ANARCHISM

& FEMINISM

ANARCHISTS BELIEVE IN THE POWER TO DETERMINE OUR OWN ACTIONS WITHOUT ABUSING THAT POWER TO CONTROL OTHERS. CONTRARY TO COMMON BELIEF ANARCHY IS ORDER - WITHOUT GOD, WITHOUT MASTER, WITHOUT STATE.

Nearly 100 women got together at Camden Women's Centre during the weekend of the 28-29th May to discuss anarchism and feminism. Why did so many women feel the need to travel from all over the country to discuss this, seemingly, obscure subject? What did we gain from the weekend apart from sun, good food and feelings of solidarity? What we discovered was, whether our individual roots were in the feminist or anarchist movements, we shared common ideas and aims - and from this grew a sense of strength.

The conference arose from a real need to express the fact that feminism and anarchism are the same. Anarchist women felt oppressed by sexism in mixed anarchist groups i.e. the theory and practice were often polarised. Some feminist women felt frustrated that direct action doesn't always come out of consciousness raising groups and there is a sense that as nothing is feminist enough the alternative is to do nothing. Feminist women have felt alienated from political issues due to the depersonalisation of the political and the depoliticisation of the personal.

The workshops covered the basics of life, children as property, sexuality versus genitality, mental health, revolutionary feminism, anarchism and the women's movement, sexism in the anarchist movement and class as it is defined at present.

It is hoped that as a result of this conference and in view of the interest generated, an anarchist/feminist network will be set up - one used to exist but is now defunct. A newsletter has been produced - for information and copies contact:-

Dear If You Don't

I was very dissatisfied to read the comments on the Catholic Institute for International Relations. The great repression of the church has never been representative of all the church. Look further afield than the gutless churches of England and Europe and you will find priests, bishops and even cardinals murdered and jailed in S. Africa, Zimbabwe, Poland and throughout S. America. That Catholic ideology is totally foreign to what I believe should not cloud the fact that humanitarian thinking has its roots in Christianity and if there are those who carry on that tradition today we should not shun them.

WAYSIDE PULPIT

Man makes religion, religion does not make man. Religion is indeed man's self-consciousness and self-awareness as long as he has not found his feet in the universe. But man is not an abstract being, squatting outside the world. Man is the world of men, the State, and society. This State, this society, produce religion which is an inverted world consciousness, because they are an inverted world. Religion is the general theory of this world, its encyclopedic compendium, its logic in popular form, its spiritual point d'honneur, its enthusiasm, its moral sanction, its solemn complement, its general basis of consolation and justification. It is the fantastic realization of the human being inasmuch as the human being possesses no true reality. The struggle against religion is therefore indirectly a struggle against that world whose spiritual aroma is religion.

Religious suffering is at the same time an expression of real suffering and a protest against real suffering. Religion is the sigh of the oppressed creature, the sentiment of a heartless world, and the soul of soulless conditions. It is the opium of the people.

The abolition of religion, as the illusory happiness of men, is a demand for their real happiness. The call to abandon their illusions about their condition is a call to abandon a condition which requires illusions.

The immediate task is to unmask human alienation in its secular form, now that it has been unmasked in its sacred form. Thus the criticism of heaven transforms itself into the criticism of earth, the criticism of religion into the criticism of law, and the criticism of theology into the criticism of politics.

Marx in an introduction to his critique of Hegel's philosophy of right.

Of course we do not know what androgyny is. [Virginia] Woolf writes of a signal, no noisier than a single leaf detaching itself from a plane tree, but a "signal pointing to a force in things which one has overlooked." For by the turn of the century, or earlier, virility had become self-conscious—men were writing "only with the male side of their brains," as indeed, with the exception of those already mature by the First World War, they have been writing until this very time. Woolf sees that unless some collaboration takes place "in the mind between the woman and the man before the act of creation" we will have war, the Forsytes, the Old Wives' Tale, the women's rights movement, but we will not have love nor, perhaps, life.

