing I know, it's my place". But, small shrimp or not, she's certainly popular here. So it was natural that she would use her celeb status to do voluntary work for Aids organisations, which found her at the Mermaids Ball in Derby last month, auctioning prizes. "In Oz I have done both large and small scale benefits, and they are all very important."

"My TV work, particularly on "Prisoner", has been supported greatly by the gay community: they discovered me - I knew they were out there. Australian gay guys are fitness fanatics, guys to die for. My first encounter with AIDS was over ten years' ago, when some of my friends in the theatre discovered they were HIV+. It was little known then and the gay community came in for particular attack. We have seen the backlash of fear that homophobia has produced. And then there are fascists to be dealt with."

"I don't set myself up as an expert, but to go where I am needed to raise money for AIDS prevention work. I also try and spread a little awareness about the disease, for ignorance produces fear. My intolerance is levelled at intolerant people."

"Around this time an ex-policeman friend of mine who is gay, decided to set up a security firm to help combat the attacks. One night on duty, a group of youths approached him and boasted that they could bash any poofah. "Well, you can start with me", says 6' 3" Maggie. Before the police started taking gay-bashing seriously vigilante groups like Dykes on Bikes provided support. None of us should have to fear walking the streets." Had she any pet hates I wondered? "I hate separatism almost as much as I hate bigotry."

She's toured the Midlands clubs since arriving in the UK in February, and there are plans afoot for a glitzy, tongue in cheek 'Prisoner' musical next year. I can't wait. So watch out! The Freak may be back. I hope so.

STORME WEBBER IN NOTTINGHAM

Storme Webber takes Nottingham by storm again on Wednesday 15th April. She has played to packed halls of enthralled women in this country, with recitations of lesbian erotica, political and personal poetry, and has left her New York home for London indefinitely. You can catch her at 9.30pm prompt at the Skyy Club, 509 Alfreton Road, Bobbersmill, Nottingham, WOMEN ONLY. Price: £3.00/£2.50/£2.00. Disco late bar, quiet area.

LIFE IS not THE SAME IF YOU'RE GAY.

The laws surrounding pensions make it difficult for unmarried couples to plan for retirement. When you are gay, it is not only the law that makes it difficult, it is the misconceptions surrounding intestacy and trusts. In other words, if you think you may ever want a partner to benefit from your pension plan in the event of your death you cannot leave it to chance.

Your independent financial adviser should not only inform you of the costs involved of any particular pension policy, but the size, strength and past performance of the pensions office. Financial advice however, does not stop there.

To us, getting it right seems surprisingly simple. We do not charge and our service is confidential.

RECORD ROUNDUP

by Simon Smalley

Ayup again! Gals seem to feature prominently for this month's excursion into groovedom - so remember Buffy Sainte-Marie! She's back in town with an incredible album called "Coincidence (And Likely Stories)", the stories in question inspired by her Red Indian heritage and the injustices imposed upon them by the U.S. bigwigs. Delivered via her unique phrasing, it's best summed up in the spine-tingling "Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee".

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, old misery guts Tinita Tikaram shows she still has twist in her sobriety on her new outing "Eleven Kinds of Loneliness". Avoid at all costs unless you're planning a trip down Maudlin Street.

On the other hand, however, the highly talented (she ain't me sister, honest guv) K. D. Lang should receive more mainstream success with her third L.P. "Ingenu", which has a more laid back approach from her previous work and is not so nouveau country in style.

K D LANG, who appears at Birmingham Symphony Hall, May 5th (box office 021-212-3333).

Ex-Eurythmics songbird Annie Lennox glides onto the L.P. front with "Diva". Her plaintive debut solo 45, "Why" is included and her pedigree guarantees this a number one position.

Mix together Bad Drag, Bad miming and being dead camp and the end result is Dollar. These reflection-lovers pop back into view with a mid-price retrospective out now, after months of delays. All yer faves are here, but the most glaring omission is the exclusion of "Mirror, Mirror". But where are they now?!

