THE LONG DAY CLOSES

The film consists of a series of happy and joyful memories, related through vivid tableaux and a soundtrack full of popular songs of the time. Undercutting these happy memories is a profound sense of loss, but it is director

Terence Davies' general fascination with 'the poetry of the commonplace' which sets him apart from English Cinema's other purveyors of working class reality - Ken Loach, Lindsay Anderson etc.

Tues 8th-Thurs 10th September, 6.30pm.

Set in the icy wastes of Alaska and in a newly-reunited Berlin, this film was specially written for singer-songwriter k.d. lang, as an Eskimo with no fixed identity, with a German librarian whose history she comes to share. Another winner from Percy Adlon the maker of 'Bagdad Cafe'.

29th September-1st October, 9pm.

NALGO ENVY

A severe case of NALGO-envy led to a demand at its annual conference this year that the Trades Union Congress takes a more active stance on lesbian and gay issues which would enable other unions to feel more confident in moving forward on lesbian and gay rights. Jean Murray, (pictured), from NALGO North West explained: "Ten percent of any workforce is a very large minority and by not doing anything unions fail to provide a service for 10 per cent of their membership who may be lesbian or gay."

In a second successful motion, NALGO's National Executive Committee has been instructed to ensure branches do not refuse to send delegates to the lesbian and gay conferences, simply because the delegates wish to remain anonymous if they are not 'out' at work. By failing to understand why members might act in such a way, indirect discrimination can take place.

NOTTINGHAM BODY POSITIVE - THE FUTURE

There is a meeting on Wednesday, 16th September at 7.30pm at the International Community Centre, 61b Mansfield Road for members and users of Nottingham Body Positive. The aim of the meeting is to discuss the future of Nottingham Body Positive generally and to consider possible options. For further information call Sue or Chris on (0602) 240364 during office hours.

HOWARD'S END

Based on E M Forster's novel, this handsome production from the Merchant Ivory team is a sharply observed examination of the English class system and the people it destroys. Emma Thompson and Helena Bonham Carter give excellent performances as the Schlegel sisters, bright, progressive thinking women who take a young bank clerk under their wing in order to 'better him'.

18th-20th September, 8.30pm, 21st Sept, 9pm, 22nd-27th Sept 8pm, 29th-30th Sept, 6.30pm, 1st October, 6.30pm.

SALMONBERRIES

MIKE SCHORFIELD

24th February 1950 - 15th July 1992.

Mike Schorfield came from a working class family in Rotherham and completed a Social Science degree during the 1970's. He came to Nottingham to work as a computer systems officer for the library service of Nottinghamshire County Council and quickly developed a formidable reputation as a thoroughly professional worker, much respected for his talent and integrity.

When Mike was diagnosed HIV Positive six years ago he became a founder member of Nottingham Body Positive where he worked tirelessly with insight, sensitivity, and commitment to develop and improve the services available for people living with HIV and AIDS. His invaluable input to training volunteers for the Project's helpline and the Buddy Scheme was central to his concerns.

Michael and his lover, Andy Parsons finally got together after they met at the Astoria in Nottingham, when they were both Body Positive. At this time Andy remembers that he had only told one person of his antibody status and believed that he would never again have a sexual relationship with anyone. 'But on the contrary, we had five wonderful years with our ups and downs just like anyone else'.

When it was clear that Michael only had a matter of days to live he chose to come home to die in his own bed with Andy at his side and in that time he put his affairs in order.

Andy says "A lot of people don't get a chance to say goodbye. I am eternally grateful that Mike and I were able to use those last four days to say all the things we wanted to each other. For me it was a privilege to have a relationship with someone so well loved, so very special and loving. Michael restored my faith in other people, he saw good in everyone."

Contributed by Andy Parsons, Eve Cina and Mike Millington.

REVIEW - Angie O'Rourke

Angie O'Rourke played acoustic guitar at the Nottingham Womens' Centre in August to about 25 women with her partner Jill. After a nervous beginning with cover songs which varied in confidence and effect she moved on to her own work, coming over much stronger. Her playing at times was brilliant and included considerable Spanish influence. Poignant moments were her songs about her dad and a friend called 'soldier'. Angie presented herself and her music with the minimum of fuss. Watch out for this women - she should be well known, possibly quite soon.