Carolyn G. Heilbrun, Toward a Recognition of Androgyny (1973)

Since 1976 the military Junta's tactics for physical repression changed.
Secret prisoners came to be the norm rather than the exception. In Jan 76 3% of all prisoners arrested disappeared. This proportion had increased by August of that year to 57% and now seems to be the general policy.

Pinochet's regime has closed down businesses, fired workers and reduced the budget for public health and education. This has been done to put the burden of the crises squarely on the working people and to the benefit of the Multinationals and a small circle of Chilean big business. According to -official figures- about 20% of the working population are unemployed.
Starvation and poverty are now common place for the majority of workers.

FRIDAY NIGHTS AT NOTTINGHAM FILM THEATRE/THE NEWMARKET!

The new 'friday films' series advertised elsewhere in this issue starts on 30 September.

It may be important to some film goers, revolutionaries and real ale freaks to note that apart from Battle of Chile (6.30, 11Nov) all the films start at 7.30 and run for not more than 1hr 55mins so you should be able to be in the Newmarket (or other pub of your choice) by 9.30.
Cheers!

ALTERNATIVE PATHS TO PLANNING (SEE DIARY)

This looks like an interesting day conference despite its curious establishment alternativism, however:

'The speakers include... an outstanding anarchist thinker... The organiser hastens to add that the anarchist is a sensible and sincere man...' !!!!!!!!

'It is virtually impossible to catch the main culprits [record companies] in the charitable or political causes are vulnerable...'

are breaking the law. Work places covered by a basic wage are: Pubs, Hotels, Chip Shops, Clothes Shops, Cafes, Shoe Shops, Food Shops, Newsagents, Laundries, Dress Factories, Restaurants.

A free leaflet has been produced by the Peoples Centre and they will also

NOTTINGHAM ABC DEFENCE GROUP

Whether or not any of Harold Wilson's associates were security risks, the government obviously thinks Duncan Campbell is one. In addition to the original ABC charges under sections 1, 2 and 7 of the Official Secrets Act in connection with the infamous meeting between journalists Campbell, Crispin Aubrey and ex-soldier John Berry in Berry's flat last February, Campbell (a specialist in communications technology) has now been charged again under section 1 apparently in connection with some 200 photos of radio transmission aerials found in his flat. "It seems the authorities feel threatened by the existence of someone so well versed in military communications technology presumably because the more one learns about it, the more it becomes apparent that it is directed at the people of Britain at least as much as against any external 'enemy' - and they will therefore take the most absurd steps to gag him" (Peace News 26 Aug 1977)

In Nottingham, a group of people who are concerned about these charges and their implications have come together to form a local defence group affiliated to the national defence committee in London. We see our role as putting pressure on the government to drop these charges and to try and make people aware of the government's systematic attack on what we still like to think of as 'basic freedoms'. The first issue of a newsletter is being produced now, and should be widely distributed soon, and we hope to hold a public meeting in the autumn with one of the three speaking. Apart from these, we also plan to hold various fund-raising activities to help our activities in Nottingham and to pay the three's legal expenses.

If you are interested and want to help, find out more about the case and our future activities (we meet regularly to discuss developments) please contact: Nottingham ABC Defence Group, c/o Mushroom, 10 Heathcote Street, Nottingham. Telephone 582506

TOWARDS A NEW REVOLUTIONARY SOCIALIST ORGANISATION.

IS SUCH A NEW ORGANISATION NEEDED? IF SO HOW COULD ONE BE FORMED? WHAT ARE THE LINKS AND THE BREAKS BETWEEN CLASS STRUGGLE AND REVOLUTIONARY ORGANISATION?

A meeting to discuss these questions will start at 7.30 on Friday 9th September

International Community Centre

Two members of the independent marxist group BIG FLAME will introduce the meeting. Big Flame have been circulating a MANIFESTO* which argues that the modern needs of class struggle should be the touchstone of an effective revolutionary politics and criticises many other currents on the left for tending to impose politics developed from other periods of history. Acting from what are the modern needs of class struggle is what marks off a reformist group from a revolutionary one. The other sheet raises points on this.