Finally, feedback merchants the Jesus and Mary Chain announce "Honey's Dead". This more - dare I say - tuneful direction is a nice change from their usual style which was in danger of becoming - to quote Morrissey - "that joke isn't funny anymore". And that's yer lot! Ta Ra!

On a queer day

SIXTH LESBIAN AND GAY FILM FESTIVAL ON TOUR

FILM GUIDE

CAUGHT LOOKING, made for C4's series, 'Out' but deemed too risqué for mid-evening viewing. (35 m).

THE MAKING OF MONSTERS John Greyson's loopy musical about homophobia and ice hockey. (35 mins).

THE HOURS AND THE TIMES. In which Brian Epstein escorts John Lennon to Barcelona for a sexual encounter in 1963. (60 mins).

SHORT FUSE, an experimental and wordless panorama cut to a giddy pop score, and lots of fun too. (37 mins).

TOGETHER ALONE: Two men talk to each other after a quick trick and find they had more in common than they first thought. (85 m).

WAITING, based on a short story by Edmund White. (15 mins).

GIVE AIDS THE FREEZE, award winning animation (2 mins).

TIMES SQUARE, escapist fantasy. Two young women meet in a mental hospital. They escape and go adventuring. (111 m)

OUTCASTS, a fascinating docu-drama interweaving film of the treatment of lesbians historically. (25 mins).

LESBIANS IN LOVE features ROSEBUD, a story of sexual awakening and desire (14 m), the buddy movie FIRST BASE, (13 m), and BY ATTRITION, a woman frets that kissing erodes her lips. (8 m), and CAME OUT, IT RAINED, WENT BACK IN AGAIN coming out in the hilariously frenetic day of a would-be lesbian (10 mins).

LESBIAN IDENTITY, features A PRAYER BEFORE BIRTH about struggle with disability (30 min), WHERE THE COWS GO, the moving tale of Lily, institutionalised for 40 years for kissing a girl at 14 (15 min), FIRST COMES LOVE, stylish look at straight marriages.

MY OWN PRIVATE IDAHO about the tragic-comic relationship between a gay hustler and the rich kid slumming for cheap kicks. (105 m).

I DON'T KISS. A naive teenager becomes a hustler-come-rent-boy in Paris and becomes involved with a beautiful prostitute (115 m).

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY SIXTIES NIGHT WITH SPITTLE & TWANG

Sixties night at the Nottingham Women's Centre was THE place to be to celebrate International Women's Day. Cabaret was provided by performance artists Silver and Gold. The main slot was filled by Nottingham duo SPITTLE & TWANG (a.k.a. Claire Ross and Mary Garner), with guest drummer Sophie and go-go dancer Rachel. They were Fab.

Kicking off with the lyrical California Dreaming they progressed through a set which included Small Faces, Hendrix, Van Morrison, Beatles and Troggs hits. Claire's voice handled the widely differing styles superbly and Mary's musicianship clearly impressed the audience as she slipped easily between lead, semi-acoustic and bass guitars. Their performance was electrifying with Claire's colourful chat between numbers upping the voltage. Encouraged by the shimmying Rachel, the floor filled with groovers, flailing their arms in gay abandon. (Spittle & Twang next at Sheffield's Leadmill on Tuesday 8th April). Review by L.L. & L.L.L.

OUTBURST!

Dear Editor,
I feel I must register a sad protest against the article, "A View from the Towpath" in your March issue, in particular the comments on middle aged men. The whole article seems to me to be full of self-pity and does nothing to advance the gay movement which MUST encourage intimate communication between all ages. The basics of sex so frantically obsessed by adolescents (21 to 35?) would give them greater happiness if they mingled more with men who have the love and experience and other cultural assets to enhance. The love for other gay men and the desire sometimes to have sex is as strong in any age (I am 75 and still strong in love and sex) but the encouragement to our young colleagues to ghetto themselves must alienate older men who then vote anti-gay, and projects the question - are they gay just for sex or do they REALLY love all gay men irrespective of age? This does not prejudice the personal choice of your sexual partner.

Yours faithfully,
B. Lawrence,
Kettering, Northants.