TO SLOVENIA WITH LOVE

When Neil Revill takes his annual holiday this year he will be carrying a message from the Lord Mayor of Nottingham, Cllr. Malcolm Wood (pictured) to the Mayor of Ljubljana, one of Nottingham's twinned cities. Nick decided to approach Nottingham City Council to let them know of his impending visit and they gave him a sealed message to deliver on arrival. Nick has been travelling to Slovenia every year for the last ten years and sees no reason why he should stop now just because of the war elsewhere in Yugoslavia. "I've made many friends there, including some gay men, and will also be taking copies of Gay Times and Outright for them. At present there is only one gay organisation in the country which is just getting off the ground. Slovenes are very poor because of the war and can't afford to travel abroad at present. If anyone would like a gay man as a penfriend in Slovenia give me a call and I'll be happy to carry letters over to Slovene gays. They would love to hear from you". You can ring Neil on (0623) 25360 before mid-September. OUTRIGHT hopes to carry a report on Nick's visit in a future issue.

LEICESTER SAFE SEX BLITZ!

Leicester City Council Health Promotion Unit have joined forces with the Men's Sexual Health Project to promote a week-long blitz on safer sex awareness over the week 28th September-3rd October.

The week begins with a lunchtime promotional launch at the Lesbian & Gay Centre of safer sex literature, produced locally by gay men. Gay men are invited to drop in for information and a look round. Andy Griffiths, Men's Sexual Health Worker said he was very pleased with the support from all the gay pubs and club in the area who are mounting safer sex stalls throughout the week. Poet, writer and critic, Gregg Woods (pictured left) talks on "Queer Culture" at 7.30pm at the Centre. On Thursday 1st October there will be a safer sex review cabaret by Latex Theatre Productions at Leicester Place Club, starting at 9pm, followed by a massive disco there (entrance £1.50). Friday sees showings of "My Own Private Idaho", "Longtime Companion" and a late showing of the "Rocky Horror Picture Show" all at Phoenix Arts on Friday 2nd October. For more details phone Andy on (0533) 547412 or Graham (0533) 526429.

IT'S GAY OUTDOORS

Local members of the Gay Outdoor Club spent an August weekend under canvas on a working farm, perched high up above the Derwent Valley in Derbyshire. Events included a forty mile cycle ride and a twelve mile ramble, and a visit to Chatsworth House. Nick one of the organizers said: "The weather couldn't have been better and we all had a good time". Further events include a walk in Derbyshire on Sunday September 27th, a cycle ride from Leicester on Sunday October 4th. Details, ring Nick on (0533) 811138.

Someone Else from Queens is Queer

Nottingham is privileged to host the premiere of 'Someone Else from Queens is Queer' outside of London. The city's Playhouse theatre is the venue for the first regional performance of the play, written and performed by Richard Elovich.

This is a love story with a difference, about death and activism in the age of AIDS. Richard Elovich's work has been widely performed and acclaimed in New York and across the United States where he has been writing, performing and staging theatre since 1980. In addition to performing, Elovich is an organiser of Act Up/New York's Needle Exchange/AIDS Prevention effort, a member of the New York Mayor's HIV Planning Council and is currently a policy consultant for Gay Men's Health Crisis. This work is dedicated to Greg Bordowitz, who co-wrote it.

Monday, 14th September, 10.00pm, Nottingham Playhouse. Tickets £3.50 £2 (concs.) Box Office (0602) 419419.

LESBIAN NOTTINGHAM

A REVIEW of 'THE GAY MAN'S GUIDE TO SAFER SEX'

a video produced by Scimitar Entertainment and the Terrence Higgins Trust, £17.99.

"The Gay Man's Guide To Safer Sex" is divided into various sections; after introductions by presenter Adam Magnani, Dr. Mike Youle (Senior Research Registrar, HIV Unit, Westminster Hospital) and writer and AIDS activist Simon Watney, the programme portrays different types of sexual activity and featuring voice-over from the presenter, Doctor Youle and a series of vox-pops all clearly voicing safe sex messages, with a strong educational focus. There was also plenty of useful basic information like, 'dont brush your teeth before having sex, as this increases the risk of gum bleeding'. The programme allowed you to feel your way through it, with lovely meditative music and it was possible to come away well-informed in one showing. Indeed its refreshing to see a film made for gay men by gay men.