The meeting hopes to bring together socialists and militants from many areas of activity for useful co-operation. BF speakers in other towns have helped in the coming together of militants over practical struggle as well as in the formation of political groups including some BF groups and several "project groups". These are wider and independent groups (not fronts); there is interest in such a group forming in Nottingham. BF recently held a Nat'l Conference around the Manifesto.

A less formal meeting on Saturday 10th September at Floor 10 will take place for those interested. This should continue from the previous evening in some ways, discuss the Manifesto and particularly the relationship between women and BF and

QUOTES FROM THE BIG FLAME MANIFESTO ON CLASS STRUGGLE AND REVOLUTIONARY ORGANISATION.

"We are just stating that capitalism, under the blows of a strong working class offensive, has to fight hard for its survival."

"...the rapid growth of working class struggle in this country in the 60s and early 70s is one of the principal reasons for the deep crisis of capitalism in Britain"

"...it illustrates one side of the working class - its strength and combativity, its ability to wage autonomous struggles, that is struggles in which there is a separation between the needs of capitalist development and the needs of the working class."

" However, throughout this period the working class remained dominated by reformist organisations, the Labour Party and particularly the trade union apparatuses"

"We have to develop workplace strategies which pose the question of the nature of work and the question of power. Outside the workplace there is the same need for revolutionary organisation - among housewives, the unwaged reproducers of labour power, and in the community where the state increasingly exerts its power over our social and personal lives. The working class struggles every day in every aspect of its life. Our job is to articulate and develop the communist content of working class struggle"

"We believe that the revolutionary party will be born out of a long non-linear process of struggle, co-operation and confrontation and fusions among various tendencies - and this will happen in the heart of the class struggle.

"We criticise the SWP for its numbers idea of building the party and its way of seeing the movement only as an appendix to the party " (eg in black movement and Nat'l Abortion Campaign). "We criticise the IMG - against the idea of the party being posed in terms of ideological continuity (Trotskyism in their case) - a regroupment among revolutionary forces is valid only if fought for, debated and decided inside the masses and their struggles"

"...despite this, we will work for joint initiatives etc wherever it is valuable for the advancement of the class struggle"

"What we propose instead is the possibility of forming a new organisation forged inside the struggle and the experiences of vanguard elements of the working class"

"Can we build an organisation that is a useful instrument in the the struggle and at the same time does not manipulate its members and the class vanguards it works with? The new organisation we want to build must also contain within it the conditions for the development of the new woman and the new man."

NOTTINGHAM FILM THEATRE BROAD STREET NOTTINGHAM FRIDAY FILMS

Friday evening screenings from 30th September 1977 through to March 1978 will be devoted to a closely related series of films which in different ways reflect a world wide struggle against imperialism in all its many forms. By choosing 'imperialism' we have been able to select from a very rich source of films and to present them as a number of films in a particular context. The season will be backed up with an extensive programme booklet which will be available at the Film Theatre and bookshops. In 1978 formal/political issues implicitly raised in the 1977 films will be examined more closely through films such as Man with a Movie Camera, Vent D'Est, Strike and Night Cleaners.

CHALLENGE TO IMPERIALISM

ANTONIO DAS MORTES

FRIDAY 30 SEPTEMBER 7.30

Brazil 95min

Antonio Das Mortes, a mercenary killer is hired by a tyrannical landowner to suppress a revolt. After executing its leader, he transfers his allegiance to the oppressed rebels and takes up their cause against the landowner and his thugs. In the final battle he assumes a mythical stature.

'In Antonio Das Mortes I did a great deal of research on popular theatre, the moral and psychological behaviour and attitudes of the peasants, their poetry, music, language and so forth. I used the popular theatre form to express a realistic picture of the emotions of the people as they faced their own problems'. Glauber Rocha, director, writing in Cineaste. Ironically the financial backing for this film was from West German TV.

