HEALTH • HEALTH • HEALTH

LESBIANS AND HEALTH CARE FOCUS GROUPS This national survey was launched last yr from L'boro Uni, getting over 1000 lesbians to take part - 22 from Notts. Julie Fish is intending to run a small number of focus group discussions on lesbians' feelings about our breasts and perceptions of breast cancer risks and she would like to encourage readers of LOOKOUT! to take part. To take part or for more info about the research call Julie on 0116 266 3181. You don't need to have taken part in the survey to participate in the group discussion.

LESBIAN AND BREAST CANCER Breast Cancer Care is the national organisation offering info and support to those affected by breast cancer. The services are free, confidential and accessible. They include a national helpline: 0500 245 345, a wide range of free info - booklets, leaflets, audio tapes, volunteer services - 1 to 1 support from a volunteer who has had breast cancer, and an aftercare service. In 98, Breast Cancer Care began a 3 yr Equal Opps Project which includes training lesbian volunteers who have personal experience of breast cancer. These volunteers will be able to talk to Lesbian Groups about the services available and provide 1 to 1 support to lesbians with breast cancer and/or their partners. For more info phone the helpline - 0500 245 345 or contact Andrea a local BCC volunteer through the Lesbian Centre.

LESBIANS WITH M.E. Are you a lesbian who has M.E. or cares for someone who has? If you are interested in joining a support group phone Morag on 0115 847 1544.

LESBIANS 60+ CAN YOU HELP? A PhD student is researching into the health and social care needs of lesbians aged 60+. Confidentiality is assured and anonymity will be respected.