The THT Gay Men's Health Education Group identified, among others, men who don't identify as gay but have sex with other men and men in rural settings as two groups more likely to have unsafe sex. Yet only cursory attention seems to have been paid to this. The video could have shown, for instance, a gay and bisexual man negotiating sex, thus highlighting some of the problems facing men who don't necessarily identify as 'gay'.

Whilst the video acknowledged that not all gay men make contacts in metropolitan areas, there was no further input about the experiences of isolation that gay men face in rural areas. They could just as easily have as many contacts, but no back up. Also we see a black man and a white man having sex, but there was little further appreciation of the experiences that black men who have sex with men face. All the participants in the film were attractive able-bodied hunky men, which did not address some of the problems facing people differently abled or men who were perceived as unattractive. What about older less attractive men who have sex with men, whether gay-identified or not? There was little in the video that spoke for them.

However, despite these shortcomings the overall impression of the video is of a polished production, which should be seen widely in schools. The more people this video turns onto safer sex and condoms, the more successful it will have been. And with one gay man testing HIV positive on average, every six hours this is clearly an erotic life-saver. Why not ask your local library to stock it as well.

It is obtainable from W. H. Smiths, Our Price and Virgin Megastores nationwide, as well as through mail order or at selected specialist gay outlets, or by telephoning the credit card hotline on 081 868 5454. (compiled by Paul Wolfe & Richard McCance).

Our August competition received only two entries: from Martin Fox of Breaston and Paul Wolfe of Nottingham. Both guessed correctly that the back view of the star signing autographs was Val Leahman, 'Bea Smith' of 'Prisoner Cell Block H' at Europride. We split the prize and both receive £5.

LIFE IS not THE SAME IF YOU'RE GAY.

The laws surrounding pensions make it difficult for unmarried couples to plan for retirement. When you are gay, it is not only the law that makes it difficult, it is the misconceptions surrounding intestacy and trusts. In other words, if you think you may ever want a partner to benefit from your pension plan in the event of your death you cannot leave it to chance.

Your independent financial adviser should not only inform you of the costs involved of any particular pension policy, but the size, strength and past performance of the pensions office. Financial advice however, does not stop there.

To us, getting it right seems surprisingly simple. We do not charge and our service is confidential.

A VIEW FROM THE TOW PATH

Its ourselves we answer to - by Pete Smith

Ring...Ring... "Hello, Ludlow Taxis". Shock, Horror as you realise he's given you a false phone number and, what's worse, done so intentionally. Various informants have given me the impression that this is not an unusual experience for those who try to contact others using 0898 services. Most of us have heard the cautionary tales of people with phone bills for several hundred pounds and make sure we avoid similar problems. At the same time there are stories to tell as a warning to anyone who uses these services as a dating agency. Come on, be honest, quite a few of us do.

The journey from Bangor to Manchester is long and tedious. The train becomes a ship of fools when your date for the weekend is waiting for you, which is a miracle in itself, but tells you after half an hour that he doesn't fancy you and disappears into the crowds. It may be first glance seem the height of foolishness to travel a hundred miles in order to spend a weekend with a complete stranger. However, desperation and loneliness can easily warp our judgement. What is not so obvious is that the telephone is an ideal instrument for deception.

Rob was getting impatient, his visitor was late. But, he told himself, a journey of fifty miles in heavy traffic could not be timed precisely. Ten minutes later his guest had been, come and gone, leaving a deposit of semen on his chest and rubber on his driveway. A quick phone call may seem an easy answer to your problems; however it will make them worse if the problems lie within yourself.

Travelling Salesmen seem the worse. "Hello, I happen to be in Derby this evening and have an hour free, could we meet?" If this situation suits you, it would be difficult to object. In all probability, all you can expect is a visit when it suits your caller. There is no possibility of being given even a phone number, so that you can contact him. They are the landlocked equivalent of sailors, probably with a man in every town they visit.

No doubt many readers could tell similar tales of horror. Three points occur to me. First, anyone using phone services should expect many unpleasant experiences with little chance of success. Second, there are many people out there who desperately need the services of our voluntary organisations rather than the false hopes described above. Third, there is a story here which the Gay Press should have been onto long ago. The number of ads. in them for these phone lines suggests why they have not.

