LOOKOUT!

Out and About

WOMEN'S CAFE NIGHT

AT GEORGE'S WINE BAR

Broad St, Hockley, Nottingham
Chill-out on hot summer evenings.

Good food - Good music

Every second Tuesday of the month
7pm til 10.30pm.

Future dates: 9th September 2003, then 14th October, 11th November

The long running 'Women's Cafe' which has been held at the Real Art Cafe for a number of years, has now moved to a new venue.

From September we will be using
GEORGE'S WINE BAR, Broad Street,
Hockley - opposite the Broadway Cinema.
It will continue to run on the second Tuesday of every month from 7pm to 10.30pm. Georgina, our host, will provide hot and cold food and non-alcoholic and alcoholic drinks. It's a reasonably accessible ground floor venue, with comfortable seats, lots of pink shoes and cherubs.

For those who haven't been before it's a Women only, easy-going, quietish
night, a chance to catch up with friends and make new ones. Don't be afraid to come by yourself, just introduce yourself
at the bar and we'll adopt you.

GEORGE'S WINE BAR is open for food and drinks Wednesday to Saturday evenings. Tel 0115 948 4045

Issue 28, Sept, Oct, Nov 2003

Welcome to the autumn edition. Apologies this time for any glitches in the layout or any old items left in from previous issues – Sarah decided to leave us so this issue
has had to be hastily cobbled together.
Thanks for all the hard work over the last couple of years, Sarah. We also forgot to thank Maggie for all she did in organising the Women's Café at The Real Art Café.

If you would like to publicise an event, submit an article, advertise a group or organisation, place an ad in the Lookout for Love column or suggest items you would like to see included, please send by email to: lookoutmag@hotmail.com or by post to:-

Lookout
c/o The Women's Centre,
30 Chaucer Street,
Nottingham,
NG1 5LP

If you would be interested in receiving an e-mailed copy of Lookout or a short monthly update, please send us your email address.

PLEASE support the new venue for the 'Women's Café' - numbers had dwindled towards the end of the run at the Real Art Cafe, so let's make sure the re-launch is a big success. If we can't keep numbers up it'll have to go! George's Wine Bar has a great atmosphere - The venue has been used by the SWIFT Dining Group and the Pride Committee so we hope we've found a good home.

The Lesbian Quiz Nights will POSSIBLY take place here. A Tuesday night in October is being planned but no firm date as yet. Keep an eye out for flyers in the usual venues or keep posted by email :
lookoutmag@hotmail.com

SWIFT HITS THE SPOT

The idea of combining a love of cooking (and eating!), and an interest in meeting new people, especially if they are single, seemed like a good idea. And indeed the idea, in the form of SWIFT (Single Women Into Food and Talk), appears to be a good combination for other people too! Linda and I started this singles dinner party project in March and it has grown from strength to strength.

The first three evenings were in my house, but as numbers grew and regulars started returning to meet new people and build friendships with the women they had met, it was clear that we were outgrowing this venue! So in June we went to a restaurant in town, which was the first of what we have decided will be a regular occurrence. In July someone who came along on the first evening hosted us, in a beautiful cottage in South Derbyshire. There were 18 of us, and my love of cooking was tested to the limits!

Whether we are in my home, someone else's home or in a restaurant we have a three-course meal. There is always an option for each of the courses, one of them being vegetarian. If we eat at someone's home, diners bring their drink but tea and coffee are also provided. The comments that have followed the evening seem to show how people feel about it:

'Just a note to thank you for a fantastic evening'

'Many thanks for your hard work and hospitality - the meal was delicious and the evening an excellent idea. I look forward to seeing you again.'

As a consequence of the popularity we have slightly amended the programme up until Christmas to try and cover all tastes, by having some evenings in people's homes that can accommodate larger numbers so that people who have been before can come again, and first timers can be assured of meeting lots of new women.

I will also be hosting some meals in my house so that women who want to start by meeting a small number can do so. But we'll also be going to a couple of restaurants in town, including a Christmas extravaganza at the beginning of December. The costs vary according to the venue but range between approximately £15-£20. So if you are single and wanting to meet new single women give me a ring or send me an e-mail and I'll send you more information:

Lookout for Love

We find it hard to believe, but it would appear from this empty column that out of all of you women, girls, ladies, females of all persuasions on the mailing list – there are none of you who would like to meet that special like-minded significant other to share fun and frolics with.

Come on – where's your sense of adventure?

It'll only take a few of you to get this ball rolling again for the New Year edition. All you have to do is send in your witty ad to the email address:-

lookoutmag@hotmail.com

Or by post to "Lookout" at The Women's Centre, 30 Chaucer Street, Nottingham NG1 5LP

To reply to an advert...

Write your letter and place it in a stamped addressed envelope with the box number written on the front. Place this in another stamped envelope and post to: Lookout! Personals replies, Nottingham Lesbian Community Centre, Nottingham NG1 5LP. Nobody will read your reply and it will be forwarded directly to the advertiser.

Don't forget to enclose your reply address!

SAFETY FIRST

Meeting new friends requires caution. Please make sure that you have taken precautions to ensure your safety at all times.

Try to arrange meetings in public places, not your own home. It is often best to meet in a crowded place, e.g. a restaurant or a pub.

Don't give your address until you are absolutely sure that you want to continue the relationship.

Trust your instincts and don't meet again if you have any doubts. On your first meeting, it is best to make your own way to and from the venue. It is best not to accept an offer of transport. These points may seem over-cautious, but we believe you should be safe, rather than sorry. If the person you are meeting is genuine, they will understand.