THE GUNS

FRIDAY 7 OCTOBER 7.30 110min

This film is about the twin oppressors, mysticism and armed force, the failure of an individual's revolutionary act and the more significant revolutionary act of the peasants: In a Brazilian village soldiers guard the Mayor's produce while starving peasants follow a sacred ox in the belief that it will bring rain. In the end the peasants kill the ox and eat it. Ruy Guerra's film is a major work and particularly important as one of the films which introduced Cinema Nova.

IRELAND BEHIND THE WIRE

FRIDAY 4 NOVEMBER 7.30

100min

There are two aims with this film: First to remind us of the reasons why the civil rights movement in Ulster in 1968/9 had such support and was pursued so fearlessly by working class people. Second to expose the violently repressive role of the British Army and to put an end to the vicious myth of 'peace keeping'. The Berwick Street Film Collective shows these things through the eyes and words of working class people in Derry and Belfast.

BATTLE OF THE TEN MILLION

FRIDAY 28 OCTOBER 7.30

58min

A well argued account of the Cuban revolution looked at through a single event: Castro's attempt to raise the 1970 sugar harvest from around 4½ million tons to an all time high of 10 million tons. Made by the SLON/ISKRA film co-op which grew out of filming the May 1968 events in France.

WHAT IS DEMOCRACY?

FRIDAY 28 OCTOBER (With Battle of 10 Million)

41min

Carlos Alvarez investigates Columbian 'democracy' over the last 40 years. He ridicules the 'protective' role of USAF in stamping out subversion and the Columbian establishment who allow their government to be manipulated by 'uncle Sam'. And he parades the farces of several presidential elections.

EMITAI

FRIDAY 21 OCTOBER 7.30 102min

Based on an actual event at the end of World War 2 in Senegal when the French Army demanded rice from the villagers who turned in vain to their gods for help. When the rice is no longer needed, discipline still has to be maintained amongst the 'natives'. The result is the kind of mindless tragedy that has haunted colonized people for centuries. This is a truly important film of revolution with one of the best and clearest views of what the raising of consciousness is about. By Ousmane Sembene.

BLOOD OF THE CONDOR

FRIDAY 14 OCTOBER 7.30

74min

With great power Jorge Sangines shows in this film the premeditated extermination of the Bolivian Quechua Indians by North American 'Peace Corps' doctors who sterilise the women in a maternity hospital without them knowing what is being done to them; how the realisation of this affects the villagers and their relationship with the ruling, monied minority and the city.

BATTLE OF CHILE 1&2

FRIDAY 11 NOVEMBER 6.30

Part 1 106min Part 2 99min

Patricio Guzman's moving documentary retraces the last tense months of the Allende government as it tries to push its socialist programme through the vetoes of Congress and the opposition's campaign of economic disruption. The film is a searing indictment of collusion against democracy between the CIA, the opposition and the armed forces. It also challenges any notion of a parliamentary road to socialism.

MINAMATA

FRIDAY 18 NOVEMBER 7.30

122min. What became known as Minamata disease is mercury poisoning from industrial effluent. Its effect on a Japanese fishing community was concentrated and devastating. Noriaki Tsuchimoto shows how private incapacity is gradually transformed into public political action. Eventually the political and economic motives which first introduced mercury poisoning to the fishing community are challenged on their own ground.

LETTER TO JANE

FRIDAY 25 NOVEMBER 7.30

A filmic letter by Godard which is a critical response to a newspaper photograph of Jane Fonda with the North Vietnamese shortly after finishing her work with Godard in Tout Va Bien. It poses some problems of how images are understood and manipulated and of how film can be analysed politically. But, the criticism is of Jane as a function not as a person. 55min

VIETNAM JOURNEY

FRIDAY 25 NOVEMBER (with Letter to Jane)

A record of the journey Jane Fonda made to North Vietnam in 1974 when 'popular' criticism of this imperialist war was at its height. Filmed by Haskell Wexler 60m