OUT BURST!

Dear Outright. We got a copy of your magazine from a visiting woman. It was a treat to see the article about Chris Drake (No. 28, page 5). ## NEW JEWISH LESBIAN GROUP

The Jewish Lesbian Group in Nottingham is re-forming in time for Rosh Hashanah. The refusal of the Chief Rabbi to allow the Jewish Lesbians and Gay Helpline take part in a Charity Walk, and a feature on C4's 'Out' programme are just two recent events which have placed Jewish Lesbians and Gays in the public eye.

Marian, one of the members involved in the relaunch said: "We want new women to feel very welcome and to help decide what they want from this group. One issue for her is how to reconcile lesbian life in Nottingham with Jewish family life in Leeds".

The meeting takes place at the Lesbian Centre in Nottingham Women's Centre, 30 Chaucer St, Nottingham on Sunday 27th September from 3-5pm. For further information phone Marian (0773) 602534 or Ev (0602) 782989. If you want to use the creche - girls 2 years upwards, boys 2-12 years - phone and let them know.

OUT LOOK

Londoner, Michelle Horton arrived in Lincoln last year. "Before I arrived, I rang Lincoln Switchboard and asked for details of women-only clubs and pubs in the city. Silence was followed by muted laughter. I soon realised that we were lucky to have even one space to meet in!"

I suppose people feel they need to make stronger bonds in smaller places, whereas in London you don't feel obliged to make the same kind of links. This is my first experience of mixed groups; it certainly broadens your horizons, and is good for the men as well, but there is obviously a need to have women-only groups. You can't expect us all to be just one big happy family! I was very touched by the welcome I've received since I've been here, as I didn't know what to expect when I first arrived."

THE PINEAPPLE'S POPPING!

Leicester's gays are in for a weekend of celebrations at the Pineapple Inn down Burleys Way, over the weekend, 11th-13th September with cabaret each evening, to celebrate the end of their refurbishment. Star attraction on Saturday, 12th September is Andre Adore, (pictured). Martin and Graham have wasted no time since they took over the pub in the Summer and have turned it round from a down-at-heel dive to a plush, comfortable venue. And you won't get a stiff neck trying to see the acts because the stage is waist-high. So why not make a date, but get there early, it gets packed these days.

WHAT'S ON

SHANA GOES WILD! The first birthday party of Shana Sound takes place at the Skyy Club in Nottingham on Wednesday 9th September. Doors open 9pm. This popular women only event promises a special guest cabaret star, plus disco.

'BREAKING THE CODE' the story of Mathematician Alan Turing's life as a closet gay man who in his twenties created the theoretical basis for the digital computer. In his thirties he was engaged in secret work that paved the way for an Allied victory in World War II. In his early forties he died in mysterious circumstances. Based on Andrew Hodges book, "Alan Turing: The Enigma", Nottingham Theatre Royal, 7th-12th September, (0602) 482626.

'SOMEONE ELSE FROM QUEENS IS QUEER', is a love story about activism and death in the age of AIDS. Richard Elovich's work has been widely performed and acclaimed in New York and across the United States. In 1991 he received a BESSIE, the New York Dance and Performance award for this show. Written and performed by Richard Elovich, Nottingham Playhouse Foyer, Monday, 14th September, 10pm, (0602) 419419. (see also front page of OUTRIGHT).

'ENTERTAINING MR. SLOANE', wry hilarious, funny and poignant, this is true comedy with Mr. Sloane at its centre representing the 1990's as much as he represented the 1960's when he first hit audiences with the force of a comic whirlwind. Joe Orton makes us laugh to help us learn. Learn what? Come and find out - the lesson is a rare treat! Royal Theatre, Northampton, 17th Sept-3rd October, (0604) 32533.

IT'S QUEER UP NORTH

Although Manchester is outside our normal coverage, with so few lesbian/gay events going off locally you might like to take a trip to sample a unique new festival celebrating the diversity of lesbian and gay culture and experience.

Girls, Girls, Girls. Celebrating lesbian lifestyles through the ages with a fashion show from Sappho to SM. With Dance DJs and Dyke Delights and presenting FLESH Pussy Parlour (Women only). The Hacienda, Wednesday 23rd September.

The Way We Live Now - A reading for five voices This adaptation of Susan Sontag's witty, unsentimental and sometimes hilarious short story, details the reactions of a group of people whose mutual friend is living with AIDS. Contact Theatre, Friday 25th September, 10pm.

Queer Culture - What can the arts do for Lesbians and Gay Men? A discussion event chaired by Stephen Daldry (Artistic Director of the Royal Court Theatre) and featuring Lois Weaver (Split Britches and Gay Sweatshop) and film maker Pratibha Parmar. Two short films will be screened as part of the event. Cornerhouse Cinemas, Saturday 26th September, 3pm.

European Premiere, Split Britches present Lesbians Who Kill. Inside every good girl is a serial killer screaming to get out but who knows what really drives women wild? Find out as Split Britches return to the Green Room after their hilarious appearance in Belle Reprieve earlier this year. Now Peggy Shaw and Lois Weaver appear as May and June, a couple who go very, very wrong... Green Room, Saturday 26th September, 7.30pm.

Sunday Voices. An afternoon of music, poetry and reading featuring various North West poets, The Outlanders and a specially commissioned reading of a new one-act play. With live music in foyer. Green Room, Sunday 27th September, 2pm.

Victims Of Glamour. Ivan uses an infinitely variable feast of Dreadful Drag Divas to explore issues both gay and other wise. Through songs and monologues interspersed with frenetic costume changes, famous characters are subverted and re-arranged. The approach is controversial, the satire is barbed and merciless. Bewildering and immensely entertaining. Green Room, Sunday 27th September, 9pm.

Della Grace - Perverts In Progress. A sequel exhibition to 'Lesbian Boys and Other Inverts', Perverts In Progress seeks to visually represent transgressive strategies of subversion. Alien Dykes from Hell invite you to their party! Manto Cafe Bar.

Pop Against Homophobia. An exhibition of posters and photographs from the world-wide advertising campaign which launches positive, contemporary images of same-sex relationships into mainstream youth culture. Manto Cafe Bar, until 26th September, Admission free.

Family Ties. Comics Come Out! A selection of work from the world's largest collection of lesbian, gay and feminist cartooning. Green Room, 7th September-3rd October.

ARE YOU SATISFIED?

Andy Griffiths, Men's Sexual Health Worker in Leicester is preparing a Needs Assessment Report relating to the health care needs of gay men in the county. He wants to hear from anyone having criticisms of services they have received from hospitals, health authorities, city council or voluntary agencies.

"We need to know whether we are providing the appropriate services for gay men and whether we are targeting the right groups. Quite often you only get to hear of criticisms coming from consumers when it is too late to do anything about it. If we know about what's wrong we can try and put it right in future." So don't be afraid to make your voice heard if you feel you have had a raw deal at the hands of an agency or individual. Talk to Andy on (0533) 547412. Confidentiality is assured. He needs to know latest by 9th October.

OUT BURST

Dear Editor.

I refer to Gregg Taylor's letter in Outright, No. 28 regarding extending social contact for gay men. I think that this is a marvellous idea and something which I have from time to time considered initiating in this area, but haven't known where to begin. Years ago I ran a social support group in the South, and since coming to live in this semi-isolated area three years ago, have come to realise just how lonely one can be.

So if there are others like me in North West Leicestershire/South Derbyshire who would appreciate some friendly contact with a view to forming a social group perhaps they would care to contact me, enclosing a stamped addressed envelope, so that an exploratory meeting can be arranged.

Yours sincerely, Peter Ball,

ICEBREAKERS FOR NOTTINGHAM

A new 'stepping stone' social group for gay men in Nottingham kicks off on Friday 18th September, for people of all ages, new to the gay scene. The group will be co-ordinated by Pete, Cliff, Max, Paul and Dave from Lesbian & Gay Switchboard and Kev from Gay & Lesbian Young People of Nottingham.

Theatre and cinema trips, visits to clubs and pubs in other towns and ten-pin bowling are just some of the planned activities. The group will meet on the first and third Fridays of each month at 8pm in Nottingham. For details of venue telephone, Nottingham Lesbian & Gay Switchboard (see helplines, page 6).
